Council Bluffs Society

Miss Anna Z. Ross and Mrs. Mitti

Prenuptials.

Pile are giving a tea this afternoon at the home of the former, complientary of Miss Leota Hatswell, who, m Wednerday evening, November 29, will become the bride of Mr. E. S. frayer, at a ceremony to be performed in the First Congregational church. About 35 of Miss Hatswell's friends and associates in her high school work have been invited by hostesses, and Miss Elizabeth Konigmacher will preside at the tea table. Thursday this bride-to-be was honored at a luncheon given in Omaha by Mrs. M. R. McWilliams, and last evening Mrs. C. E. White and Miss Lucy Robinson entertained for her at the home of the former, when the 30 guests assited in piecing a very attractive orchid and white quilt, which was presented to Miss Hatswell.

Buffet Luncheon.

Buffet luncheons are proving to be quite the most popular form of entertuining in Council Bluffs this autunn, and one particularly lovely affair of the kind was on Friday, when Mrs. Drayton W. Bushnell asked a coterie of friends to her home on Bluff

Mrs. Bushnell spent the past year traveling in Europe, and this first function which she has given since her return was charming in every

The dining table was centered with an arrangement of yellow and white thrysanthemums, and assisting the hostess were Mrs. Eldon Lougee, Mrs. Edward Schoentgen, Mrs. C. S. Lefferts and Mrs. Angeline Brinsmaid.

Macraes to Have Visitors. Early next week Mr. and Mrs. Don ald Macrae, jr., will arrive from Des Moines, Ia., with their young sor Donald, to spend Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. Macrae's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Macrae, on Fifth

After a few days' visit here they will motor home in the new automo bile which was offered as a prize by the American Legion auxiliary at their party recently held in the city this city held the lucky number of

At Christmas time the Macraes plan to again come to Council Bluffs, birthday cake on either end. " and Mrs. Macrae.

Mrs. Gerner Entertains.

Mrs. George Gerner was a hostess of last week who, on Wednesday, gave a luncheon followed by bridge, at her nome on Glen avenue

The guests were scated at one large and three small tables, which were atmetively adorned with roses and

Mrs. Louis Zurmuehlen had high tables were present on Thursday, ler, Phomas Green, George Wick-when Mrs. Gerner again entertained, ham, Aldis Johnson, Wayne Bogart,

A beautiful tea was given on Sat- luncheon table.

orday at the home of Miss Katherine Searles for the members of the Theta Sigma Phi sorority.

in the decorations which were partic- Filbert at their home on Bluff ularly attractive.

To Travel in Europe.

A delightful European trip has been arranged for this coming March by Miss Anna Z. Ross of this city, made by the Elks of this city for the who on 11 previous occasions has so charity ball which they will give in successfully conducted parties for the city auditorium next Tuesday evesummer traveling.

planned a winter tour, but her itiner- used for local charity during the ary is a particularly attractive one, coming winter. including the Azores, Algiers, Sicily, Italy, France, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland, England and Scotland, and she is already receiving applications for her party, which will be limited

On her return from this tour early in June she will take another party of 24 for a three-months trip, when many of the same places will be vis-

Among the Council Bluffs and Omaha people who were with Miss Ross from June until September this year when she toured Europe were Mrs. F. J. Day, Miss Elizabeth Day Miss Celia Mulqueen, Miss Agnes Wickham, Mrs. Myrtle Mason, Mrs. R. W. Breckenridge, Miss Lucy Harte, Miss Madeline Marr, Miss Eleanor Burkley, H. V. Burkley, sr., and his sons, Robert and Francis.

Affairs Before the Dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Empkie serve a buffet dinner for 24 guests on Tuesday evening last, and later attended the third in the series of parties arranged for the winter by the Tuesday Daneing club,

Another jolly party for that evening was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hafer, that being the birth-day anniversary of Mr. Hafer and also of Mrs. Roy Maxwell, who was one of the guests. The affair was given at Metager's restaurant and the long table was

Visitor From the South

from Knoxville, Tenn., to be a winter and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, guest at the H. A. Quinn home on

Miss Manning is a niece of Mr. and en route home visited relatives

Assembled for this occasion were afternoon and evening of Wednesday, Dr. and Mrs. A. V. Hennesy, Dr. and December 6, at which time a chicken ir., of Rockland, Me., will also be Mrs. Stuart McCall, Messrs, and Mes-dinner will also be served. guests of Mrs. Wolfe's parents, Dr. dames Fred Baumeister, Oscar Baumeister, C. I. Palm, Clarence Empkie. Walter Stephan and Roy Maxfield, all ed her luncheon club on Monday last,

For Out-of-Town Guests. Honoring Mrs. Robert Daniels who ler, Philip Cogley, A. V. Hennesy, formerly lived here and now resides Gaylord Swift of Harlan, Ja.; Arthur Dr and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett plan to in Greeley, Colo., and her sister, Mrs. Truax of Tulsa, Okl., both of whom are visiting in Omaha, a luncheon of 12 covers was given on Friday by Mrs. R. E Daniels. score for the afternoon and Mrs. Fred plimented Mrs. Daniels with a lunch-Saturday Mrs. Glenn Reed com-Guests sufficient to complete four dames Reed Flickinger, Den Waland on this occasion Mrs. Ned Shepard was awarded the high score prize.

Mrs. H. A. Quinn won in the "cutior-all."

ham. Aidis Johnson, Wayne Board.
Fred Baumeister, E. E. Spetman, A.
V. Hennesy, Robert Daniels, Truax
and Leo Wilson of Omaha.
Mrs. Reed used shades of yellow in the floral decorations for her

Dinner and Bridge. A dinner of eight covers, followed by bridge was given on Thursday A color scheme of yellow was used evening by Mr. and Mrs. Norman street. Pink roses formed the table

> Charity Ball. Elaborate preparations have been ning. This is the first time Miss Ross has Proceeds from the affair will be Useful as well as ornamental gifts

PHONE

Don't Let a Low

Price Fool You!

ton.

Christmas Bazar

who were in New Orleans for the American Legion convention when Miss Quinn was the page for Iowa, suditorium. Mrs. Donald Macrae of Quinn, and since the middle of Octo- in the south. the car, which she presented to her most artistic with a mound of yellow are now being made by the members son.

most artistic with a mound of yellow are now being made by the members and lavender chrysanthemums for a of St. Francis Alumnae association for centerpiece, and a candle-lighted their holiday bazar which will be held in St. Francis auditorium on the > Honor Guests at Luncheon Club. When Mrs. Robert Organ entertain of whom later attended the dance. she had as additional guests Mesdames William Maurer, W. A. Cut-

> > KODAKS for

CHRISTMAS

Many other nifty gift articles on display in our store-appropriate and inexpensive.

We have a beautiful line of Frames. An enlargement from one of your favorite negatives, tinted in natural colors, if you wish, and nicely

We have a beautiful, exclusive line of Christmas

"Come in and brouse around."

The Robert Dempster Co.

(EASTMAN KODAK CO.)

1813 Farnam St. Branch, 308 So. 15th St.

It is the cost per month

Some Western Coals are offered

You will save on your total coal

ZEIGLER by government tests

Have you any fuel or furnace

AT. 3424 -

that counts, not the price per

at prices less than that of GENUINE

ZEIGLER, but heat values considcontains higher fuel value. ZEIGtroubles?. If so telephone for our Combustion Engineer, whose serv-ered, they actually cost more.

bill if you buy ZEIGLER.

LER lasts 25% longer.

ices we offer free of charge.

framed makes a gift supreme.

Brown of Stuart, Ia.; Miss Gertrude leave for the west and will spend after a brief visit here with the several weeks touring California. Neff of Salem, Mass., and Miss Ruth

Mrs. W. A. Cutler had the highest Peter Madsen and Henry Peterson score among the guests, and Mrs. are in St. Louis, Mo. Robert Sprague received the club A. K. Feff left Thursday for a busness trip in Nebraska.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Nicholas O'Brien and Mrs. Ellen Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Beno went to Stephan to an afternoon bridge, pre-Chicago on Tuesday evening last. of this week at the home of the noved here with her husband from in Mason City, Ia.

Mrs. Paul Busse of Chicago, sister fill the vacancies caused in the club returned to their home in Chicago, sleep and work.

the city, and they were both present Mrs. Butler received the prize for Invitations Issued. Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rosenfeld for an evening bridge, which will be given on Wednesday of this week at eded by luncheen, on Thursday

Tuesday Bridge Club.

Tuesday, when Mrs. Reed Flickinger and Mrs. Norman Filbert entertained the members of their club at luncheon and bridge at the Flickinger

Wayne Bogart have been selected to

by the departure of Mrs. L. L. Henpinger and Mrs. John McAtee from

Mrs. Marshall Bryant, who recently heir home on South Eighth street. Benefit Bridge-Luncheons. On Monday, and again on Tuesday, Mrs. H. A. Quinn will open her home on Oakland avenue for benefit bridgeluncheons, the proceeds of which will be used by the ladies of St. Paul Episcopal church to furnish a com in the new wing at Edmundson hospital. A great many reservations have been made for these affairs and some very attractive prizes will be awarded. A handsome vase, donated by Emil H. Leffert, will be used as a "door prize," and all the guests on enterng, will be given a number which will entitle them to a chance on this crticle, which will be disposed of at the close of the game. To Sail Tuesday.

Donald Beno left Council Bluffs Saturday night for New York, from which point, on Tuesday next, he round the world.

He will be accompanied by Andrew F. Fulton of New York, with whom he made a trip to Europe last year. In Cairo, Egypt, or possibly in Naples. Italy, they will be joined by Mr. Beno's sister, Mrs. S. Evans Hodge, and Mr. Hodge, with whom they will go to London, where the Hodges re-

Mr. Beno plans to be away until ome time during the summer. Personals.

Directly after the first of the year,

Mrs. S. D. Maiden is visiting rela-At bridge during the afternoon tives in Kaolna, la.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mitchell are

Miss Joan Munchrath departed husband of Moline III., arrived in the Thursday evening for El Paso, Tex. Mrs. E. A. Wickham has returned from a short visit with her parents > of Dr. A. V. Hennesy and Dr. M. C. Hennesy, is visiting in the city.

Medina, O., was henor guest on last the football game.

Dr. and Mrs. Mac Hanchett have Hanckett. C. T. Close, who was here for the Horticultural show, left Friday night for his home in Washington, D. C.

tor's parents. Dr. and Mrs. A. F.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ainsworth and small daughter, Ruth, plan to leave early in January for California, where they will remain until spring.

Maj. George Dailey, his brother, Chester Dalley of St. Louis, and their sister, Mrs. Ernest Johnson, with her city Friday morning for the funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Dailey.

Miss Vera Cady arrived in the city Thursday morning from Chicago, and Eldon Anderson plans to motor to her sister, Mrs, Hervey Jackes, came Neb., on Saturday next for the day following from her home in Regina, Canada, owing to the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. E. M. Cady, whose condition is now greatly improved.

Ventilate the rooms in which you

Camp Fire Girls

Any Campfies givis wishing to qualify for special service honors will find plenty to do if they call at 602 McCagos building. Fifteenth and Indge streets the Nobraska Association for Homeless Children. There is also some special work to be done for the Nebraska Tuberoulous association, this will take the place of the regular seal sais. All groups who have not held service meetings this month call at Omahequa and get this match call at Omahequa and then spent the remainder of the time identifying apples.

Tasyanhis group met Thursday at Vinton school and won patriotic honors by identifying the fags of 18 mations and teiling sheet their governments.

Wanhanka Campfire group of Bennington, Neb., held at election of officers Menday and sent the report to Omahequa. Neits Woods, president Edith Gran, vice president, Emma Dune, treasurer; Lilling Swanson, secretary Mahel Timperly, resporter, and Thendora Faulson, librarian. This group is relearning for the play, "Minnetosca's Freem, which will be held at Offir hall, Benpington, Friday evening, December 6.

The Seloba group hald their regular meeting at the North Christian church Thursday after school. Miss Helen Williams, guardian, assigned the parts for

BUY AN INCOME FROM THE LIGHTING COMPANY

Hundreds of Nebraska Power Co. customers and other local folks are providing incomes for themselves by investing in shares of the Company's Preferred Stock. These shares pay dividends every March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1, which amount to nearly 71/4% a year on every dollar invested.

If you had only 10 shares, the dividends would be $70.00 a year. What better use for your savings than to make them earn some extra dollars for you? Extra money you won't have to work for. It's just like working at one job and drawing a salary from two.

Prominent Local Men Are at the Head of the Company

The following local citizens are directors of Nebraska Power Company. You know these men-all Omaha knows of them. Every one is a successful business man and personally contributes to the success of Nebraska Power Company.

Jos. Barker Vice-President Foster-Barker Company Omaha

Ward M. Burgess President Burgess-Nash Company

Thomas B. Coleman Asst. Mgr. Omaha Branch Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Glen C. Wharton

President

Kirkendall Shoe Co.

A. B. Currie A. B. Currie Company Omaha Gould Dietz

C. N. Dietz Lumber Co. Stock Yards National Bank Walter W. Head

President Omaha National Bank Omaha

Omaha J. E. Davidson Vice-Pres. & Gen. Manager Nebraska Power Company

G. W. Holdrege

Former General Manager

C. B. & Q. R. R. Omaha

Ford E. Hovey

S. E. Schweitzer

Secretary and Treasurer

Nebraska Power Co.

В

Nebraska Power Co. Preferred Stock is SAFE

$100 Shares now selling for $97 and per Share

Every share pays over 7% on your money

Nebraska Power C.

Ask Any

INFORMATION COUPON (Without Obligation)

Please send me illustrated booklet, containing more information about your Preferred Stock and details of Easy Payment Plan.

Employee

NEBRASKA POWER COMPANY Electric Building, Omaha