

State Clothiers Map Out Plans for Convention

Sessions Will Be Held February 13 to 15 in Logan Inn, Hotel Fontenelle. Directors Decide.

The next meeting of the Nebraska Retail Clothiers' association will be held February 13 to 15 in Logan Inn, Hotel Fontenelle. This was decided last Friday at a meeting of the board of directors of the association at the hotel.

Percy Coxswell of Alliance, president; William Wolf of Neligh, vice president; Louis Dvorak of Wahoo, secretary-treasurer; and Directors Westcott, Killian, Hamilton, Vandor, and Lepke were present. National Director Fred H. Barclay and H. A. D'Arcy, representing the Men's Apparel club, promise that the entertainment features at the coming meeting will be of extraordinary interest and novelty.

Speakers of national reputation are to be brought here to give the very latest ideas in merchandising of this character. The Men's Apparel club will have an important part in the convention, the details of which are now being worked out. Problems which have had a big place in the development of the retail business during the readjustment period will be taken up and explained by experts.

Officers predict that it will be the biggest convention of the association ever held with more features, more leading speakers and better entertainment than ever before.

Woman Signs Bond of Man She Accused

Charges Him With Taking Her Auto, Then Asks Police to Release Him.

L. B. Ritchie, 2025 North Twenty-first street, who was arrested by police in connection with the disappearance of an automobile, was released Friday night on a bond signed by the complainant, Mrs. Paul Haze, 2619 North Twenty-fourth street.

Ritchie was arrested by Detectives Heller and Vanous when Mrs. Haze reported her automobile had disappeared. She accused Ritchie.

Later Mrs. Haze appeared at the police station and asked Acting Police Captain Coffey to release Ritchie.

Ritchie's bond, set at $200 by Chief of Detectives Van Deusen, was signed by Mrs. Haze.

According to police, Haze and Ritchie had used the machine together and the car was left in the care of Ritchie without the knowledge of Mrs. Haze.

There will be no prosecution, police were advised.

Additional Evidence Found in Poison Plot

Chicago, Nov. 18.—William McLaughlin, assistant state's attorney, announced that he would go before the grand jury Monday and seek indictments for murder against Mrs. Thelma Klimek and Mrs. Nellie Sturmer Koulik, being held on murder charges pending examination of the bodies of a number of husbands they are alleged to have poisoned. He said he would seek Mrs. Klimek's indictment as a result of the death of her third husband and Mrs. Koulik's as the result of the death of Wolk Sturmer, a former husband.

Two additional witnesses, former neighbors of the women, were questioned by the prosecutor. They are reported to have informed him that Mrs. Klimek had told them that one of her former husbands was going to die and also told of seeing the accused woman working on mourning garments before her husband died.

Capper Declares His Opposition to Ship Subsidy Bill

Farm Bloc Head Announces Advocacy of "Constructive Legislation" by Republicans.

Washington, Nov. 18.—A program of "constructive legislation" coupled with a declaration against the administration ship subsidy bill was announced today by Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, chairman of the senate farm bloc.

If the republican party is to continue in power, said Senator Capper, in commenting on the recent election, it must finish a constructive program, including the following acts:

"Put through the complete rural credit program, to provide farmers and stockmen with an adequate financial system.

"It must reduce freight charges. "It must repeal section 15-A (giving the interstate commerce commission control over state rates) and other objectionable provisions of the Esch transportation act.

For Better Marketing.

"It must carry out the policy for a better system of marketing. "It must put the development of the Murchison Shoshone project in the hands of Henry Ford.

"It must make undistributed surpluses and stock dividends pay their share toward the maintenance of government.

"It must pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting tax exempt securities.

Other items on Senator Capper's program were passage of the "truth in labeling" and "filled milk" bills, further reductions in government expenses and taxes and steps to promote European recovery and re-establish foreign markets.

Wets Lining Up Forces for Campaigns in 1924

Washington, Nov. 18.—Plans for "intensity" organization work looking to the presidential and congressional campaigns of 1924 are being drawn up at a conference of state leaders of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, to be held next Monday at St. Louis. It was announced here by W. H. Clayton, executive head of the organization. He predicted that both of the great parties would adopt a wet plank two years hence.

"We have no desire," he said, "to get into anything like a third party movement. But it must be obvious now to all that if the two existing parties will not settle the wet and dry question, there will have to be an independent movement that will, in our opinion, therefore, be prepared for just such an independent movement if necessary."

Omaha Firm Buys Lincoln Gas and Electric Company

Continental Gas and Electric Corporation to Assume Control January 1, President Announces.

The Continental Gas and Electric corporation of Omaha has purchased the Lincoln Gas and Electric Light company of Lincoln, according to a statement Saturday by Rufus E. Lee, president. Under the terms of the contract made with the City Service company of New York, the new owners will assume control January 1.

The Lincoln company supplies gas for Lincoln, Havelock and University Place, and electric light and power for these three towns, as well as for Waverly and Greenwood. The acquisition of these properties will mean that Lincoln will become a big power house generating center, Mr. Lee said, a high voltage transmission line now being surveyed between Lincoln and York by way of Seward, and also to Beatrice and Crete. It is expected, he said, that some of the gas power generated at Barnston will be delivered to Lincoln over this transmission line.
