"It's Great Fun to Go Shopping at Brandeis"

said a bright little miss of twelve as she moved among the crowds on our main floor Tuesday. That's the common opinion among grown folks, too. There's so much to see, so much to hear, so much to learn, so much to buy, and all good quality at wonderfully low prices. Try it Thursday, when you will find in every department treasures of which this ad provides merely a few hints. You'll find that this is, indeed,

Thursday—A Big Christmas Opportunity

Sale of Men's Fine

Silk Shirts

Silk Jersey and Silk Broadcloth 5.00 Crepe de Chine and Jap Silks

It took some careful buying to get together a sufficient number of these fine silk shirts to make possible a sale at this price. It means that the man who loves to wear silk shirts can gratify his preference without considering himself too self-indulgent. And it means you can give a present worthy of a man's unqualified approval without spending extravagantly.

They are shirts of quality and styles that appeal to the taste of good dressers. The workmanship stamps them as high class goods and as for materials, we can only ask you to examine them and compare them with others you could get at this price. There are all sizes, 14 to 17.
