

MUSIC

By HENRIETTA M. KEES.

The next two weeks will be busy ones, following upon the heels of music week, and giving the music lover a chance to hear much that is interesting before the rush of Christmas shopping takes the mind away from the esthetic enjoyment of a fine art. There were more concerts for music week than one could attend, and the committee in charge should feel gratified at the widespread cooperation of the local musicians, and townspeople, who save their talent and time for its service. While there will be no such general activity this week and next, there will be three concerts with visiting artists, and other large musical affairs in which many of the leading local musicians will take part.

The second concert in the course being brought here by the business and professional women's division of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce will be at the Omaha Auditorium on December 4, when the Criterium Male quartet will appear. Following is their program:

- Quartet—(a) "The Bandmen".....Protheroe
- (b) "The Drum".....Archer Gibson
- (c) "The Low-Barked Chariot".....Old Irish
- (d) "The Yuletide".....A. Walter Kramer
- (e) "The Yuletide".....Eng. Ver Bromberg
- (f) "The Yuletide".....George Boardman
- Quartet—(a) "The Bandmen".....A. P. Harrison
- (b) "The Drum".....Archer Gibson
- (c) "The Low-Barked Chariot".....Old Irish
- (d) "The Yuletide".....A. Walter Kramer
- (e) "The Yuletide".....Eng. Ver Bromberg
- (f) "The Yuletide".....George Boardman

The Association Male Chorus of Omaha, George W. Campbell, conductor, announces two concerts with guest artists. Decie Howell, pianist, will appear at the winter concert, and Frances Nash, pianist, at the spring concert. The winter concert will take place in the Brandeis theater December 7. The Association Male Chorus is an Omaha organization whose aim is to promote good music and develop Omaha musical talent. The chorus is sponsored by the Young Men's Christian association and is endeavoring to incorporate the ideals and usefulness of that organization into its own service to the community.

Benno Moiseiwitsch, pianist, who will appear at the Brandeis theater Friday evening, December 8, at 8:15 o'clock, under the auspices of the Tuesday Musical club, gave a recital in Carnegie hall, New York, early in November, and the next day the musical critic of the Times recalled the artist as having "established himself among New York music lovers as a pianist of admirable powers, musically as well as technically, of high rank and as a musician of individuality and frequently of remarkable personal charm." According to the Post, the pianist was altogether "equal" to the demands of his program. Mr. Henderson, in the Herald, said in part: "Mr. Moiseiwitsch did some beautiful playing. He has the technique and the touch with which audiences can be charmed and his playing has ravishing tonal qualities." The public sale evening will open Tuesday morning, December 5, at the box office of the theater. The program:

- Waldstein Sonata.....Beethoven
- Impromptu.....Chopin
- Vals a Minor.....Chopin
- Harcaudade.....Chopin
- Mazurka a Minor.....Chopin

A special musical service will be given at the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, December 10, at 4 o'clock, by the combined choir of Trinity cathedral, Ben Stanley, organist and director, and the First Presbyterian church, Louise Jansen Wylie, soprano and director, Louise Shaddock Zabriskie, organist. This is the second service of this character given under the auspices of the American Guild of Organists.

Under auspices of the City Concert club, an artists' opera program will be given by Louise Jansen Wylie, Mrs. Verne Miller, Lawrence Dodds, A. L. Hobbs, with Louise Shaddock Zabriskie, pianist, at the Omaha Auditorium Monday night, December 11. This will be one of the most exquisite programs ever presented by the City Concert club. Admission will be free.

A symphony orchestra of 50 made its appearance music week. This was the body of players, under the capable direction of Stanley Letovsky, which gave a concert at the World theater last Thursday, celebrating both Thanksgiving and Music week. Under the auspices of the City Concert club, this is one of the largest and most recent symptoms of a symphony orchestra we have had, and if repeated with frequency and continual success, it might be the logical nucleus for many a cherished dream in that direction. A large audience was present and showed a keen interest in the music.

A radio program will be given by three Nebraska musicians in Chicago Friday evening, December 8. Henry Purmort Eames is the pianist, and also has charge of the program. He has asked Mrs. Oranna Abbott Jensen, soprano, formerly of Omaha, and Carleton Cummings, a dramatic tenor born and raised at Auburn, Nebraska, to sing. The concert is from 8 to 9 o'clock—360-meter word length. "If you are listening in," says Mr. Eames, "you are welcome."

Dumb Show Makes Laughs When Noise Would Fall Flat

"The public has been educated to laughter from childhood by the circus clown," says Eddie Shubert, eccentric comedian with Jacobs & Jermom's "Flashlights of 1922," playing at the Gayety theater this week, and I am taking advantage of that fact in making fun on the stage. A great deal of my work could be done without the accompanying word or "lines" that the burlesque book calls for. I used to be one of the shouting, knock-about type of comedians, but I've lately changed my method and now employ just plain foolery to get the laughs.

In past years Shubert did a "Sam Bernard" type with all the noise and accompanying shouts, twisted English and funny falls—but his method now approaches more nearly the Ed Wynn type of stage nonsense. He is finishing a long term contract with Jacobs & Jermom and will soon pass from burlesque to other realms of stage land. Meanwhile listen to Shubert: "Nobody gets as many laughs as a circus clown—and he is generally 'dumb' but active. No need to shout—just fool around and you will get the laughs."

Grace Dennison-Scheffer presents the following pupils in a piano recital, assisted by Florence Long Arnold, soprano, Thursday, December 7, 1922, 8 p. m., at the Schmoller & Mueller auditorium: Dorothy Tipton, Pauline Pool, Elizabeth Betts, Audrey Suger-mann, Regina Heller, Marie Stulgies, Mrs. James A. Cole, Mrs. T. F. Quinlan and Agnes Gitter.

of Effa Ellis teaching system in a piano recital at her studio, 208 Arlington block, 3 o'clock next Saturday afternoon. Those who will appear on the program are Jeanette Hoenschell, Genevieve Hoenschell, John Hauser, Lena Dircan, Marie Evans, Clifton Smith, Dorothy Smith, Mary Ed wards, Gilbert Edwards, Ellen Carleton, Fay Walters, Dorothy Walters, Evelyn Wetherill, Evelyn Simpson, Don Hartwood, Elaine Trabonias, Nellie Berry, Nellie Jansson, Dorothy Cooley, Francis Davis.

Wallie Reid No Longer Cares for Goose Grease

Wallace Reid, one of the leading players in "Clarence," at the Strand this week, won't make any more experiments. Those acquainted with the Hollywood studio of Famous Players-Lasky are aware that a great number of cats—tom cat, tabbies, pussy cats, kittens and countless other types—are constantly in evidence. They are also aware that Wallie has a great inherent curiosity. He loves to experiment.

Therefore, when an agent approached Wallie recently and hinted that he had a new and excellent kind of makeup that was easy to put on and take off Wallie fell immediately. He applied the stuff and shortly a third took up the chase. When Wallie reached the set, he turned and saw no fewer than nine cats on his trail. When he walked they walked. When he sat down they gathered nearby and lifted their voices in pleading chorus.

After thinking for some reason for the cat convention, Wallie lifted the new makeup box, fretfully perusing the contents of the box, he read the line: "Goose grease, from which this makeup is based, is easy to put on and remove and does not injure the skin."

However, the directions failed to state that goose grease has an odor all its own and that cats love goose grease—even Krazy Kats.

Wallie had to scrub for half an hour to take away the odor. And he won't experiment again.
