Prohibition to Be Big Issue in 1924, Smoot Declares

Utah Senator Says Elections Show Liquor Will Be Leading Question in Future Campaigns.

Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Modification of the national prohibition law must be given serious consideration by both leading political parties in framing their platforms in 1924, Senator Smoot of Utah, one of the republican leaders of the senate, declared upon his return to Washington.

Although he has always been a strong "dry," Senator Smoot declared that Tuesday's election results clearly showed that the prohibition issue cannot be avoided and that it will be a controlling factor in future elections.

Senator Smoot also expressed the opinion that an extra session of congress after March 4 is inevitable because the progressives and radicals will so shape events as to bring about this result.

Wave Sweeps Middle West.

"There is no question about a radical wave having swept the middle west," said Senator Smoot. "It may be called progressivism or by any other name. It was responsible for the election of senatorial candidates in Nebraska, North Dakota and Minnesota.

"And there was an uprising of farmers because of intolerable conditions. Their crops are rotting, even in Utah, and transportation to market could not be provided. They were ready to strike at anybody, and did so at the party in power.

"While a radical wave swept the middle west the same result was accomplished by a "wet" wave in the east. This was evinced by the results in New York and New Jersey.

"In the next congress, the parties must consider two classes. If they amalgamate or co-operate, they can put over anything in the shape of legislation."

Must Recognize Issue.

In view of the situation that will prevail when the Sixty-eighth congress comes into existence, Senator Smoot predicted that full cognizance must be taken of the "wet" issue as raised during the recent campaign.

He insisted that the national conventions, formulating their platforms in 1924, must take into consideration modification of the existing prohibition statutes.

Senator Smoot would venture no predictions as to how far the farm bloc and the "wet" bloc will go in the direction of pooling their interests. He merely pointed out the possibilities that lie in such a coalition.

That nothing will be achieved during the approaching short winter session was the belief expressed by Mr. Smoot. He said a few supply bills may be passed, but some of these may go over to the extra session.

Omaha Cowboys Hunt Wild Steer

Animal That Fled Stockyards Routs Family From Home.

They didn't care for mud or rain. For they were cowboys and cowboys are known for their disregard of the weather.

I the mud and rain Saturday a group of boys and some grown folks, too, who reside in the vicinity of 2700 South Thirteenth street, scurried and scampered about, most of them carrying homemade lariats.

They were on a "wild steer hunt!"

Up and down the muddy slopes of the "hollow" at Thirteenth and Bancroft streets they searched in vain for the wild steer that escaped from the stockyards last Sunday morning.

The hunt has been going on since that time, but the interest reached its climax yesterday afternoon when the steer swooped down on the yard of P. H. Connell, 2770 South Thirteenth street, and took possession of the domicile. The Connells sent out an S. O. S. call, but by the time the army of homemade cowpunchers arrived the steer had decided to move.

The hunt continued until it became so dark that the hunters were afraid they might mistake each other for the animal. Even the police were called to help. Emergency Officers Sinclair, George and Payne joined in the hunt, but to no avail.

Overseas League Holds Armistice Ball

Three thousand red, white and blue balloons, suspended from the ceiling in the form of an immense American flag that covered the entire hall, gave the Hotel Fontenelle ballroom a striking appearance for the second annual Armistice ball of the Women's Overseas Service league.

About the walls were draped flags of the United States and allied nations. Clusters of balloons were wafted about by the dancers during one of the dance numbers.

Those in charge of the function included Miss Francis Nieman, president of the league; Miss Ethel Fullaway, chairman of the finance committee, and the Misses Helen Cornell and Edith Dahlstrom in the receiving line. Nearly 300 persons were present.

Proceeds from the dance will be placed in an endowment fund to furnish a bed in an Omaha hospital for needy ex-service men or needy families of former soldiers.

Orders Issued Against Elections in Fiume

Abbazia, Nov. 11.—After a list had been prepared for the municipal elections in Fiume, which were scheduled for early in December, orders arrived from Rome Friday to not hold the elections. When the news reached Belgrade, Jugo-Slavia decided to protest and the parliament voted increased credits to the army and navy. The Jugo-Slavs are buying arms and munitions from Germany.
