Regents for Creighton

After nearly half a century Creighton university is to have its first board of regents.
 Yesterday President McCormick announced that a board of regents composed of W. J. Coad, Walter W. Head, Fred Hamilton, Charles Kountze and Frank Burkle, all Omaha men, has been appointed. All five have accepted the appointment. The board will begin to function immediately.
 "For some time we have felt the necessity of a board composed of laymen, not churchmen, who will be of the same importance as the board of trustees in the affairs of the uni-

Wuchter Re-Elected Tire Firm President
 W. W. Wuchter was re-elected president of the Nebraska Tire & Rubber company at the annual meeting Friday. S. C. Wolfe was elected vice president, and F. M. Holloway, secretary. The board of directors, Alva Smith, S. C. Wolfe, V. E. Holm, L. E. Palmquist, J. E. Cornish, W. W. Wuchter, and F. M. Holloway also was re-elected.
 The report of the president and treasurer showed an increase over the net sales of a year ago of 67 per cent, but due to the reduction in prices of tires and tubes, the increase really amounts to an increase of 135 per cent in units manufactured. The plant is still running night and day.
