

Firm Donates Coal to Charities Here

The Goddard Fuel company has agreed to donate 500 tons of coal to the Associated Charities, for the use of Omaha families during the winter. The donation has a cash value greater than the entire receipts of the Charity ball Wednesday night and is one of the most liberal gifts the association has ever received.

"Naturally, we are delighted," said Mrs. George W. Doane, secretary of the Associated Charities. "Coal is one thing that is a real problem for us and this helps us most materially at a time when, as a result of the fire which destroyed our office, we particularly need everything that we can get."

Five Guests at Marriage Attend Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nichols.

Fremont, Neb., Dec. 29.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nichols, 70 and 69, respectively, enjoyed an unusual honor, when five guests who were present at their wedding 50 years ago, were in attendance at their golden wedding anniversary. Another remarkable incident in connection with the celebration was the fact that Mrs. Nichols' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Garrett, celebrated their own golden wedding anniversary in the same house.

About 50 friends and relatives attended the celebration. Mrs. S. V. Dillow, a daughter, presided as toastmistress. Texas, Wisconsin, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska were presented in the crowd. Seven children were born to the couple, six of whom were in attendance. They are: Mrs. S. V. Dillow, district superintendent of Congregational churches at Kearney; A. J. Nichols, vice president of the Farmers and Merchants' bank at Fairbury; Mrs. J. H. Williams, wife of the pastor of the Evangelical church at Blue Springs; Mrs. Ray Souney of O'Connor; Mrs. Leon Killard, Page; Mrs. William B. Karr, Lincoln. A. M. Nichols, twin brother of A. J. Nichols and superintendent of the Cudahy Packing plant at Salt Lake City, was unable to be present. Of 28 grandchildren, 18 were present.

Club Meeting Postponed.
The regular annual meeting of the Omaha Country club, which was to have been held yesterday at the Omaha club building, has been adjourned until some time during January.
