couldn't help laughing.

murmured.

my pointed out.

Mrs. Bunny inquired sharply.

She stared at it in amazement.

"We ate it, ma!" said Belinda.

it? Why did you do that?"

of Cleveland, O., in that city.

Mr. Strehlow is 60 and his bride, 29.

died here two years ago last fall.

Uncle Sam Says:

Radio Receiving Set.

The United States bureau of standards has issued a booklet on the construction and operation of a simple

Pointing out that a receiving set need not be elaborate and expensive, asking for "Circular 120-Bureau of Standards." Do not send stamps.

Christmas Eve Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Christensen entertained at a family reunion on Christmas eve. Those present were

Mr. and Mrs. Arent Christensen and daughter, Marion; Mr. and Mrs. William Watson and daughters, Margaret and Betty Jane; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph

tensen, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Christ-

Mr. and Mrs. Christensen entertained on Christmas day for Mr. Frank W. Edghill of Montpelier, Idaho.

home-made radio receiving ou which can be built for about $10.

Christmas Stunt Party at Brandeis Home Nets $80 for Charity

If they refused to present a "stunt" at the request of their hostess, Mrs. George Brandels, they were fined. If they did perform they were fined on

Miss Lillian Rogers of Chicago, sister of Mrs. Brandeis, offered a little song, "I Took My Girl to a Country Dance." She was fined because the song was too old and was sung in too jazzy a fashion. One of the more serious-minded of the party propounded a riddle. He was fined because no one knew the answer. Dr. Harper of Chicago sang a beautiful little English song. It was rated too risque for the occasion, and some Chicago money rang up for Mrs. M. J. Carney of New York gave a really beautiful reading from "Romeo and Juliet," but did not escape the ax. Her classic number was considered too long and too high brow, so on two counts was her pocket-

One of the women whistled, but, like the "whistling girls and crowing hens" of Mother Goose, she came to a bad end financially.

The Associated Charities ball fund will be $80 the richer and the Brandels out-of-town dinner guests so much the poorer for the unique Christmas dinner party.

The M. C. Peters to Honor the Senior Bohlings.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Bohling of Chicago, who are visiting their son, Henry Bohling, and Mrs. Bohling, will be honor guests at a supper-dance at the Omaha club New Year's eve to be given by Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peters. Last evening their son and daughter honored them at dinner before the

Many Dinners Planned for Miss Harris.

Among those who are planning parties next week for Miss Mary Malloy Harris of Memphis, Tenn., fiancee of Denman Kountze, will be one of the most popular guests of the New Year, are the Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Burgess, Lewis Burgess, Harkness Kountze and Douglas Peters.

Miss Claire Daugherty has already set January 4 for a bridge tea, and Miss Dorothy Judson for a dinner

Miss Graham Hostess at Bridge Tea.

Miss Helen Graham entertained at Mrs. Frank Carpenter and her a bridge tea Wednesday at her daughter, Miss Eleanor, left Tuesday home for the following members of for Lincoln where they will be the school set: Natalie Hastings, Dor- the guests for a few days of Mrs. E. othy Sherman, Charlotte McDonald, F. Pettis. Elinor Kountze, Janet Foster, Genene Neble, Pearl Jones, Eunice Nelson, Eleanor Browne, Dorothy Stewart, Margaret Robinson, Rebecca Moore, Frances Robison, Betty Robison, Josephine Drapier, Roberta Druesedow, Dorothy Lord, Katherine Laville, Hel-Gould, Catherine Aye, Josephine Ellick, Dorls Pinkerton, Agnes Braig, Ruth Grimmel, Alice Sunderland, Corinne Jones. Margaret Johnson, Marie Schram and Marcella Foster.

Mrs. N. H. Loomis to Give Tea.

Mrs. N. H. Loomis has issued cards | Hamilton of Topeka, also relatives of for a tea to be given from 3 until 5 Mrs. Cook, are with her. at her home Wednesday afternoon, January 3, in honor of her niece, Miss Anna Arnold, of Beloit, Wis., and for Miss Eleanor Scott, guest of #### Mrs. Arnold Sets Date for Wedding.

Mrs. Emma Lou Arnold will be married Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, to A. J. Milton of Chicago. The wed ding will take place at the Cooper-Carlton, where the couple will reside after their return from a southern Christ Child center, Seventh and wedding trip. Mrs. Arnold is in Chi- William streets, Thursday evening at cago now visiting friends. She will 8 o'clock. visit in Omaha in February.

Alpha Pi Omega to Honor Alumna.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Archer have as guerite Archer and Miss Marjorie Miltz, both daughters of Mrs. Archer. evening at the Prettiest Mile club ter, Ia.; Miss Marie Nelson of Auburn, when Alpha Pi Omega of Central High school will entertain.

For West Pointer.

student, who is home for the holidays, Mrs. Theodore Tillotson enter-tained at luncheon at her home Wed-ed the camp last summer will give a Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Backora, Mr. nesday with her son, Allen Tillotson, as host. Mr. Cleland is a graduate of the Athletic club Friday noon and ora, Arthur Christensen and Mr. and Kemper Military academy, where that evening Miss Ellen Stearns will Mrs. A. K. Bakora. boys who were guests were Edward Crosby, James Corr, Marvin Ward, Park O'Brien, Art and Jack Coglizer. Roland Howes, Central High student, was also a guest.

For Mrs. A. I. Root.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brandels will entertain at dinner Saturday night at their home for Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Root, who have recently returned from a trip abroad. Covers will be aid for eight. The party will attend he Harry Lauder performance at the Brandels theater afterward.

Miss Burkley Hostess.

Miss Eleanor Burkley gave a luncheon of 12 covers Wednesday for Miss Dorothy Gilbert of New York City, who is visiting Miss Mary Morsman. Miss Gilbert since Saturday has been suffering with an attack of tonsilitis, and was unable to be a guest at the buffet supper given by Miss Mary of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Thomsen, Jack Thomsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Thomsen, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Anderson and their

For Former Omaha Girls. Mrs. Richard Payne of Albert Lea. Minn., and Mrs. Frank Harwood of New York will be complimented at luncheon Friday at the Brandeis restaurants, when Mrs. E. P. Boyer will

For Mrs. O'Brien.

Mrs. Lawrence Brinker will give a family dinner party at her home Thursday night for Mrs. P. J. O'Brien of Missoula, Mont., formerly Miss Nettie Burkley. Covers will be laid

Mrs. Hall for Guest.

Mrs. R. Ware Hall will entertain at ea at her home Saturday afternoon for her guest. Miss Edna Geister, of Hollywood, Cal., who will arrive in Omaha Thursday. Miss Geister is an author and a recreational specialist.

New Year's Eve Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Zimmer will Year's eve at the Athletic club, Harry Easton returned from Min eapolis. Tuesday.

Personals

Miss Hazel Nichols is spending the holidays in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kirkpatrick

Horace Burt is going to Los A geles, Cal., after New Years. Henry and William Dozier are vi ing with relatives in Kansas City.

Mr. C. E. McElroy of Dunlap, Ia. s a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dozier.

Mrs. E. B. Ransom is visiting in Lincoln with her sister, Mrs. Samuel

Bernard Gradwell, student at the University of Nebraska, is the holiday guest of Morris Goetz, a fellow Janice Dinwiddie, accompanied by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dinwiddie, will leave for Los Angeles Thursday.

Miss Daphine Peters left Wednesday ning to spend a week with Mrs. Philip Mitchell of Rock Island, Ill.

Mrs. Mitchell will be remembered as a guest of the fall season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Percival, have motored back to their home. Miss Elizabeth Harrison of Chicago is the holiday guest of her sister, Mrs. H. Y. Cook, at the Colonial. Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Hale and Mrs. Miller

Miss Elizabeth Lentz, a student at the University of Nebraska, and a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, outlet for your energies in work and returned home last Friday, accompanied by Miss Ruth Wells of Lake worthwhile girl, see her occasionally.

Card Party at Christ Child Center.

The ladies of St. Philomenas par ish will entertain at cards at the ### Holiday House Party.

Miss Wilma McFarland will entertain at a house party this week-end and Mrs. A. E. Archer have as for out-of-town girls who attended camp Holliday at Lake Okoboji last summer. Her guests will be Miss Maxine McClure of Des Moines, Ia.; Miss Helen Rhinenart of Dallas Center. Ia.; Miss Marie Nelson of Auburn, mother at hand to advise her. In loo, Ia.

On Thursday evening Miss McFarland will entertain at a theater party Honoring Joe Cleland, West Point in honor of her house guests and on Saturday she will be hostess at a tea Saturday evening Miss McFarland will

For Genoa Guest.

Mrs. R. D. Johnston entertained Mrs. A. E. Gates of Genoa at luncheon at her home Wednesday when her guests were the Mesdames F. W. Robinson, J. E. Wallace, E. V. Hornberger, R. J. Pugsley, R. D. Wixson, and P. B. Johnston

Gifts from Around the World.

Gifts brought personally from all Christmas tree at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Thomsen Saturday night. Will Erickson, who has just returned from a trip around the world contributed them, and also told stories of his travels. Those attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. P. msen, parents of Mr. and Mrs. daughter, Mrs. C. E. Ryder, of Beatrice, who, with her husband, Rev. Ryder, and sons, Robert and Paul, is visiting here; another son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Anderson, A. W. Anderson, his wife, and son Ward; Wallace B. Anderson, Miss Esther Rutt and Mr. Erickson.

For Alpha Delta Pi Girls.

The Misses Mildred Othmer, Corrine Anderson, Mary Golden, Marie Schneider, Janet Pressley and Florence Price were guests at tea Wednesday at the home of Miss Marjorie Smith and will again be entertained by Miss Othmer and Miss Schneider on Friday. These girls are members of Alpha Delta Pi at the University

Married 50 Years

Pa., and moved to Nebraska in 1877. a $50 gold piece.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Auchmuty cele- them at the afternoon party which replied.

"If I'd known you two were that prated their golden wedding anniver- was attended by 75 people. Forty Waverly, Neb. Both are 72 years old. America called on the couple during with my best broom," Mrs. Bunny · Four children attended the Waver- Mrs. W. E. Auchmuty is planning I wanted the snow all nicely swept ing her, and had found the rest she ley party: H. C. and W. E., Omaha; to go to another golden wedding an- away." Mrs. Lettle Cooley and Miss Martha, niversary in February, when her par-Lincoln. Rev. Mr. Randell of the ents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Malin of Bel-Waverly Methodist church remarried levue, will be married 50 years.

Problems That Perplex By Beatrice Fairax.

The Badly Dressed Man. Dear Miss Fairfast For three years have known a young man, 25, one year my senior. He manifested a great liking for me and, after a great deal of persuasion, to go out with him, I finally consented. He then asked me to become engaged, which I refused. He wanted to know the reason why, and when I was silent he took it for granted I did not care for him, he left me, and ever since I have not seen or heard from him. Please advise me how I could tell him without hurting his feelings that him without hurting instruction.

I did not like his way of dressing.

RUTH.

If the man meant anything to you, he meant a good enough friend to merit frankness. He will handicap himself all through life by his poor appearance. Why not write him a little note telling him that you miss your old friend and wish he would me and spend an evening with you? Don't bring up the discussion, but wait for him to introduce it, which he Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Percival of Walbach, Neb., who have been spending the holiday season with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Percival, have

Being Good Friends. Dear Miss Fairfax: Has a boy of 18 the right to seek love? I would much rather be in the company of a pleasant young lady I know of my own age, but I am afraid to make advances on account of the age. Won't you please advise me what to do, and you please advise in I will be very grateful. EIGHTEEN.

How about friendship? Seek an view, Ia., who spent the week-end with the idea of maintaining your rebasis of friends love you feel today is not a safe guide for your more mature years. It is natural for you to think about it, but soon he was knocking at Miss Bunny's door. it would be very unwise for you to let your emotions come between you and a sane relaization of your youth.

> L. N.: Write to Happy, in care of The Omaha Bee's children's page, and perhaps some of the young readers can suggest a name for your club.

Parents' Problems

Should a girl of 15 be permitted to yes, charge articles to her mother's ac-

the second place, an account, even for a discreet grown person, is a temptation to extravagance; much more so, to a young girl!

Family Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Antone K. Bakora entertained at family reunion on Place a Turkish towel in the bottom of the dishpan when washing valuable china and cut glass.

SLEEPY-TIME TALES RABBIT ONCE MORE BY ARTHUR SCOTT BAILEY

CHAPTER III

Jimmy Rabbit and the Winter Sports. When the first fine, heavy fall of snow came so early in the winter Jimmy Rabbit thought at once of Miss Belinda Bunny.

"I'll go to her house and ask her if she wouldn't like to come out with me and enjoy the winter sports,'

The he decided. So off he hurried. Her mother answered.

> "Well, young man?" Mrs. Bunny inquired. Jimmy Rabbit snatched off his can

> "Can your daughter come out?" he asked. "The winter sports have be-I know she wouldn't want to Mrs. Bunny looked, for a moment or two, as if she were about to say But to Jimmy's relief she said yes, that Belinda might come out. And then she asked, "Just what do you intend to do, young man?" F. Bakora, Arthur and Marie Chris "Oh, we'll play in the snow," Jimmy Rabbit told her. "Yes, ma! We'll play in the snow," cried a voice from behind Mrs. Bunny. And in another moment Miss Belinda herself slipped past Mrs. Bunny and joined Jimmy Rabbit in the doorway.

"Good!" cried Mrs. Bunny, in what was-for her-a very pleasant tone. "That suits me. You two can play right here in the dooryard. It will be great sport clearing all this snow away from in front of the house." Now, that was not at all what Jimmy Rabbit had meant by "winter sports." But what could he sayespecially when Mrs. Bunny put a

My Marriage Behind her mother's back Miss Belinda wriggled her nose. She had a way of doing that sometimes. Problems Jimmy Rabbit couldn't be sure whether she meant anything by it, this time, or whether she didn't. He hoped she did. Well, it took them a long time to 'Revelations of a Wife' clear away the snow. And soon after they finished Mrs. Bunny came (Copyright 1922)

The Way Madge Found Rest So Far "Come in now, Belinda!" she called As Claire Is Concerned,

"You've been out long enough."
Again Miss Belinda gave her nose If I had needed proof of Claire Foster's essential indifference to Dicky, funny twist. Any Jimmy Rabbit I was given an abundance of it when within 10 minutes of our going to bed, "What's the joke, young man?" her regular and deep breathing told me that she had gone to sleep as "Nothing, ma'am!" Jimmy Rabbit peacefully as a kitten.

I knew, of course, that she was ex-"Where's my broom?" Mrs. Bunny hausted with the emotional strain of the preceding hours, but I knew also "Here it is," said Jimmy Rabbit. that no exhaustion would have per-And he handed Mrs. Bunny the mitted sleep to come to her so suddenly if her affections had been in- drew back the bolt of the hall door,

"Where's the rest of it?" she cried. She is not the type of girl to take things lightly. Under her apparent "Ate it?" Mrs. Bunny cried. "Ate hardness, her metallic superficiality, I "We were hungry, ma," Belinda had found a warm, ingenuous heart. And I realized that once she was certain of my continued presence in the sary Christmas eve at their home in members of the Modern Woodmen of hungry I'd never have trusted you room with her she relaxed, and laid down the bristling armor which she They were married in Selins Grove, the evening and presented them with declared. "I'm expecting friends in had kept between herself and the capfor tea this afternoon. That's why tious speculations of those surroundso sorely needed.

"Well, ma'am-we did that," iJm But I could not find sleep so easily. forced myself to lie quietly for fear "Yes! Yes! That's true, young man. that restless movement might awaken But I don't know what I'm going to the girl on the couch across the room do now. I was saving this best while over me went wave after wave broom for my company. I wanted to give them some dainty refresh of anger at Dicky, fear that he was no longer mine for either anger or approbation, longing for him, and an agonized remorseful questioning as to my Real Estate Man Weds; share of the blame in the rift that had come between us. Happy, indeed, should be the wife Climax of Romance who never has had such a vigil. In the old scriptural phrase she should As the climax of a romance which count herself "blessed among women" if she never has had occasion to spend egan two years ago at the wedding of his son, R. C. Strehlow, wealthy the silent hours of the night in tor-Omaha real estate owner, is reported turing introspection and retrospection to have married Miss Olive, Benidict such as came to me in that mountain

At first I kept looking at the ra-Before leaving Omaha last week, watch to time the passing minutes. Mr. Strehlow outlined to relatives his prospective wedding tour, which was But when I found that what seemed to include a visit to New Orleans and | to me at least an hour of waiting was other points in the south, expecting to registered on the watch as only 17 minutes. I determined to look at it no to Alameda, Cal., about more. But I could not escape the The second wife of Mr. Strehlow striking of a clock in another part of the building, not strident, indeed softtoned, but clearly audible in the deep silence which gave the hours and half

> I noted every one until four strokes told me that it was that hour in the morning. Then I must have dozed off from sheer exhaustion for when I opened my eyes again the darkness had gone and I saw that it was the time in the merning fust before the sun comes up, when everything seems need not be elaborate and expensive, the booklet explains that all that is necessary for receiving radio messages is a device for collecting power from the incoming radio waves, a suitable circuit adjusted or "tuned" electrically to the frequency of the incoming waves, and apparatus for changing the received power into audible sounds. Satisfactory results have been obtained from sets constructed according to these directions by persons having no previous experiments.

Here the verything seems most bleak.

I shivered beneath the coverings, and realized that the room had grown cold. On the foot of my bed was a heavy comforter given me by Mrs. Barker for extra cold, and another lay at the foot of Claire Foster's bed. I slipped out of bed, crossed to her, and pulled the quilt up over her without waking her. Then I dived into my own bed again, shivering violently. by persons having no previous experience with radio.

Readers of The Omaha Bee may obtain a copy of this booklet by sending 5 cents in coin to the Superintendent of Documents, Government know that any of my ancestors were the sunrise I coveted. tains and loved them dearly. With a voice accosted me. little thrill I realized that if I hurried frantically through my dressing, and the agent said I'd better bring it and tip-toed out into the hall. If up. anything could calm me and give me

But it could not restore sleep to my the dancing mountain brook.

No one was astir in the front part of the house, although I knew, of course that the day must have begun for Mrs. Barker some time before, I strength to go on, I knew that the peace of the "eternal hills" would do until the extra wormth afforded by shut it carefully behind me, and ran the added quilt restored physical com- lightly down the path to the winding road which lay beneath the house and

ves. I realized that I was "up for I could have seen the sunrise from all day," realized also, that action of the veranda of the house, but I was some sort was imperative for me. I afraid that some other autumn and would never be able to carry my un- mountain lover might come out and dertaking to its conclusion if I did discover me there, so I walked swiftnot provide my jangled nerves with ly up the road a few yards to a little knoll topped by a magnificent pine

I am a mountain devotee. I do not tree, reaching it just in time to see mountain-bred, but I am sure that I was permitted to enjoy it but a somewhere in the distant past of for minute, however. There were quick mer existences I lived among moun- footsteps behind me and an old man's

"Mis' Barker says you're Mis' Graried I would be able to see the sun ham," he said. "If you be, here's a burst out from behind them, and I telegram which just come over at the sprang noiselessly out of bed, hur- station for ye. I happened to be there,

The Style Shop Dressmaking and Remodeling

The shop in town that you can have absolute faith in, and the prices are really rea-

225 Neville Block, Second Floor, 16th and Harney.

(We Add That Touch of Style.) Mrs. B. Armour, Atlantic 9976.

An Announcement

Because of the fire which started on the second floor of the Courtney building, our stock was damaged to some extent by the smoke and water. This store will remain closed for a few days pending adjustment of the loss by the insurance companies.

Our buyers are already in the market selecting an all new stock.

Watch daily papers for dates of reopening of a bigger and better Table Supply Co.

> Louis Sommers Jake Berkowitz

YEAR'S END BUY-RITE STORES' OFERINGS

5.000 lbs. Head Rice, 3 lbs. for

Figs, per Ib.,

Imported

Layer

The Buy-Rite Stores Wish Their Many Friends and Patrons a Very Happy and Prosperous New Year

Extra Fancy Jonathan Apples per box, $2.98

Dr. Philip's Grapefruit "Fit to Eat"

3 for 35¢

6 for 65¢

Suits, Coats, Dresses HALF PRICE Blouses, Hats, Sweaters

1812 Farnam

W. H. ELDRIDGE IMPORTING CO.

1313-1315 Farnam Street

Woodmen of the World Annex

Announce a discount on their entire stock of

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

SPECIAL DISCOUNT for the purpose of reducing our stock prior to inventory. You may purchase any of our Lamps, Silver, Crystal, China, Leather or Art Goods-nothing excepted.

All purchases made during this sale will be charged on the February statement

Buy-Rite Candy Department

35c 2 pounds for ...... New Year's Special Mixed Candy, 35c 2 pounds for ......

Home-Made Peanut Squares,

Schrafft's Assorted Chocolates, 45c per pound .....

59c Don't forget the "Cheer Baskets" for a Happy New Year-adinner for 6 people in each basket-

$4.00 delivered anywhere.

Sweet Sunkist

Oranges,

75c value,

PRE-INVENTORY CANNED GOODS SALE

3,000 cans of Tollgate sifted Early June Peas, 25c value, 3 cans for .......49¢ Otoe Red Kidney Beans, 3 cans for . . . . 43¢ Otoe Hominy, No. 2 cans, 3 cans for . . 25¢ Otoe Hominy, No. 3 cans, 3 cans for . . 43¢ Van Camp's Pork and Beans, medium size, 3 cans for ......39¢ Grand Canon Maine Corn, 3 cans for . . 53¢ Hand Packed Tomatoes, No. 2 cans,

3 for ......39¢

MJE 3 lbs. for ......$1.35

BUY-RITE PILLARS Tea Table Flour, per 48-lb. sack .... $1.83

10 bars of P. & G. Naptha Soap ..... 43¢

10 bars of Omaha Family Soap ..... 42e Large packages of Gold Dust, pkg....27¢ Buy-Rite Coffee, lb., 35c; 3 lbs. for ... 95¢ Nishna Valley Buy-Rite Butter, Macaroni or Spaghetti, 3 packages for . 23¢ 10-lb. sack of fine Table Salt ......20¢ 10 rolls of 121/2c Toilet Paper for .....85¢ 10 rolls of 15c Tissue Toilet Paper for. 95¢

DAIRIMAID BUTTER Your meals will be better if you use this but-ter. Per pound .... 57c

Special Pre-Inventory Bargains at All Buy-Rite Stores

Resolve to buy right at the Buy-Rite Stores

ARMAND PETERSEN PROS GROCERY THORIN & SNYGG LYNAM & BRENNAN E. KARSCH CO.

M. J. B. COFFEE

HANNEGAN & CO. 35th Ave. and Leave

JEPSEN BROS. GEO. I. ROSS F. L. BIRD

ERNEST BUFFETT The Grocer of Dundee GILES BROTHERS WILKE & MITCHELL Fortieth and Farnam SKUPA & SWOBODA

BUY-RITE