

$100 Check Sent Free Shoe Fund by Stock Yards

Contribution by "Corporation With a Soul" Will Help Several Dozen Poor Little Youngsters.

The Union Stock Yards company is a corporation with a soul. That is very evident. Wednesday came a check from this company, made out to the Free Shoe Fund, The Omaha Bee. The check was for $100. That will put warm, durable shoes on two or three dozen pairs of cold, little feet.

A splendid gift from this corporation. Other contributions, not so large, but just as generous in proportion, have come in from individuals.

Already several of the most pressing cases have been attended, and those poor boys and girls are happy and safe in their new, warm, stout shoes.

Every cent goes to buy shoes for children of the desperately needy. Not a cent for "overhead" expenses. Your charity dollar is 100 per cent efficient if given in this cause.

Send or bring your offering today. Address The Omaha Bee Free Shoe Fund.

Omaha Commission Man Dies Suddenly

Edwin Patton Baker, 49, prominent South Omaha commission man, died suddenly at his home yesterday morning. Death was caused by heart disease, it is believed.

Mr. Baker had complained of having a cold, but retired in good spirits Wednesday night and arose yesterday morning as usual. About 9:15, however, while sitting in his chair at home he suddenly gave a gasp and lurch forward and died.

Mr. Baker was senior member of the firm of Baker & McDonald, commission merchants at the stockyards. He had been in business in South Omaha for 25 years and had been a resident of Omaha for 29 years. For many years he was choir leader at Grace Methodist church.

He is survived by his widow, Beatie; three sons, Loren G., Ivan E. and Carl A. Baker, and one daughter, Flora J. Baker.

Court Sustains Motion to Dismiss Liquor Charges

Judge Woodrugh Holds Warrants to Search for Liquor Not Effective Where Alcoholic Medicines Are Found.

Federal Judge Woodrugh sustained a motion yesterday to dismiss charges of violating the prohibition amendment against Ed Kuerten, who was running a restaurant at 1512 Dodge street last summer for Carl Schneider, the proprietor of which was in Europe.

By so doing the judge set a precedent which, it is said, will have some effect in limiting the use of search warrants by prohibition agents. The motion for dismissal was based on the theory that the officers asked for and purchased wine of pepin in the restaurant. The judge held that although the medicine might contain a large per cent of alcohol, the officers did not properly use the warrant which entitled them to search for liquor.

Wisner Man Jailed. Federal court continued to grind out its quota of liquor cases yesterday afternoon, with the following results: Louise Vinciguerra, fined $200; John W. Severin, $45; Peggy Reed, $150; Ben C. Bennett, $100, and Sam Giuffaglia, alias Salvatore, $100.

The car belonging to Hector Jinolet was confiscated and Jinolet fined $5. Stiffer sentences were imposed by Judge Woodrugh on Paul Kracher and Emory Morrell of Wisner, Neb. Kracher was fined $500 and given three months in the Cuming county jail, and Morrell was given a $250 fine and 15 days in the same jail.

Mrs. Paul Cattano, 1611 South Eleventh street, who appeared in court with a tiny baby in her arms, was found guilty of violating the liquor law by a jury yesterday. Judge Woodrugh imposed a fine of $500 on her, giving her 30 days in which to pay it. She was alleged to have had beer in her home.

Seize Touring Car. Federal Prohibition Agents Batten and Vogel and State Sheriffs Schmitt and Brown arrested Sam Burt, 1709 South Tenth street, and Rosena Crist, 1309 Pierce street, Wednesday night, and seized their new touring car, which they were about to enter, in an alley near Seventh and Pacific streets.

The officers say 242 half-pints of white moonshine were in the car. Continuing their activity Wednesday night these same officers arrested Charles Lager, Edwards hotel, declaring they found two quarts of moonshine in his possession. Lager was under bond to appear in federal court on another liquor violation charge, the officers say.

Fremont Man Applauds District Court Testimony

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special)—Albert Cain was so amused at testimony in district court at the trial of Gilbert and Albert Jones, charged with assault and battery, that he clapped his hands in open approval. A moment later he was ejected from the courtroom by Sheriff Condit upon order of the court.

The Jones brothers, both of Fremont, are charged with having attacked their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Strosky. When Mrs. Strosky took the stand today, she named the exact dates and hours in her testimony regarding the assault. When questioned as to the source of her exact information, Mrs. Strosky testified that she expected a trial at the time and made a note of the time and place of every incident connected with the alleged assault.

At this juncture, Cain burst forth with applause which led to his ejection.

A complete toilet outfit, including a wash basin, has been invented, which can be mounted within an automobile door, which opens to form a table.

Governor Urges State Employees to Aid New Regime

McKelvie Hopes to Avoid Petty Politics Frequently Practiced by Previous Administrations.

Lincoln, Nov. 16.—(Special)—Governor McKelvie has requested his appointees to remain at their jobs until arrangements are made by Governor-elect Charles W. Bryan to replace them with democrats.

"I don't want any of them to leave at a time when they will be most needed to explain details of their work to their successors," the governor said.

"In event some would obtain other positions which demand they enter on their new duties immediately, there is no way to keep them.

Anxious to Aid. "What I am anxious to avoid, is the old form of politics in which those going out of office deserted their jobs and did everything possible to get those who took their jobs in a hole. I don't believe anyone in the state service would do this, and I am going to do everything in my power to guard against it."

Furthermore, Governor McKelvie will present to Governor-elect Bryan complete official records of everything done in his office during his tenure of office. In previous administrations it has been the custom of many governors to take official records and files with them and leave their successors to manage things as best they could.

Has Account System. Governor-elect Bryan also will have at his disposal a centralized bookkeeping system put into effect under the McKelvie administration by Phil Bros, secretary of finance and revenue.

Bros has forced heads of all departments to keep a uniform system of books and Bryan will be enabled to ascertain at any time what every cent expended was used for, something impossible under other regimes.

Bryan Rejects McKelvie Plan

Lincoln, Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram)—"Brother Charley," governor-elect, today, in an open letter to Governor McKelvie, declined to act on the latter's suggestion to regroup activities under the code in the governor and other constitutional officers.

"You seem to have misunderstood the platform upon which I was nominated and upon which I made the race for governor," Brother Charley wrote.

"I favored abolishing the code system and then a regrouping of the administrative departments in the hands of the constitutional officers of the state. Your suggestion provides for retaining the code system.

"While I appreciate the suggestion which you make relative to the code law, I know upon second thought that you will recall I also recently received some suggestions from the voters as to the code law, and that under the circumstances I feel that the suggestion of voters and taxpayers should also be given careful consideration before I would make any other recommendations."

Sioux City Thieves Steal Piano in Daylight Raid. Sioux City, Nov. 16.—An innovation in the art of burglary was introduced in Sioux City when robbers working in daylight stole a piano from the home of Ernest Wyatt.

The stolen piano was located in a second-hand store by detectives. The proprietor said that he had purchased it for $20. The piano was stolen while the Wyatt family was moving to a new home. The removal of furniture with the exception of the piano having been completed, Mr. Wyatt called a piano company and asked that they move the piano.

Two hours later the piano movers arrived only to find that the piano had disappeared.

A Queer World

Foreador Trousers Advertised in University of Washington Daily—Father Will Pay 50 Cents for Son's Return.

Dire Threat. Seattle, Wash., Nov. 16.—A Seattle store advertised foreador trousers in the University of Washington Daily. Next afternoon the editor co-operated in a pronouncement that the first student to wear them would achieve eternal fame and a broken neck. The various censors of campus customs stood by with their barred staves. Two eventful days have elapsed.

A Wild Spender. Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 16.—"Fifty cents reward and no questions asked" was offered to any Atlanta policeman who will return J. F. Watkins, Jr., 17, to his father in Langdale, Ala., according to a letter received today by James L. Bevers, chief of police of Atlanta.

The lad's father wrote Chief Bevers, "that he was worrying himself sick about his boy and that he would gladly pay 50 cents to any one for information about him. The boy left home November 10, the father wrote.

Must Be Blue Blood. Oakland, Cal., Nov. 16.—Blood transfusion from the veins of "Apache French," a pedigreed pup, to those of "Major," a Boston bull terrier, has saved the latter's life. "Major's" illness was caused by swallowing two ice cream spoons which a veterinarian removed but the shock and loss of blood nearly caused the death of the patient.

The owner of a large husky dog whose lineage was a trifle doubtful offered the blood of his pet, but Jack Russell, "Major's" master, refused. "It's going to be blue blood," he said, "anything else would stop my dog's heart."

Both patients are recovering.

Child Welfare Ordinance

Is Discussed in Fremont. Fremont, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram)—Boys and girls of Fremont under 17 years of age may be forced by a city ordinance now under consideration to be off the public streets and out of the dance halls by 10 o'clock, unless accompanied by parents or a guardian. The proposed measure comes as a result of the recent investigations in this city by the state health department.
