Entire Family Carries Disease

Household of Five Reported to Health Department as "Diphtheria Carriers."

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Frankeberger, 14, respectively, all were reported to Mrs. C. V. Warfield. the city health department as "diphtheria carriers." These five are the entire household.

Dr. A. S. Pinto, health commissioner, stated that this is a striking instance of the value of school medical inspection and of the isolation of carrier cases which are dangerous because of their obscuration.

"We have been able to reduce diphtheria cases materially," explained the health commissioner, "be- $10,000,000 of Nebraska's $60,000,000 have a diphtheria affected throat and Woodard said yesterday. yet not appear ill to the casual observer. A school nurse took a culture of Doris Frankeberger at the Saratoga school and then the family physician took culture of the entire family. All cultures tested positive, indicating that every member of this family was a diphtheria carrier."

Lasker Not Over-Confident of Passage of Subsidy Bill Washington, Jan. 8 .- Defeat of the ker of the shipping board declared in testimony before the house appropriations committee in executive session, a transcript of which has just been made public.

The appropriations committee in the independent offices bill reported Saturday to the house, provides $50,-600,000 for the emergency shipping fund, which is the same as recommended by the budget bureau. The testimony of Mr. Lasker indicated that he was none too confident that the ship subsidy bill will be

Interchurch World Report

New York, Jan. 8 .- An attack on the credibility of the famous report of the interchurch world movement on the 1919 steel strike is contained in a 500-page document made public by Marshall Olds, economist.

The interchurch world movement's assailed the industrial and Steel corporation, and now Mr. Olds in some instances the churchmen's report contained misrepresentations and fraudulent affidavits and that in other cases persons who co-operated in supplying information were of acknowledged "radical" or liberal political at-filiations.
