

Fairbanks Says Hays Is Official "Movie Fixer"

"Doug" Denies Former Post-master General Drawing $150,000 Year to "Uplift" Film Industry.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 26.—(Special)—Hays, titular head of the motion picture industry, is "the official fixer of the films" and draws his yearly salary of $150,000 in that capacity, and is not the "uplifter of the movies," Doug Fairbanks, motion picture star, declared, the Los Angeles Times states today.

Mr. Fairbanks made the declaration, the Times said, in an interview in which he commented upon his hope of banding together the stars of film under a "gentleman's agreement" which would "give photoplay patrons art" instead of what the press and the industry, as he termed them, "think is art."

He made public several weeks ago his plans for grouping the leading actors and actresses of the screen in a combination designed to assure them a free hand in making and distributing their products.

The group includes himself, his wife, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, Pola Negri, to whom Chaplin is said to be engaged, To mistry, and Harold Lloyd. It plans to deal with no huge cinema corporation in the production or distribution of its films, but to transact its affairs more directly with the exhibitors throughout the country.

A direct and flat-footed defiance of Mr. Hays and the motion picture producers and distributors was said by the Times to be Mr. Fairbanks' plan.

It was when asked about this that he declared Mr. Hays was not the "moral uplifter of the movies," as he was termed sometime ago.

"Hired Intermediary."

"Mr. Hays has nothing whatever to do with the art or morals of the motion picture industry," asserted Mr. Fairbanks. "He is simply the hired intermediary, or 'fixer.' He has done wonderful work in straightening out the censorship tangle, but that, and only that, is his function.

"When Mr. Hays was here last month, I told him the public ought to be informed that 'moral uplift' was not his role.

"I admire his ability and admire him as a man, but I believe his true status should be made known."

He was quoted as condemning the film fiction he described as "parasites" as being men, without vision, thoughtful, not of the future of motion pictures, but only of the money to be made from them.

Insurance Scheme Urged for Columbus Elks Home

Columbus, Neb., Jan. 26.—(Special)—A plan suggested by the building committee for financing the erection of the new Elks home was submitted to Columbus lodge No. 1195, B. P. O. E. It is proposed that the insurance plan by which the Casper, Wyo., lodge and a number of others throughout the country have successfully financed their building projects be adopted here. The plan is that each member buy noninterest bearing bonds, with the assurance that the full face value thereof will be paid to the heirs in the form of insurance upon the death of the member.

Columbus Fire Chief Re-elected for 21st Term

Columbus, Neb., Jan. 26.—(Special)—Bert J. Galley, chief of the Columbus fire department or Ironscoffive years, was re-elected at the annual meeting of the department. He is starting upon his twenty-first year in the capacity being among the oldest fire chiefs in point of service in the state.

$200,000 High School Is Formally Opened at McCook

McCook, Neb., Jan. 26.—(Special)—McCook formally opened its new junior high school building, which cost $200,000 and is said to be the last word in school building construction in every detail and to be without a peer in the state in all modern appointments and equipment.

Feature Transactions of Livestock Exchange

Frank Tichota came in from Dodge yesterday with a load of choice Chester White hogs that averaged 292 pounds and sold for $7.75 a hundred.

"Corn is selling at 55 cents a bushel around Dodge," said Mr. Tichota, "and the elevators are all full, yet there seems to be a large number of cattle and hogs on feed. I reaped 2,000 bushels of corn from 69 acres. Hogs are doing well and there has been no reports of disease among them in my section."

A shipment of lambs averaging 77 pounds and selling for the top price of the day of $14.45 a hundred, was brought to market by L. P. Wheeler of Gilmer.

Mr. Wheeler had a consignment of lambs on the local market Wednesday of last week that averaged 83 pounds and he received the top prices for that day, $14.50 a hundred.

25 Women Named in First List of '1,000 Club' Members

The first list of the "1,000 club," organized to instill happiness in the hearts of homeless children, is printed in The Omaha Bee today.

It is just the start toward the goal which will bring $10,000 in money and pledges toward building a $40,000 receiving home, where the homeless kiddies will find a place of refuge and be prepared to be adopted by good parents.

The Omaha Women's club has organized 25 teams of five women each to campaign for members of the "1,000 club." Before the campaign ends, the women said, they will have the great humanitarian club announce that its membership is closed.

The "1,000 club" is being organized by women interested in the campaign. The membership fee of $10, which makes the donor a life-member without any further dues, may be paid at one time or in installments. The names of all donors will be inscribed on a tablet to be placed in the home and each member will be sent a membership card.

Men still insist on joining the club. Whether they will remain as members will be decided by the women.

Here is a list of the $10 members up to date:

Mrs. E. A. Benson, 4631 Dodge street; Mrs. Newton E. Buckley, North 11th; Mrs. B. R. Claypool, Orleans, Neb.; Mrs. F. Arthur Tenstrom, 4805 Fontenelle boulevard; Marion Haller Thomas, 607 South Thirty-eighth avenue; Frank Williams, 612 North Twenty-second street; Mrs. N. E. Towle, 2602 Pacific street; Cash, Exeter, Neb.; M. I. Sherman, 159 West Huron street, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. E. J. Ayers, 3227 North Twentieth street; Gertrude Callicott, Mrs. J. E. Dally, O. E. Johnson, Henry G. Pike, Max Rosenthal, James A. Howard, D. E. McCutley, F. L. Campbell, Mrs. Mary M. Reed, Louis Lightner, Harriet Gray, M. A. Kahn, Mrs. W. C. Shannon, Dr. A. L. Lindquist.

Mrs. C. T. Neale wants to be a member of the "1,000 Club" too. She sent in her check for $50.

The purpose of the "1,000 Club" is to help raise money to build the new receiving home. If you desire to join, send your check for $10 with the coupon below, or send pledge with a notation that it is a pledge to be paid within five months to the "1,000 Club" editor, Omaha Bee.

Beatrice, Neb., Jan. 26.—(Special)—A motion for a new trial in the Francis South murder case, was overruled by Judge Coffey. South was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Charles Wolf.

Falls City Man Seriously Injured in Explosion

Falls City, Neb., Jan. 26.—(Special)—After an acetylene torch explosion in his shop had fractured his skull and exposed his brain, Tom Gambrel, known as "Tom the Welder" here, walked unaided to the street and asked a passerby to call a doctor before he collapsed. He has a slight chance for recovery, according to Dr. O. F. Lang, who was called.
