

WOMAN'S PAGE—MAGAZINE FEATURES

SOCIETY

Birthday Party for Albert Allison Sibbersen

Mrs. Albert Sibbersen is planning a party for Friday honoring the second birthday of her son, Albert Allison Sibbersen.

Wellesley Club Changes Date for Tea

The Wellesley club has postponed the date for its tea to have been given on Tuesday, January 2, until Wednesday, January 3, when it will be given at the home of Miss Flora Mars.

Announces Engagement

Mrs. A. F. Vernon announces the engagement of her daughter, Edith Mae, to James Benson Horton.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Weeks announce the engagement of their daughter, Norma, to Ronald J. Kane.

For School Set

Mrs. Halleck Rose will entertain for her son, Halleck, Jr., at the Omaha club tea dance on Friday afternoon from 4 to 6.

Miss Bowen Honored

Mrs. John Ringwalt gave a tea Wednesday afternoon at her home complimentary to Miss Abba Bowen.

Sorority Luncheon

Mrs. Will Wrightson and Mrs. H. W. Wigton will entertain the active and alumnae members of Alpha Omicron Phi sorority at a 1 o'clock luncheon.

For Mrs. McFerron

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins will entertain 40 guests Saturday night at a buffet supper for Mr. and Mrs. Donald McFerron.

Personals

Miss Lyta Weyl of Trenton, Neb., is spending the holidays with her cousin, Mrs. C. E. Clark.

Heads Girls' Club

Miss Orietta Barham.

Miss Orietta Barham, president of Alpha Pi Omega sorority, is in charge of arrangements for the luncheon to be given for active members of the sorority.

Winter Travelers Soon Depart

Mr. and Mrs. John Lionberger, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Stroud, Miss Agnes Scott and C. S. Stebbins will make up a party sailing from New York, January 15 for Panama.

Miss Morsman Gives Bridge Tea for Guest

Miss Mary Morsman entertained 50 guests at a bridge tea this afternoon at her home in compliment to Miss Dorothy Gilbert.

Assistants at University Club Tea

Two affairs are scheduled at the University club for New Year's day, a tea dance from 3 to 6, complimentary to members and their friends and a buffet supper at 6 o'clock.

Assisting at the tea will be wives of the members of the board of directors. Mesdames H. G. Morehead, W. B. T. Belt, J. M. Beveridge, R. M. Crossman, Franklin Mann, A. B. Currie, William M. Smalls, Joe Barker, C. C. George, A. C. Mungler, C. W. Pollard, John W. Redick, R. A. Van Orsdal, Harry S. Weller, Clinton Brono, Charles Eyre, V. C. Hascall, G. W. Holdrege, Alan McDonald, Casper Y. Ofutt and C. H. Waters.

Women Voters to Attend Meeting of Bar Association

The Nebraska Bar association has extended an invitation to the League of Women Voters to attend a meeting of the association Saturday morning and afternoon at the Fontainebleau hotel.

Miss Belle Sherwin, national vice president of the league, who was to have been the guest of the Omaha league next week, will be unable to come to Omaha at this time.

Miss Wiggernhorn a Guest

Miss Barbara Wiggernhorn of Ashland was the guest of Mrs. Halleck Rose early this week. She is now with her cousin, Miss Marjorie Pen-coast, a student at Kemper Hall, Kenosha, Wis., home for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pen-coast.

The Right Way for Left-Overs

Always remove the left-overs from the dishes on which they were served and place on a clean platter before putting them away in the refrigerator.

Mr. Brown a Guest

Ray Brown of St. Louis will be the guest Sunday and Monday of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reed and Miss Peggy Reed.

Uncle Sam Says:

Diseases of Poultry. Do you keep poultry? What is more discouraging and costly than to have disease break out in the flock? Poultry diseases are a rule pass rapidly from bird to bird and may be carried to neighboring flocks.

SLEEPY-TIME TALES JIMMY RABBIT ONCE MORE

CHAPTER IV. A Present for Miss Belinda Bunny.

"Look, Ma!" Belinda Bunny exclaimed one brisk winter's day as she hurried into the house and showed her mother a heavy round object, flat on the top and on the bottom.

"Early June peas!" she said, reading, which was pasted on the side of the present. "It certainly is a lovely picture." Mrs. Bunny agreed.

"Now, Ma!" cried Belinda. "You're not going to make me give that picture back!" "No!" her mother replied. "Not now, anyhow! We'll set it on the mantel. It's certainly a handsome ornament for the parlor. And if I can stand to see it during these long winter months you may keep it. Dear me! What a long time it's going to be before summer comes and Farmer Green's vegetables are ready to eat!"

Belinda Bunny put the picture on the mantelpiece. And she and her mother stood back and looked at it. "I never saw a picture framed like this one," Mrs. Bunny remarked. "It can't be meant to hang on the wall. Kansas Industrial Court." Mrs. C. N. Craighead, vice president of the league, requests all members to be present.

Miss Belle Sherwin, national vice president of the league, who was to have been the guest of the Omaha league next week, will be unable to come to Omaha at this time.

Miss Mary Morsman entertained 50 guests at a bridge tea this afternoon at her home in compliment to Miss Dorothy Gilbert of New York, her holiday guest. Those assisting Miss Morsman were the Mesdames Richard Crane of Madison, Wis., Caspar Ofutt, Richard Mallory and the Mesdames Claire Daugherty, Katherine Denny, Jean Palmer, Emily Burke and Winifred Smith.

Miss Nan Hunter was hostess at dinner and bridge at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Luther Drake, Tuesday evening, honoring Miss Elizabeth Barker, who is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barker.

Covers were laid for the Messrs. and Mesdames Miles McFayden, Alan McDonald, Dr. Allan Moser and Charles Mattson.

Miss Wiggernhorn a Guest

Miss Barbara Wiggernhorn of Ashland was the guest of Mrs. Halleck Rose early this week. She is now with her cousin, Miss Marjorie Pen-coast, a student at Kemper Hall, Kenosha, Wis., home for the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pen-coast.

The Right Way for Left-Overs

Always remove the left-overs from the dishes on which they were served and place on a clean platter before putting them away in the refrigerator. They will be much more suggestive of being turned into an appetizing dish of some sort if they are on a clean platter.

early ones," she told Belinda. "Somehow, they don't look quite like the early kind." "This present is not meant to be eaten, ma," said Miss Belinda severely. "I know that," Mrs. Bunny agreed with a sigh. "I know that, and it's a pity it's so."

How does a person get into a can of peas? Mrs. Bunny demanded.

"They're lovely," Miss Belinda told him. "We put them on the mantel. Ma is looking at them now." "You mean the empty can, of course," said Jimmy Rabbit. "But I mean, how did you like the peas that were inside it? Did they taste good?"

"My goodness!" Miss Bunny exclaimed. "Ma and I didn't know there was anything to eat inside that present. I'll go right into the house and tell her."

She hopped through the doorway and told her mother what she had learned. Mrs. Bunny leaped right up on the mantelpiece and seized the can of peas.

"How does a person get into a can of peas?" Mrs. Bunny demanded. "But Jimmy Rabbit couldn't tell her. And Mrs. Bunny was frantic. But she wouldn't let anybody else try to open the can. Though it hadn't been given to her, she wouldn't let go of it. She kept it with her all winter long and spent hours and hours trying to open it. And all for the lack of a can opener!"

My Marriage Problems

Adelle Garrison's New Phase of "Revelations of a Wife"

What the Telegram Compelled Madge to Do.

I put out my hand mechanically and took the yellow envelope which the old man had brought to me from the station agent.

"You're sure you're Miss Graham?" he repeated, and I saw that senility sat heavily upon him. "The agent wouldn't like it if I giv' it to anybody else."

"Yes, yes, I am Mrs. Graham," I repeated impatiently. "You said just now that Mrs. Barker pointed me out to you."

"But her eyesight isn't as good as it used to be," he retorted. "She might be mistaken, and then I'd be in a pretty pickle."

"But she wasn't mistaken," I said curtly. "This telegram is mine. Is there anything to pay?" I opened my purse, which, from sheer force of habit, I had carried out-of-doors with me.

"No, ma'am I was comin' this way anyway." "You'll take this for your trouble, won't you?" I held out a coin.

"I don't want nuthin' for an accommodation," he protested, but I saw his eyes fixed longingly upon the piece of silver.

Blouses, Hats, Sweaters HALF PRICE

Suits, Coats, Dresses

Thomas Shop

1812 Farnam

But when I am away from Junior, especially since the terrible time of his kidnapping, I am never free from a haunting fear for his safety, and it was that dread which paralyzed my fingers until I forced them into action.

Madge Acts Quickly. For a blank, dazed second or two I wondered if Lillian suddenly had taken leave of her senses, or—if I had lost mine, for I could make nothing of the words.

"You're sure you're Miss Graham?" he repeated, and I saw that senility sat heavily upon him. "The agent wouldn't like it if I giv' it to anybody else."

"Yes, yes, I am Mrs. Graham," I repeated impatiently. "You said just now that Mrs. Barker pointed me out to you."

"But her eyesight isn't as good as it used to be," he retorted. "She might be mistaken, and then I'd be in a pretty pickle."

"But she wasn't mistaken," I said curtly. "This telegram is mine. Is there anything to pay?" I opened my purse, which, from sheer force of habit, I had carried out-of-doors with me.

"No, ma'am I was comin' this way anyway." "You'll take this for your trouble, won't you?" I held out a coin.

"I don't want nuthin' for an accommodation," he protested, but I saw his eyes fixed longingly upon the piece of silver.

"Yes, yes, I am Mrs. Graham," I repeated impatiently. "You said just now that Mrs. Barker pointed me out to you."

"But her eyesight isn't as good as it used to be," he retorted. "She might be mistaken, and then I'd be in a pretty pickle."

"But she wasn't mistaken," I said curtly. "This telegram is mine. Is there anything to pay?" I opened my purse, which, from sheer force of habit, I had carried out-of-doors with me.

"No, ma'am I was comin' this way anyway." "You'll take this for your trouble, won't you?" I held out a coin.

"I don't want nuthin' for an accommodation," he protested, but I saw his eyes fixed longingly upon the piece of silver.

"Yes, yes, I am Mrs. Graham," I repeated impatiently. "You said just now that Mrs. Barker pointed me out to you."

"But her eyesight isn't as good as it used to be," he retorted. "She might be mistaken, and then I'd be in a pretty pickle."

"But she wasn't mistaken," I said curtly. "This telegram is mine. Is there anything to pay?" I opened my purse, which, from sheer force of habit, I had carried out-of-doors with me.

"No, ma'am I was comin' this way anyway." "You'll take this for your trouble, won't you?" I held out a coin.

"I don't want nuthin' for an accommodation," he protested, but I saw his eyes fixed longingly upon the piece of silver.

the roads on the west side of the Hudson were wonderful. He must be within an hour of Caldwell at least. If I managed to elude him, and get Dicky away from the Caldwell hotel, I must hurry, hurry, hurry.

Week-End Club. The Week-End Dancing club will entertain at a New Year's dinner dance Saturday night at the Fontainebleau hotel.

Lafayette Club. The Lafayette club will give a dance Friday night, December 29, at the Hyland dancing academy.

Coal. Phone Us Your Order

SEMI-ANTHRACITE Greenwood Lump $14.50 Modified Lump $13.50 Commercial Lump $12.50 Mine Run $10.50

BITUMINOUS LUMP Franklin County $12.50 Charter Oak $11.50 Central $11.00 Liberty $10.50 Climax $9.50

SMOKELESS LUMP Wyoming $12.50 Colorado $10.00

KE nwood 2261 JA cksou 0840 KE nwood 2262

Thomas Kilpatrick Co

Truth Is Stronger than Fiction

Women's Shoes

is evidence

Friday and Saturday

will see the whirlwind finish of a most phenomenal sale

Low Shoes, High Shoes, Pumps, Oxfords

Half Price

All $10 Shoes, $5.00 All $13.50 Shoes, $6.75 All $12 Shoes, $6.00 All $15.00 Shoes, $7.50

Our Annual Clearing Sale of Women's Winter Wearables

shows no sign of abatement

To us the most satisfactory feature of any sale is this recurring message of the stream of buyers.

Whether it be Coat, Suit, Dress or Fur, there is no disappointment here

For Women, Misses and Children Children's Coats are heavily reduced in price.

Children's Dresses of silk and wool are grouped at $7.50, $12.50, $16.50 and $24.50

Problems That Perplex

Dear Miss Fairfax: I have been engaged to a man for over four years and he keeps putting off wedding off from time to time and making excuses, and he keeps corresponding with other lady friends and exchanging Christmas presents and cards.

The Style Shop

Dressmaking and Remodeling

The shop in town that you can have absolute faith in, and the prices are really reasonable.

Mrs. E. Armour, Atlantic 9976. 225 Neville Block, Second Floor, 16th and Harney.

KITCHEN KLENZER Cleans Painted Walls. AUTOMATIC SOAP FLAKES. Takes the Slavery Out of Wash Day.