Arrivals of wheat at Omaha this morning were 159 cars; of corn, 83 cars; of oats, 20, and other grain 16 cars, totaling 278 cars, as compared with a total of 132 cars last year. Total shipments were 129 cars, against 152 cars a year ago.

Need of Cheaper Shipping. Both speakers have been over the proposed route and know their subject thoroughly. "Land shipping rates are so high that a cheaper mode of shipping must be found and the waterway seems to be the only logical solution to shipping problems," Mr. Zumwinkle declared.

The new proposed waterway would allow middle-western shippers to get their wares to European market cheaper and on a better and more equitable competitive basis.

U. P. Officials Back From Hearings at Washington. E. E. Calvin, vice president of the Union Pacific system, in charge of operation of W. S. Bassinger, passenger traffic manager of the Union Pacific, and N. D. Ballantine, superintendent of transportation, returned yesterday from Washington, where they attended the conference relating to the merger of railroads under the Esch-Cummings provision. President Carl Gray has not returned.
