Let's Go Shopping with Polly

The further the season advances the more interesting the fashions become. All the delightful little inconsistencies we have banished for so long are with us again, and the "womanly woman" rather than the "boyish girl" is the vogue once more. The face of the fashionable world has undergone a change and in place of the short-skirted, bobbed-haired girls of a few months ago, are dignified, lovely women of distinction and grace. Naturally the styles have changed and the silhouette with them. New clothes are needed and not only new clothes but new things for the home. I keep in close touch with the changing world of fashion and will gladly help you with your shopping.

A Wallace Nutting Room. THINK what a treat it is in store for you when you see this beautiful room. One Wallace Nutting picture is a thing of great beauty. Imagine how lovely a whole room of them is. The room is in the picture section of the Brandeis store and contains exquisite handpainted pictures noted throughout the world. There is not a home but what should have at least one Wallace Nutting print. Luncheon was served to 20 guests from five small tables adorned with button chrysanthemums, and at bridge during the afternoon Mrs. William Martin and Mrs. J. J. Keller received the prizes for high scores. Mrs. T. J. Leary was awarded the consolation.

"Mums" the Word. AND especially during the holiday before us. The home must have flowers and where could you find nicer ones than at John Bath's, 1804 Farnam street. There are great big "mums" in yellow, pink, bronze, white and lavender, as well as the tiny pom poms which make such pretty centerpieces or baskets. He will be glad to fill your order for Thanksgiving if sent immediately. Don't wait, but decide right now what kind of "mums" you want and you won't be disappointed.

Dresses for Every Occasion. PERHAPS you have a party for Thanksgiving, a dinner or a dance and need a new dress. If you will visit the Vogue, 1523 Douglas, section of smart apparel. I was delighted to find so many distinctive styles and at such low prices. Coats and wraps, plain and fur trimmed are so very good looking that you won't think of wearing your old one another winter.

Dainty Gifts for Dainty Women. EVERY woman likes a dainty bit of lace or ribbon, especially if it is fashioned into something useful. At Ye Giftee Shoppe Unique at the entrance of the Brandeis Theater building you will discover the most unique gifts—not the kind that are hurriedly made by machine, but the pretty little things that only nimble fingers can fashion. Not only are the regular prices very reasonable but every noon a Unique noon special is placed in the window and by visiting them each day you can select many a gift at a real bargain price.

Reservations Are Now in Order for that delicious dinner they are going to serve at the Flatiron on Thanksgiving day.

Notasome Hosiery "They're Part of the Well Dressed Woman. I could hardly believe my eyes when I saw a stocking of such wonderful, fully fine texture and then I thought I had misunderstood them when they assured me that the hose were absolutely guaranteed. But the hose were before me and the guarantee also. I investigated and discovered that they were showing me Notasome Hosiery which is insured against imperfections of any kind. In fact if you purchase a pair and they are unsatisfactory they will give you another pair to replace them without charge. These wonderful hose can be found at Orkin Bros. in the Conant Hotel building and a special Christmas offer is in effect. Regular $1.50 hose are pure thread silk selling at three for $4. Art silk hose are $1.00 a pair and hose with embroidered toes are $1.45. Every pair is in a dainty Christmas box suitable for a gift. They can be had in the most fashionable colors in all sizes. I will order them for you or you can order direct.

THE GIFT LIST

Start that Christmas gift list today. Don't put it off like you have in years past. Think how much better it will be to have all the pretty little packages done up and ready long before the big day arrives. What a relief to be prepared and not have the worry and bustle which always comes with belated shopping. The merchants prepare their great stocks in advance and offer much better selections to those who come first.

The Needle Woman is Busy for Christmas. THE needles are flying as fast as the days, for the dainty bits of needle work must be finished for Christmas day. At the Burgess-Nash art embroidery section are many many new ideas in art pieces. Lunch-noon sets, bed spreads, scarfs and all the other familiar pieces are here in new designs and with them are being shown completed models that are done by experts. If you are going to make something for Christmas they will help you choose your materials and I teach you how to do the various things. Lamp shades, baskets, vanity novelties are already being displayed for the holidays and of course you can get a better assortment now than you can later so why not do your shopping early?

You Won't Miss Your Train With One of These Traveling Clocks.

Dainty as well as practical traveling clocks in snug little leather cases that protect them from the jars of travel. They are in delicate shades of pink and blue as well as the more serviceable ones suitable for either men or women. Some of them are of enamel that can be placed on milady's dressing table when at home and fitted into a leather case when traveling. They have the most complete assortment of them at Brown's Jewel Shop 220 South 16th street and their prices are exceptionally low. Some of these timepieces are to be wound every day and others require winding every eight days.

New Clothes at a Small Cost.

PERHAPS you have been needing a new dress or coat, but have not felt that you could spend the money to get just the kind you wanted. Did you ever think of making your own clothes? Yes, say you can't sew! Well, if that's the only reason, you need have no further worries. At Kester's Ladies Tailoring College in the City National Bank building, you can learn to sew under the personal supervision of expert instructors. You will soon be able to make your own garments at a fraction of what the same garment would cost ready-made. Call them for further information.

The Richness of Oriental Rugs. I HAVE always wanted oriental rugs for there is nothing that gives more delightful appearance to the home than an oriental rug on the floor, the wall or thrown over the table or couch. I was delightfully surprised the other day to find that at Orchard-Wilhelm Co. there were the most beautiful rugs, everyone an exquisite specimen as to color and design and perfect as to quality, at prices so low that they will fit any size pocketbook. You are going to have a big surprise, the same as I did when you see them and you are going to feel that at last you can own oriental rugs and at the same time not spend more than you care to. There are small ones and room-size ones, everyone reasonably priced. What splendid Christmas gifts they will make.

Flapper Dolls Are With Us.

FLAPPER dolls that perform a real mission in life, for concealed under their dainty skirts of cretonne or lace and silk or under their suit of tweed is found the loveliest roomy bag. Some of the bags are lined with rubber for your bathing suit. Others are smaller, just the size for your vanity case or perhaps a piece of needlework which is being prepared for Christmas. To be in style one must carry one of these flapper dolls, for they are the latest fad and are being seen frequently on the street. I found an adorable collection of them at Mathews' book store the other day and found them to be most reasonable. They would be a charming gift for a young girl.

"No woman is to blame if she is not beautiful at sixteen, but she has only herself to blame if she is not beautiful at forty."

WHEN you see women with all low skins, pasty of color, women with blackheads, women who are wrinkled and lined and whose contour has lost the lovely firmness of youth, you can say to yourself with perfect truth that it is because this or that woman did not understand the position of the trained beauty specialist, or the part the specialist could play in her life. At the Black and White room at Burgess-Nash Co., at the Salon de Beauté, in the Fontenelle hotel and at the Blackstone hotel trained beauty experts under the direction of Mr. Robert and Mr. Frank will treat your skin or hair with not only the finest and purest preparations, but those that are intended for just your type of skin or hair. In these shops you can also secure the very latest pieces of hair, goods and have your hair dressed in the most becoming style. A lovely assortment of combs is being displayed at these shops.

Romance and Perfume.

HISTORY tells us of the luxuriant aromatic baths of the Egyptians, of the precious ointments brought by the Wise Men of the East, of the Romans love of perfumes and how the Crusaders reintroduced into medieval Europe the art of making perfume. To perfect the gentle art it took centuries more of civilization. Exclusive, dainty and of rare loveliness are the perfumes made by the famous Houbigant. If you turn to the Rotogravure section of today's Bee you will learn about these wonderful perfumes and at Kilpatrick's you will find these fragrant odors, put up in various ways. Perfumes, toilet water, sachets, face powders and other requisites for milady's toilette.
