

Society

Reservations for Catholic Council Benefit Bridge

The Catholic Council of Women which is sponsoring a benefit bridge at the Brandeis restaurant...

Tables have already been reserved for the occasion by Mesdames Margaret P. Hynes, Ludovic Crofoot...

Dinner Given Honoring Tourists to Cuba

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Shotwell entertained 25 guests at dinner at the Brandeis restaurant Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Will Maloney and Mrs. and Mrs. L. J. Millard...

For Mrs. E. W. Davis

Mrs. C. E. Balbach entertained at tea Saturday afternoon at her home for Mrs. E. W. Davis of Lincoln...

Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. Leonard Trestor entertained the members of her bridge club Friday afternoon at luncheon at the home of Miss Erna Reed...

Four-Day House Party

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Huff are planning a four day house party beginning on Saturday Jan. 20...

Mrs. Frank Place Weds.

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pitt of Wausau, Wis...

Mrs. Fish is the mother of Mrs. Carl P. Peterson and Charles Frankenberg of this city.

Miss Wallace Hostess

Miss Ruth Wallace entertained Saturday afternoon at bridge at her home when her guests were the Misses Emily Burke, Margaret Hart...

Girls Community Service League

Sunday—The club rooms at 1712 Dodge street will be open at 5:30 p. m. Supper will be served...

Monday—Clubs club supper, 6:15. Mrs. Peterson who is taking the gymnasium class during Mrs. Musselman's illness...

Tuesday—At 5:15 the basket ball team will meet for practice. The team has been divided into two groups...

Wednesday—At 6:15 there will be a supper for all young men interested in the Community Sports club...

Thursday—D. T. A. club supper, 6:15. Choral practice, 7:30. Noel Wallace, director...

Friday—A mass meeting of all members of the league and all people interested in it will be held. Supper will be served at 6:30...

Saturday—The regular weekly dance will be held in the ballroom at 8:30. The Cluga club will assist Miss Rob...

Mrs. Douglas and Dorothy Jane

Mrs. Howard Douglas. Goshall home portrait.

This is Mrs. Howard Douglas with her cunning baby daughter, Dorothy Jane. Dorothy Jane's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Newbranch...

Personals

C. F. McConnell returns today from Washington, D. C.

Miss Eileen McCaffrey is making plans to go abroad next summer.

Mrs. William Sears Poppleton returned Friday morning from a week's visit in New York.

William Stull, Jr., a student at Loomis Institute, is not returning to school at present, owing to illness.

A son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gwynne. Mrs. Gwynne was formerly Miss Mary Birdsell.

Dan Baum has returned from the east and is a stopping at the Blackstone. Mrs. Baum is visiting for a time with her mother Mrs. H. H. Hackett in Easton, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Foster of Lincoln and Mrs. and Mrs. Leon G. Galen of Philadelphia, Pa., will be the guests of the Fred Thomases at the Tip Top supper party Monday evening.

Miss Thelma Pallen, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pallen, has gone to Long Beach, Cal. They expect to make their home in southern California. Miss Pallen, who has been a student at the Omaha university, will probably enroll in the University of Southern California.

Announce Engagement. Cards have been received in Omaha announcing the engagement of Miss Lela G. Stine to Harris J. Galen of Philadelphia. Miss Stine is the daughter of the late Mrs. H. P. Stine of this city...

Principal in Play

Mrs. George Pray will have one of the principal roles in Mrs. Keene Abbott's play, "Mr. Enright Entertains," to be presented Wednesday afternoon, January 24, at the Burgess-Nash Auditorium under the auspices of the speech education department of the Omaha Woman's club.

Rev. Atack Speaks on the 18th Amendment

Douglas county will observe the third anniversary of the 18th amendment becoming a law at an all day meeting Tuesday in Hanscom Park Methodist church.

Five minute talks will be given by Drs. Jennie Callias, president of Omaha union; Mrs. James Dalzell, president Frances Willard union; Mrs. H. S. Getches, West Side union; Mrs. F. G. Othmer, North Side; Mrs. L. C. Banner, South Side; Mrs. Morton Vieno, Benson; Mrs. Anna Whitney, Elk City.

A box luncheon will be served at noon. During the afternoon session Rev. Arthur Atack will speak on the 18th amendment. Final reports of the world and national W. C. T. U. conventions held in Philadelphia last fall will be given by Mrs. Vieno.

The meeting will close with a gold medal oratorical contest in charge of Mrs. E. H. Shirock. The contestants are Mildred Harris, Marian Othmer, Dorothy Kattran, Iris Shirock, Marjorie Wintter and Howard Shirock.

Benefit Concert

The second of a series of concerts, sponsored by the Omaha Woman's club chorus, Mrs. Willis Redfield, leader, will be given Thursday evening in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium, under direction of Robert Cusaden, director.

Tri Delta Luncheon. The Tri Delta sorority will give a luncheon Saturday January 20 at 4517 Davenport street. Mrs. Karl W. Jones, and Miss Charlotte McDougall will be hostesses.

Boston Visitor

Mrs. Henry Nichols of Boston, Mass., arrived in Council Bluffs last Wednesday with her husband to spend a few days with Mr. Nichols' mother, Mrs. F. M. Nichols of Fleming avenue.

This charming matron has on one or two other occasions visited in the city and is always the recipient of a number of social affairs planned in her honor.

On the evening of the Nichols' arrival a dinner-dance was given at the Grand hotel for them and Max Bissell of Chicago, by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Hannan, Jr., who are entertaining Mr. Bissell at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hurd have returned from a trip to New York. Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett departed Wednesday for California where they plan to spend three months.

Mrs. Donald Macrae spent several days last week in Des Moines and Davenport, Iowa, in connection with her duties as president of the Iowa American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. George Robinson, accompanied by her daughter Helen Louise and niece Mary Trigg, departed Thursday for their home in Fort Worth, Texas, after a holiday visit with relatives here.

Richard Bennett of Lincoln, Neb., arrived in Council Bluffs the latter part of the week to accompany home his wife and daughter Suzanne who have been visiting Mrs. Bennett's mother, Mrs. Lyman Shugart.

Council Bluffs Society

Wedding.

A wedding of interest to Council Bluffs and Omaha people was solemnized Saturday morning in St. Francis Xavier's church when Mrs. Edward Kelley of Omaha became the bride of Benjamin Hermen of this city.

Only the most intimate friends knew the plans of the young couple and the wedding was a very quiet one.

As the bridal party entered Miss Rodna Hughes played the Lohengrin wedding march, and during the ceremony Miss Marjorie Powers sang "I Love You Truly."

Mrs. Hermen formerly lived in Council Bluffs and will be remembered as Miss Marie Schoupp.

Visitors Honored. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Hannan, Jr., entertained at a dinner-dance Wednesday evening last, complimentary to their house guest, Mr. Max E. Bissell of Chicago.

Mrs. Henry Nichols of Boston, who spent several days here during the past week with Mr. Nichols' mother, Mrs. F. M. Nichols.

The affair was given at the Grand hotel and the tables, at each of which were seated three couples, were adorned with roses and sweet peas.

The following evening Mr. and Mrs. George VanBrunt gave a dinner at their home for these visitors, when covers were placed for Messrs. and Mesdames Nichols, J. H. Hess, William Coppock, Charles R. Hannan, Jr., Miss Eva Nichols, Max E. Bissell and the host and hostess.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Nichols were luncheon guests in Omaha of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heebe and that evening they had dinner informally with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark.

The Nichols are leaving today for their home in Boston.

Six dancing parties have been arranged by the entertainment committee of the Elks club for the first three months of the new year.

Indiana Visitors Feted. Mrs. Frank Garrett and Mrs. Walter Stephan gave a very enjoyable party on Thursday at the home of the former, to compliment Mrs. L. M. Pierce and Mrs. C. W. Boucher, who are here from Valparaiso, Ind.

Russel roses were used on the tables and after luncheon the afternoon was spent with bridge. Mrs. Harlie Norris received the prizes for high scores and Mrs. George Hughes the cut-for-all.

Friday, Mrs. Garrett invited to the Brandeis tea room for luncheon six guests who later attended the Orpheum, and Saturday Mrs. W. S. Stillman entertained at luncheon for these visitors.

On Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Garrett gave a dinner of 14 covers at their home for Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Boucher and this evening they are being entertained at a buffet supper by Mr. and Mrs. William Coppock.

Among the affairs to be given in their honor this week is a bridge tea for 12 guests on Tuesday, when Mrs. W. L. Douglas will be the hostess.

Musical Tea. Mr. and Mrs. X. W. Kynnett have planned a coterie of musical friends to their home this afternoon for an informal program which will be followed by tea.

Madame. Mrs. John G. Wadsworth was hostess on Monday last at a theater party in Omaha complimentary to Helen Louise Robinson and Mary Elizabeth Trigg, who returned on Thursday to their homes in Fort Worth, Tex., after visiting relatives here. Six guests were present on this occasion.

Birthday Party. To celebrate the fourth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Mary Virginia, Mrs. George Wickham will entertain a few young guests at her home next Tuesday afternoon.

Farewell Parties. Complimentary to Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Vanorden, who leave on Monday to spend several months at Coronada, Fla., a number of delightful affairs have been given of late.

On Monday evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Horton, and Tuesday they were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Jensen.

A luncheon was given in their honor Wednesday by Mrs. P. C. DeVol and her daughter, Miss Mary DeVol, and that evening Mrs. Kate McGee planned a dinner for them at the Grand hotel.

Thursday noon they were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Loomis in Omaha at the University club, and that evening a dinner of 12 covers was given for them by Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Rohrer and Mrs. Caroline R. Theinhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Damon entertained the Vanorden's at luncheon on Friday, and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Emplie had them for dinner.

Saturday, Judge and Mrs. J. R. Reed honored Dr. and Mrs. Vanorden with a luncheon and Saturday night they were dinner guests of Andrew McMillen.

Council Bluffs Society

Wedding.

A luncheon was given in their honor Wednesday by Mrs. P. C. DeVol and her daughter, Miss Mary DeVol, and that evening Mrs. Kate McGee planned a dinner for them at the Grand hotel.

Thursday noon they were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Loomis in Omaha at the University club, and that evening a dinner of 12 covers was given for them by Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Rohrer and Mrs. Caroline R. Theinhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Damon entertained the Vanorden's at luncheon on Friday, and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Emplie had them for dinner.

Saturday, Judge and Mrs. J. R. Reed honored Dr. and Mrs. Vanorden with a luncheon and Saturday night they were dinner guests of Andrew McMillen.

Today they are being entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose are complimenting them with a supper at their home.

The Vanorden's leave on an afternoon train Monday and preceding their departure they will lunch with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown.

During the early part of the week Dr. and Mrs. Vanorden closed their home on South Seventh and for a few days were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gruver. They are now at the John G. Wadsworth home on Turley avenue.

Bridge-Luncheon Club. Mrs. Paul E. Wadsworth of Moline, Ill., and Mrs. Robert Vanorden guests of the Tuesday Bridge Luncheon club, when they were entertained last week by Mrs. Glenn Reed and Mrs. Dan Sheehan at the home of the latter.

Mrs. Wayne Bogard received the prize for high score.

February Fete. At a recent meeting of the Central Chapter of St. Paul Episcopal church, various committees were appointed in connection with the Mardi Gras Masque Ball which is to be given under the auspices of this organization on Tuesday evening, February 13, in the city auditorium.

These ladies on Shrove Tuesday last year, conducted a similar affair which was such a social and financial success that they have decided to make their Mardi Gras Ball an annual event.

Mrs. F. P. Wright has been chosen as general chairman and is arranging to have the fete this year much more elaborate in every way than their first venture.

Artistic and unusual decorations will be used and 15 boxes, each of which will accommodate eight people, are to be erected on the floor for the benefit of those wishing to have private parties.

Des Moines Guest a Hostess. Mrs. N. N. Waller of Des Moines, Ia., who is visiting here at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Don Waller, gave a dinner at the Brandeis restaurant Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Reed Flickinger, Mr. and Mrs. George Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. Waller and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cutler, all of whom formed a party two years ago at the Waller summer home on Rainy Lake in Canada.

For Mrs. Packard. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Quinn have planned a theater party at the Orpheum for tomorrow night, followed by supper at the Brandeis, complimentary to Mrs. Quinn's sister, Mrs. A. J. Packard of Ottumwa, Ia., who is a visitor here.

In her honor Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shugart will entertain at the Brandeis theater Tuesday night to see "Tip-Top," and Wednesday Mrs. Quinn is giving a luncheon for her.

To Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bloomer have invited 16 guests to a dinner-dance at the Athletic club in Omaha next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Corbin Arrives. Mrs. Walker Corbin of Worcester, Mass., arrived Saturday morning to visit for a month with her mother, Mrs. Ernest Eldred Hart.

In her honor several affairs are being planned, among them a luncheon in Omaha on Thursday, when Mrs. Eldred Hart will be the hostess.

Dinner Before the Dance. Preceding the party given by the Tuesday Dancing club last week, Mr.

Council Bluffs Society

Wedding.

A luncheon was given in their honor Wednesday by Mrs. P. C. DeVol and her daughter, Miss Mary DeVol, and that evening Mrs. Kate McGee planned a dinner for them at the Grand hotel.

Thursday noon they were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Loomis in Omaha at the University club, and that evening a dinner of 12 covers was given for them by Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Rohrer and Mrs. Caroline R. Theinhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Damon entertained the Vanorden's at luncheon on Friday, and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Emplie had them for dinner.

Saturday, Judge and Mrs. J. R. Reed honored Dr. and Mrs. Vanorden with a luncheon and Saturday night they were dinner guests of Andrew McMillen.

Today they are being entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose are complimenting them with a supper at their home.

The Vanorden's leave on an afternoon train Monday and preceding their departure they will lunch with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown.

During the early part of the week Dr. and Mrs. Vanorden closed their home on South Seventh and for a few days were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gruver. They are now at the John G. Wadsworth home on Turley avenue.

Bridge-Luncheon Club. Mrs. Paul E. Wadsworth of Moline, Ill., and Mrs. Robert Vanorden guests of the Tuesday Bridge Luncheon club, when they were entertained last week by Mrs. Glenn Reed and Mrs. Dan Sheehan at the home of the latter.

Mrs. Wayne Bogard received the prize for high score.

February Fete. At a recent meeting of the Central Chapter of St. Paul Episcopal church, various committees were appointed in connection with the Mardi Gras Masque Ball which is to be given under the auspices of this organization on Tuesday evening, February 13, in the city auditorium.

These ladies on Shrove Tuesday last year, conducted a similar affair which was such a social and financial success that they have decided to make their Mardi Gras Ball an annual event.

Mrs. F. P. Wright has been chosen as general chairman and is arranging to have the fete this year much more elaborate in every way than their first venture.

Artistic and unusual decorations will be used and 15 boxes, each of which will accommodate eight people, are to be erected on the floor for the benefit of those wishing to have private parties.

Des Moines Guest a Hostess. Mrs. N. N. Waller of Des Moines, Ia., who is visiting here at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Don Waller, gave a dinner at the Brandeis restaurant Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Reed Flickinger, Mr. and Mrs. George Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. Waller and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cutler, all of whom formed a party two years ago at the Waller summer home on Rainy Lake in Canada.

For Mrs. Packard. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Quinn have planned a theater party at the Orpheum for tomorrow night, followed by supper at the Brandeis, complimentary to Mrs. Quinn's sister, Mrs. A. J. Packard of Ottumwa, Ia., who is a visitor here.

In her honor Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shugart will entertain at the Brandeis theater Tuesday night to see "Tip-Top," and Wednesday Mrs. Quinn is giving a luncheon for her.

To Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bloomer have invited 16 guests to a dinner-dance at the Athletic club in Omaha next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Corbin Arrives. Mrs. Walker Corbin of Worcester, Mass., arrived Saturday morning to visit for a month with her mother, Mrs. Ernest Eldred Hart.

In her honor several affairs are being planned, among them a luncheon in Omaha on Thursday, when Mrs. Eldred Hart will be the hostess.

Dinner Before the Dance. Preceding the party given by the Tuesday Dancing club last week, Mr.

Council Bluffs Society

Wedding.

A luncheon was given in their honor Wednesday by Mrs. P. C. DeVol and her daughter, Miss Mary DeVol, and that evening Mrs. Kate McGee planned a dinner for them at the Grand hotel.

Thursday noon they were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Loomis in Omaha at the University club, and that evening a dinner of 12 covers was given for them by Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Rohrer and Mrs. Caroline R. Theinhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Damon entertained the Vanorden's at luncheon on Friday, and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Emplie had them for dinner.

Saturday, Judge and Mrs. J. R. Reed honored Dr. and Mrs. Vanorden with a luncheon and Saturday night they were dinner guests of Andrew McMillen.

Today they are being entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose are complimenting them with a supper at their home.

The Vanorden's leave on an afternoon train Monday and preceding their departure they will lunch with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown.

During the early part of the week Dr. and Mrs. Vanorden closed their home on South Seventh and for a few days were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gruver. They are now at the John G. Wadsworth home on Turley avenue.

Bridge-Luncheon Club. Mrs. Paul E. Wadsworth of Moline, Ill., and Mrs. Robert Vanorden guests of the Tuesday Bridge Luncheon club, when they were entertained last week by Mrs. Glenn Reed and Mrs. Dan Sheehan at the home of the latter.

Mrs. Wayne Bogard received the prize for high score.

February Fete. At a recent meeting of the Central Chapter of St. Paul Episcopal church, various committees were appointed in connection with the Mardi Gras Masque Ball which is to be given under the auspices of this organization on Tuesday evening, February 13, in the city auditorium.

These ladies on Shrove Tuesday last year, conducted a similar affair which was such a social and financial success that they have decided to make their Mardi Gras Ball an annual event.

Mrs. F. P. Wright has been chosen as general chairman and is arranging to have the fete this year much more elaborate in every way than their first venture.

Artistic and unusual decorations will be used and 15 boxes, each of which will accommodate eight people, are to be erected on the floor for the benefit of those wishing to have private parties.

Des Moines Guest a Hostess. Mrs. N. N. Waller of Des Moines, Ia., who is visiting here at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Don Waller, gave a dinner at the Brandeis restaurant Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Reed Flickinger, Mr. and Mrs. George Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. Waller and Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cutler, all of whom formed a party two years ago at the Waller summer home on Rainy Lake in Canada.

For Mrs. Packard. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Quinn have planned a theater party at the Orpheum for tomorrow night, followed by supper at the Brandeis, complimentary to Mrs. Quinn's sister, Mrs. A. J. Packard of Ottumwa, Ia., who is a visitor here.

In her honor Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shugart will entertain at the Brandeis theater Tuesday night to see "Tip-Top," and Wednesday Mrs. Quinn is giving a luncheon for her.

To Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bloomer have invited 16 guests to a dinner-dance at the Athletic club in Omaha next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Corbin Arrives. Mrs. Walker Corbin of Worcester, Mass., arrived Saturday morning to visit for a month with her mother, Mrs. Ernest Eldred Hart.

In her honor several affairs are being planned, among them a luncheon in Omaha on Thursday, when Mrs. Eldred Hart will be the hostess.

Dinner Before the Dance. Preceding the party given by the Tuesday Dancing club last week, Mr.

Very Low Prices on Toilet or Face Powders. Our stock is bewilderingly large, gathered literally from the ends of the earth, including these good United States. All of them are made in three shades, and now some in as many as eight fanciful tints.

Why "Old-age Diseases" are on the Increase. "Old-age diseases" are not confined to the old. They have increased one hundred per cent among the young in the last thirty years, due to foods too rich for complete assimilation. The remedy is... eat only simple, wholesome foods. Cut down on heavy, rich foods that overfeed and under-nourish. Double your consumption of Bread—the food that gives you the maximum of nourishment without waste. Insist upon the loaf with the Big Food Value, made nutritious with only the finest and purest of ingredients. HARD ROLL BREAD. PETERSEN & PEGAU BAKING CO.