

Klan Wizard Not Impressed by Allen

Texas Man Says He Cannot Waste Time With Governor to Discuss Empire.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Emphasizing that he had not sought the conversation he had yesterday with Governor Allen, Dr. H. W. Evans of Dallas, Tex., imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, said today he had "listened to Mr. Allen two or three minutes in which he said he was in hearty sympathy with the Klan principles, but registered some objection to the Klan regalia."

The Klan mask will never be taken off, he asserted, saying it was part of the organization's lodge regalia and never would be abolished.

"I came to Washington on important business," said Dr. Evans, "and had no intention of wasting any time with Mr. Allen. It makes little or no difference what Governor Allen says, and what he does means even less."

The new imperial wizard of the invisible empire held confab with Klan officials in his hotel here today, but no hint of what was considered was disclosed. He was accompanied to Washington by a group of high officials of the order.

"The spirit of Klan-craft," he said, "has enwrapped the United States in a mantle of love for country which designing and ambitious politicians cannot break, and in a few brief years the influence of the Klan will have so engulphed the thought of the country that we can expect intelligent legislation from the congress of the United States which will drag down the white flag of supine inertia from our legislative halls and raise in its place the militant flag of red, white and blue, which means the thing nearest the heart of every real American."

Dr. Summers and some of his friends were going quail hunting in Missouri. So the doctor sent for his dog, which he keeps on his ranch in Cherry county. When "Pete" arrived he was tied up in Mr. O'Brien's barn, 3519 Farnam street.

Last Saturday he broke his chain and departed. He didn't care for the big city and probably turned his nose westward for his home, 400 miles away.

"I really believe he's on his way to Cherry county," said the surgeon as he passed his hand over his eye. "And that dog is just smart enough to cover the 400 weary, frozen miles. Why he used to run after a Hudson car from Rushville to the ranch, 43 miles, and then be fresh to go right out on a hunt. He's a wonderful dog, not worth much in money, perhaps, but just smart and affectionate and everything. He's a great favorite with Fred Hamilton, Nels Updike, Dick Stewart and Bert Carpenter, as well as with me. Nels has his half brother."

Monday a man called up and said he had found the dog. Dr. Summers leaped into his big car and rushed to the address.

"But it didn't look any more like 'Pete' than a cat," he said sadly. "And so the doctor sits and hopes and pictures the faithful 'Pete' plodding the weary miles to his Cherry county, guided only by that mysterious instinct of the canine family. He prays that 'Pete' will arrive safely or that he will be found and returned.

A liberal reward awaits the person who finds poor 'Pete' and notifies his owner.

Parents' Problems

Should children have few or many books and playthings? A normal child in good health should not be saturated with playthings, as more enjoyment can be obtained from a few. A few well-chosen playthings will teach the children to create as well as to preserve, while many will develop the most natural trait in children—to destroy. As to books, a child cannot have too many, but they should be chosen with great care. They should be very simple; but above all try to avoid developing the mind faster than the body.

"Pete" Gone: Doctor Mourns

Omaha Surgeon Believes English Setter, Brought Here for Hunting Trip, on Way Back to Cherry County Ranch.

"Pete" is gone and Dr. J. E. Summers, his owner, is wrapped in gloom. "He's such a wonderful dog, and so affectionate, an' everything," the noted surgeon mused as he sat at his desk in his offices in the Brandeis theater building yesterday morning and showed Kodak pictures of "Pete" pointing prairie chickens, retrieving and just sitting with his big ears hanging down.

"Pete" is an English setter. As the advertisement in the lost and found column of The Omaha Bee says:

Lost—Black and white setter dog, ears black, face white, large black spot on back, aged 7 years. Reward, Call T. J. O'Brien, HA. 1024.

Feature Transactions of Livestock Exchange

Two loads of shorted yearlings were brought to the Omaha market yesterday by Fred Noller, farmer and feeder of Mankato, Kan., which were sold for $7 a hundred.

This is the first trip Mr. Noller has ever made to Omaha with livestock and he said he was quite pleased with the prices he received and the profits made.

"I have quite a number of cattle in my feed lot and butcher all the beefs, marketing only feeders and stockers," said Mr. Noller, who is a butcher at Mankato as well as a farmer and feeder.

A consignment of 17 head of well-fattened light steers were brought to the stockyards by John Bruhn from Neola, Ia. The cattle averaged 1,128 pounds and brought $10.50 a hundred. Besides the 17 head, there were also two steers of the same weight that sold for $9.50 a hundred; two yearlings, a steer and a heifer, that sold for $9 a hundred and one choice cow weighing 1,550 pounds that sold for an even $7 a hundred.

Pharaoh's Tomb Seen by American

Magnificent Equipment Reveals Wealth and Splendor of Imperial Age in Egypt.

Lincoln, Dec. 19.—The archeological treasures of the recently discovered tomb of King Tutankhamun in the Valley of the Kings were described today by the American Egyptologist, James H. Breasted, in a telegram to the Cairo correspondent of the Times from Luxor.

"I spent an hour in Tutankhamun's tomb this afternoon," Dr. Breasted said in his dispatch. "The impression is overwhelming. The dispatches but feebly suggested the marvelous reality. It is a sight I never dreamed of seeing.

"The antechamber of the Pharaoh's tomb is filled with magnificent equipment, which only the wealth and splendor of the imperial age of Egypt of the fourteenth century before Christ could have wrought or conceived and with everything standing as placed there when the tomb was last closed in antiquity.

"Two facts are evident: First, it is clear that the place is Pharaoh's tomb, and no mere cache. Behind the remaining unopened sealed doorway we must expect to find the burial chamber where the Pharaoh still lies in royal magnificence. Second, we have here a royal burial very little disturbed, in spite of the hurried plundering it suffered at the hands of the ancient tomb robbers.

"In mere quantity of furniture found it far surpasses all precedent. In quality it is an astonishing revelation of the beauty and refinement of Egyptian art at the culmination of its development in the imperial age, quite surpassing anything I ever imagined."

Mrs. Keeline Given Divorce and Alimony

Selma B. Keeline was awarded a divorce decree against John B. Keeline, Council Bluffs sportsman, capitalist and chicken fancier, in district court in the Bluffs yesterday.

She also was awarded $8,500 alimony. In her petition she asked for $50,000 alimony and accused her husband of extreme cruelty.

Descriptions of a raid on the Keeline home, when two women were found there by Mrs. Keeline upon her unexpected return from the west, tended to make the divorce hearing sensational.

Attacked by Rheumatism in Damp Jail; Asks Damages

Lincoln, Dec. 19.—(Special.)—William Jurgenson, who spent two months in the county jail on a charge of having failed in his legal duty to support his dependents, now wants $5,000 from the county because the jailer allowed the water to stand for five days in a basement. As a result, Williams says, he suffered an attack of rheumatism that has caused him much distress and from which he is destined to suffer for a long time. The claim has been rejected by the county board and an appeal is threatened.
