Improvement Is Shown in Review of Agriculture

Federal Department Finds Prices Increasing and Farmers Generally Are Optimistic.

By GEORGE F. AUTHIER.

Washington, Dec. 8 .- (Special.)-A ight improvement in the general agicultural situation is indicated in the nonthly agricultural review issued by culture. Prices of cotton, grain and vestock products as well as prices of he things farmers have to buy, have lowly risen. The general price levels lave been maving slowly upward, with ome farm products making a moder-

The October index of prices received it the farm for 10 farm products is placed at 110 as a compared with 100 1913. The index of wholesale prices of commodities that the farmer buys, ther than food products, is placed at 69. Thus, farm products will pur mase 65 per cent as much of other ommodities as in 1913. This is ar approvement of 1 point since August nd September, but is 4 points lower han July. The review summarizes onditions in various sections of the

The cotton belt shows the best go. eral recovery of any region as a whole The crop is very poor in many areas, ut men who have any cotton to sell feel good at the prices. General busihas been much stimulated. In the corn belt, growers are some-hat encouraged at the rise in grain rices. A heavy fall run of hogs to market, as well as heavy movement cattle and sheep to farms is reportd. Winter grain shows good stands. Bad weather and muddy roads are hampering fall work.

Cars are Needed. In the wheat belt, shippers have een handicapped by an almost unpreedented shortage of freight cars. Reorts last week indicated that 400 eleators in Kansas were closed for lack rally are reported fairly good.

In the range country, rain and snow have improved range conditions, but severe weather has somewhat pinched stock. Sheepmen are feeling fairly good at sheep, lamb, and wool prices. The outlook for next year is generally naidered favorable Shippers on the Pacific coast have been hampered by car shortage. Apple growers have been hard hit by ow prices in east ern markets. In general, however, fouit and livestock interests show fairly good returns for the year and considerable optimism. Figures compiled by the department during November indicate that an abnormal movement of population from farms to towns is taking place.

Detroit Sleuths Charge Woman Offered Gunman $20,000 for "Job."

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 8 .- Mrs. May a gunman to kill her wealthy husband, Ney J. Ford, offered the gunman $20. 000 for the "job," and gave him a photograph of her husband to make sure the right man was slain, according to the sworn statements of four detectives whose investigation resultdetectives whose investigation resulted in Mrs. Ford's detention today on a charge of attempting to commit murcharge of attempting to commit mur-

Denying the charge, Mrs. Ford declared she was the victim of "a frame up" that grew out of her domestic difficulties. These difficulties include a suit for divorce filed last August in which she charges cruelty and a suit asking $25,000 damages of her estranged husband for alleged assault.

Mrs. Ford was arrested last night, when, it is alleged, she was about to meet Edward Kunath, a detective lieutenant for a second conference on her reported these for the slering of her reported plans for the slaying of her husband. Kunath, it was said, was presented as "a Kansas City gun-man." Wednesday night when the alman." Wednesday night when the alleged plot was first revealed by Mrs.

The first meeting according to the detectives, took place in an apartment, especially rented for that purnose. Three detectives claimed to have overheard the conversation.

Several plans for the killing were presented by Mrs. Ford, the officers
