Says There Is More Leadership for Real Welfare of Omaha in That Body Than in City Hall.

Good will for Omaha, for the world, in 1923, was the hope expressed by Bishop E. V. Shayler at the Chamber of Commerce Christmas party yester-

Four hundred and twenty-five men and wemen attended the function. wearing gay paper hats and enthused by the spirit of the occasion and the words of the speakers.

in the history of the Chamber of Commerce this year was the admission of women to membership. He asserted that the membership, now nearly 3,-400, is the highest in the history of the organization. More than $00 mem bers are women. Mr. Head predicted that the Chamber of Commerce and Omaha will press forward next year and will make another record.

The Chamber of Commerce glee club, under direction of Gus Swanson, made its debut and was cordially received. Santa Claus distributed presents to the attendants.

'The Chamber of Commerce is a valuable asset to Omaha," said Bishop Shayler. "There is more leadership for the real welfare of Omaha in the inant everywhere. The spirit of Christmas is the spirit of good will and I may may that good will comes from the sanctity of the home. Good will what we need in Omaha and throughout the world. It takes hold of our education and puts the spirit of Christmas into it. It makes every man believe that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Good will brings grace, glory and honor; it gives us love and life. Let us all have the real spirit of good will, not only at this Christmas season, but all through the year."
