

Eastman Succeeds Brown on Ak Board

Osgood T. Eastman was elected to succeed Randall K. Brown as a member of Ak-Sar-Ben board of governors at a meeting of the board in the Omaha club next Monday night. Mr. Brown has been one of the most active members of the board since 1913. He was King Ak-Sar-Ben XXV and for the last two years has been chairman of the ritual committee, which promotes and manages the Den shows. Mr. Eastman, the new member, is vice president of the Merchants' National bank. He has been active in Ak-Sar-Ben affairs and last year was grand mufti at the Den shows on several occasions. The following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: E. Buckingham, president; Gould Dietz, vice president; Charles L. Saunders, treasurer; Charles R. Gardner, secretary.

Paper Freight Rates Adjustment Sought

P. J. McGrath, examiner of the Interstate Commerce commission, began in the federal building here hearing on the complaint brought by the Western Newspaper union, charging that freight rates on all kinds of paper are unreasonable from various points in Maine, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and other states to Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Oklahoma, Texas and other states. Special rates are quoted of the period between June, 1920, and July, 1922.

H. D. Bergen, assistant manager of the traffic bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, conducted the questioning for the complainant. The Omaha Bee, Carpenter Paper company, the World-Herald and others have joined with the Western Newspaper union in the action. They ask an adjustment of rates and a refund of the excess.

Omaha Doctor to Be Tried for Girl's Death Monday
Trial of Dr. John T. Mathews, charged with "murder by producing abortion," was set for next Monday by District Judge Leslie. Three attorneys for Dr. Mathews sought yesterday to obtain a continuance for the trial. Their request was denied by Judge Leslie. "Attorneys for Dr. Mathews have had three weeks to complete their case," said County Attorney Henry Beal. "All they are doing is jockeying around." Dr. Mathews was held responsible by a coroner's jury for the death of Loretta McDermott, pretty 24-year-old school teacher of Bassett, Neb.
