Omaha Women Raise Funds for Colleges in Orient

Mrs. P. M. Conklin will preside at a meeting of the local committee for Women's Christian Colleges in the Orient Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A., when reports will be given on the progress of the fund which is being raised for the maintenance of women's colleges in the Orient.

The path of the condition of the women in India is revealed in the motto above the door of the first Woman's club in India, "The world was made for women, too."

The large majority of the women in India are an illiterate, degraded womanhood caused by the spirit and letter of the traditional faith imposed by Hinduism.

For over 20 centuries certain beliefs have been ingrained; that it is sinful not to permit a daughter to marry before maturity; hence child marriage; that marriage is for eternity; that a widow who remarries, wrongs her husband; that the ancestors will fall from heaven and the whole family be destroyed unless the proper ceremonies are regularly performed; and that woman is essentially inferior to man.

India's educational handicap is very marked. Out of 28,000,000 children of school age, only about 8,000,000 are all told, are receiving any kind of an education, and that is the reason that 94 per cent of India can neither read nor write.

Child marriage is one custom that is responsible for this and constitutes one of the saddest things in Indian life and especially do our hearts bleed for the little child widows who today number 500,000; no wonder the average life in India is 24.7 years as compared to 44 years in the United States.

Superstition reigns supreme and India's great need is for medical and sanitary assistance.

One reason for training the native Chinese, Japanese and Indian girls in colleges on their home grounds is because they are received into the best high caste homes when they graduate; and they do not become dissatisfied as many who have been educated in other countries have done.

Mrs. Jones, who has served two terms as president of the auxiliary, will not be a candidate for re-election. She has served six years with the auxiliary, as supply secretary, general secretary and president.

Much credit is due Mrs. Jones for her splendid work in connection with the Indian Mission school at Winnebago, Neb., which is operated under the direction of the Episcopal church of the Nebraska diocese. During her presidency the auxiliary has raised approximately $2,600 for the school. In the past year the missionary work has been doubled, due to her efforts.
