Omaha Grain

Omaha, Nov. 14.

Grain markets developed a steadier tone today, being influenced by the higher foreign cables and the more unfavorable political outlook abroad. A better general cash demand was apparent and exporters were good buyers of rye from the United States and wheat from Canada. Also the run of receipts were generally smaller.

Total arrivals at Omaha were only 83 cars, consisting of 19 cars of wheat, 42 cars of corn, 28 cars of oats and 4 cars of rye and barley, as compared with a total run of 90 cars last year. Total shipments were 110 cars as against 39 cars a year ago.

There was an improved demand for wheat, quite a number of cars carried over met with a ready sale at unchanged to 1c higher, being generally 1c up. Corn sold readily ½@1¼c up. Oats were strong, ½@1c higher. Rye was quoted 1@2c up, and barley ¼@1c higher.

Chicago Grain

By CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—December wheat today sold at a new high on the present movement and the May within 1-8c of the best figures of the season, the persistent strength in Liverpool and Winnipeg finally bringing in increased speculative buying, which found offerings light. December advanced 1 3-4 to 1.19 with the close with 1-4 of the top. Net gains were 1-2@1 3-8c on the nearby futures, while July was unchanged. Trade in corn broadened with December selling at a new high for the season and net gains were 1-2@1 1-4c, while oats were 1-4@1-2c, and rye, 1 1-8c higher.

While there was little in the export demand that attracted attention with sales of 400,000 bushels reported, there was sufficient buying of December and selling of May by cash interests and of December outright by the seaboard to tighen up that delivery materially and it went to 2c over the May at one time, resting orders checking the advance.

There was an impression in some quarters that eastern mills were buying the December wheat and selling the May, giving up the former in exchange for the cash and keeping the latter hedged in May. Premiums on spot were 1@1¼c lower for hard winter, but in the southwest offerings were readily absorbed. Liverpool closed ⅝@1¼c higher.

Corn Broad Market.

Corn was a big, broad market, with cash interests good buyers of December, which was from ¾c under to ⅝c over the May and closed at practically the same figure as the deferred futures. Local bulls found little opposition to an advance except for a brief period early. There were reports of a keen cash demand from the east, with a bid equal to 6@11¼c over Chicago prices, which had considerable influence on sentiment. Premiums on spot were unchanged, with receipts, 176 cars.

Fluctuations in oats were largely a reflection of those in corn, with the market showing a firm undertone, although trade was light. Receipts, 112 cars. Charters have been made for 1,500,000 bushels to load next week from here.

Houses with seaboard connections were free buyers of rye and May sold at a new high on the crop. Export business was estimated at 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 bushels, although the seaboard claimed only 500,000 bushels to Germany. Exporters bought 400,000 to 1,000,000 bushels for winter storage at eastern ports and were after more. Sales of 200,000 bushels were made to go to store.

Pit Notes.

With a short crop of corn west of the Missouri river and extensive feeding operations in all sections, there is a demand for corn all through that territory extending to the extreme west at better prices than Chicago, to Kansas City No. 2 yellow sold at 74c, against 68½@69c at Chicago and in some points they are paying equal to about 80c here. These reports were the basis for much buying and an advance of nearly 3c from Monday's low point and establishing a new high for the season.

The break in stocks and cotton in New York encouraged a little selling of grains at the last without having material effect.

A feature in the export situation in wheat, as Julius H. Barnes sees it, is that within the last 30 days Italian exchange has improved over 20 per cent, which makes the at home cost of wheat in Italy the equivalent of 35c per bushel better relatively with American markets. A cable from Rome today said that Italy is to place an import tax on foreign wheat of 29c per bushel.

While the country offered a little more corn on the bulge, their sales were not large. There is more corn moving market-ward than the average at this season, but accumulations have been small as the grain is going in all directions. The break of ⅝c from the top put the market in better condition at the finish.

Traders in wheat are disposed to take the buying side on breaks. Bad roads in the American and Canadian northwest has checked farmers' deliveries. At Winnipeg November wheat showed 5c advance from the close last Friday and closed 6¾c over December, against 6c the previous day.
