Inicago there is one building that is used is a storage place for mail of obvious alue, other than first-class, which cansot be delivered. Twice a year this buildng is filled with undeliverable parcels and twice a year they are auctioned off.
In this building there are bins of shoes, treat quantities of clothing, dress goods, suit cases, in fact, everything you can magine, from a bird cage to a mouse rap. Last year there were sold at auclon 10,000 pairs of shoes which were unleliverable, lost to both mailer and the addressee because some one was careless in tying a knot or used flimsy wrapjung 'paper. This situation applies in a legree to every postoffice in the country.
