

Grand Jury Calls All Involved in Hall-Mills Case

Husband of Slain Choir Leader Criticizes Police for Not Arresting Both Families After Crime.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 3.—(By A. P.)—All persons connected with the Hall-Mills murder case with the exception of slain rector's widow, Mrs. Frances Noel Stevens Hall, were summoned to the court house today by Special Deputy Attorney General Mott for a checking, it was reported, of evidence to be submitted to the grand jury.

To Accept Statement.

The investigation, it was learned, intend to interrogate those persons in the order in which they appeared in the case beginning with the two New Brunswicks policemen who discovered the bodies of the Rev. Edward W. Hall and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor H. Mills, on the Phillips farm.

The statements made by Mrs. Hall Wednesday to newspaper men probably will be taken as her story for the grand jury, it was said, and for this reason she was not called today.

A Mistake.

James Mills, husband of the slain choir singer, visited the scene of the crime for the first time last night. He declared then that he thought authorities had made a mistake in their failure to arrest all members of both families immediately.

"They might have learned something then," he said. "But it is too late."

Mills added that he believed the eye witness story told by Mrs. Jane Gibson.

Test of Banking Practice Is Made of Hooper Bank

Lincoln, Nov. 3.—(Special)—The Dodge county bank of Hooper has appealed to the supreme court from the judgment of the district court that it should pay Charles E. Linn the difference between $2,117, which he owned

$1, and $3,000, the value of a mortgage given as collateral security and which the bank bought and afterwards collected. A nest question in banking law is involved. The bank, as the agreement provided, sold the mortgage when Linn didn't pay his note and bought it in for the amount of the debt. Later it collected the entire amount. The lower court said a bank must account to a customer for any excess received from collateral.

Falls City Police Seek Man on Kidnapping Charge

Falls City, Neb., Nov. 3.—(Special) Telegram—Kidnapping charges await Bill Spier of Rulo, who Thursday boarded a freight train at Falls City bound for Omaha, taking with him his 14-year-old niece and Ruth Sargent, 18, of Falls City. The girls made their getaway from Falls City dressed in hobo attire. Bill Prater of Rulo, father of the younger girl, has asked the police to locate his brother-in-law and has promised to prosecute.

11 More Plead Guilty to Mail Raids in Bluffs

Sentence Probably Reserved Until Next Week—Total Number of Indictments Now Number 33.

Eleven more well-dressed and intelligent-looking young mail clerks stood before Federal Judge Martin J. Wade in Council Bluffs yesterday and pleaded guilty to indictments charging thefts from the mails.

Their appearance in court was dramatic and tense.

After they had pleaded, Judge Wade announced he probably would not pass sentence until next week.

Chewing gum, cigarettes, candy, cigars, shaving cream, razors, rings, lead pencils, soap, calendars and women's wearing apparel were included in the alleged thefts, all of which were articles of small value.

The 11 indictments were announced in a supplemental report made to Judge Wade by the federal grand jury yesterday.

This makes a total of 33 indictments. The list includes all but one of the employees of the Union Pacific terminal recently suspended for alleged thefts from the mails.

The clerks named in the final report are:

Sophus P. Hansen, Clear Lake, Ia.; Hartley T. Coon, Columbus, Neb.; Robert S. Linville, Summer, Neb.; Lawrence E. Brooks, Red Oak, Ia.; Harley R. Perry, Massena, Ia.; Glen O. Myers, Corning, Ia.; Beryl F. Armstrong, Council Bluffs; Albert H. Krueger, Waterloo, Ia.; Forrest K. Hatton, Sidney, Ia.; Herman Moormaw, Sidney, Ia., and Otto F. Kucera, Tobias, Neb.

Greater New York City to Celebrate 25th Birthday

New York, Nov. 3.—Miss Manhattan will celebrate her 25th anniversary next year with all the women of the land as her hostesses, according to plans announced from headquarters of the American Woman's association, Inc. The association has offered its equipment and services as a rallying point for the thousands of business women of the country whose activities bring them into constant touch with New York city, in that they may give momentum to a fitting celebration for this important anniversary of greater New York.

Twenty-five years ago next year, the five boroughs of the present greater city were united to form the present metropolis, making it the largest in this country and the second in size in the world. It is considered highly appropriate that leadership in the forthcoming celebration should be furnished by the women of the country, since woman's struggle for civic and commercial recognition in the life of this country has been most intense during the past score of years with ever increasing success.
