

Boyden Presents U. S. Reparations Plan to Allies

Proposal Approved by Hughes to Come Up for Discussion in Near Future—Provides Moratorium.

Paris, Jan. 15.—(By A. P.)—Roland W. Boyden, United States representative with the reparations commission, informed The Associated Press this afternoon that a plan for the settlement of the reparations problem which had been approved by Secretary of State Hughes and drawn up last fall was submitted by him (Boyden) to the reparations commission after its return from Berlin early in November.

The plan probably will come up for discussion next Friday or the beginning of next week at the latest, it was stated. It covers four or five typewritten pages, but does not enter into the technical details of the settlement as did the French and British plans. The question of war debts is not discussed.

Provides for Moratorium.

Mr. Boyden said the American suggestion for a committee of experts to fix the amount of the indemnity would fit in with his plan, which he will not make public until after its first discussion in the commission. In a general way, however, it may be said the plan provides for a moratorium of two or three years and certain measures, including a small loan, for the stabilization of the mark.

The moratorium would suspend deliveries in kind as well as cash payments, in order to give Germany time to establish credit abroad.

It was stated tonight that in view of the independent action of the French in the Ruhr there was only a slight possibility of the Boyden plan being accepted.

Plan Not Approved.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(By A. P.)—In a formal statement issued late today by the State department, it was officially announced that Mr. Boyden has no instructions to present any plan to the reparations commission and that neither Secretary Hughes nor anyone in the department had approved any plan for submission to the reparations commission.

The statement issued by the department said:

"The department does not know to what this dispatch refers. Neither the secretary nor any one in behalf of the department has approved any plan for submission to the reparations commission or has authorized any such submission. The department is not attempting directly or indirectly to fix German reparations or to prepare plans for the reparations commission.

"Mr. Boyden has no instructions to present any plan at the reparations commission."

Great Britain and France to Intervene for Hungary

Paris, Jan. 15.—The French and British governments will intervene to prevent Rumanian aggression towards Hungary. Following the receipt of advices from Budapest that certain elements of two new classes in Rumania had been called to the colors and the concentration of Rumanian forces near Grosswarden, the Hungarian charge d'affaires in Paris, Paul De Hevesy, was called to Quai d'Orsay and the Hungarian minister in London will call at Downing street today.

Despite the strictest secrecy and censorship, the Hungarians have learned that 200,000 Rumanian troops can be placed in the field immediately and the Budapest government is holding four parleys with the other members of the little entente to seize territorial guarantees from Hungary for the payment of reparations, the amount of which is expected to be fixed soon.

Since the beginning of the fascist movement in Hungary, however, the Italians are showing a strong sympathy for the Magyars.

First Man to Be Wounded in Herrin Mine Riots Dies

Chicago, Jan. 15.—(By A. P.)—Sidney Morrison, 23, first man wounded in the mine war at Herrin, Ill., last June, died yesterday in a local hospital, bringing the death toll in the mine trouble to 24.

Morrison married his nurse, Miss Rosella Lawson of Joliet, Ill., last Monday after physicians had told him he might not live 24 hours.

His death followed three unsuccessful operations. He had been shot in the spine and was paralyzed.

Morrison was the sales manager of a Chicago real estate firm when he quit last June to go in search of adventure. He joined a local detective agency and was sent to Herrin as captain of the mine guards. Two days later he was shot.
