Reduction on Farm Products Demanded of I. C. C. in Anticipation of Federal Railroad Legislation.

Farm Bloc for 1918 Rates

Washington, Dec. 9 .- (Special Tele gram.)-Anticipating possible congressional railroad legislation and taking President Harding at his word, 16 the Interstate Commerce commission today demanding reduction in rates on farm products. Headed by the Kansas utilities commission, these states are demanding a reduction on rates on grain, grain products and estimated this reduction will cut off about $38,000,000 of annual reve nue from the railroads, which now claim they are earning only about half of the 6 per cent they are entitled to earn in their tentative valu-

Differ on Method.

While President Harding recommended, in the main, the amendments which Senator Cummins has in mind to propose, the president and the chairman of the I. C. C. differ on the method of putting teeth into the labor

President Harding recommends placing upon the Interstate Commerce commission the responsibility for fixing both wages and raes. Senator Cummins adheres to the view of establishing a "Board of Transports tion," which shall have jurisdiction over wages, acting on appeals to be brought up from regional boards which shall pass on local and regional differences. Senator Cummins is not hopeful of securing legislative action on the law at this session, but ac knowledges frankly the chances of action will be even less favorable at Mrs. Obenchain was recently freed the hands of the newly elected contention of introducing an administration bill which will cover the suggestions made by the president, but will probably delay the bill pending further conference with the president on Burch, father of Arthur, both testified | the subject of abolishing the railway labor board.
