

Earl B. Gaddis' Funeral Marked by Simplicity

Minister Laments Death of Omaha Newspaper Man—Masons Have Charge of Burial.

Simple, but impressive funeral services for Earl B. Gaddis were held yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Edwin Hart Jenks officiating.

In alluding to Mr. Gaddis' death Rev. Mr. Jenks said: "There seems to be a fitness in death when it comes at the end of a long and useful life, to which scripture refers as the 'harvest,' but when death takes one in the crowning glory of the day, and destroys the promise of achievement and honor yet to come, then it seems tragic to us whose eyes are blinded from God's all-wise ways. His day had a glorious rising, growing more and more beautiful as it comes before the meridian."

Rev. Mr. Jenks spoke of the widespread sorrow caused by the death of Mr. Gaddis of his popularity among his friends and associates, both socially and politically.

Senator Hitchcock was unable to attend Mr. Gaddis' funeral, owing to sickness in his immediate family. Many prominent democratic leaders attended.

"Till We Meet in the Sweet Bye and Bye," was softly played, while many friends passed the beautiful metallic casket.

Active pallbearers chosen from Capital Lodge No. 3 of Masons, were: George E. Degeon, Vaughn Gaddis, T. R. Porter, Walter Riner, W. J.

Omahans Help Kin Abroad by Buying Marks

German Currency Slumps to 45,000 Marks for Dollar—No Large Quantities Bought Here.

There was no rush to buy 45,000 marks for a dollar yesterday, according to local banks, although anyone could have done so.

The slump caught several thousand residents of Omaha and vicinity with marks in their possession, but few held them in any large quantities. Bankers and brokers found it difficult to estimate the possible number

Brig. Gen. Dorey to Take Infantry Brigade Command

Brig. Gen. Halstead Dorey is expected at Fort Omaha within the next few days to take command of the 14th Infantry brigade which was in command of Maj. Gen. Duncan until the latter was placed in charge of the Seventh corps area of the army with headquarters here.

General Dorey was executive officer to the chief of infantry until his recent promotion to a brigadier generalship.

of holders. Officials at the City National said it had been a year since they sold marks in any quantity as an investment. Such demand as there has been come mainly from German-Americans who have bought in order to send relief to relatives in Germany, they said, and the testimony was corroborated by other institutions.

The Peters National reported a fairly steady demand, but mostly for speculative purposes. Most investments were in small amounts when people took flyers because marks were cheap.

Representatives of the Interstate Printing company, which does a large business in foreign exchange, stated that in their dealings they found no buying for speculation, although they get from eight to 40 calls a day for marks. Most of that money is sent to Germany by drafts, they say.

It is believed that 1920 saw the peak of speculation in marks in Omaha. At that time they were selling

Sisters Held on Bunco Charge

Man, 73, Causes Arrest of Notorious Poillon Sisters in New York.

New York, Jan. 31.—Charlotte Poillon and her sister, Mrs. Katherine P. Smith, known to the police for a decade or more as the Poillon sisters, were routed from their beds in a fashionable upper West Side apartment early today and arrested on a charge of grand larceny preferred by Charles H. Dussenburg, 73, who says he was engaged to marry Katherine.

According to the complaint, Dussenburg sought the hand of Katherine, who is 51 years old, and before she accepted Charlotte told him she wanted proof of his ability to support her sister. Dussenburg thereupon produced stock certificates worth $4,500 and bonds worth about $50,000, and the sisters said they wanted to show them to her parents who lived up state. Dussenburg consented and that was the last he saw of the certificates, he said.

After waiting a reasonable time he told the district attorney's office about it. An indictment returned and a bench warrant was issued.

The sisters came to New York 24 years ago from their native city of Troy and since then they have figured frequently in the news.

Katherine got the first notoriety by knocking out a man who had spoken to her without an introduction as she was walking in Central Park.

In 1915 they came into public notice again when it was found that the alleged German spy, Raymond Ralph Swoboda, had lived in their apartment in Riverside Drive.

Satisfying the Customer

"Satisfy the customer"—the dominant rule at the Brandeis Store—does not relate merely to small transactions or merely to a single transaction. In truth, the phrase spells "Service" in its best sense. With respect to our Furniture Department, as well as to every other department, we'll "satisfy the customer" by aiding in the selection of the furniture in keeping with his income and his tastes. We'll "satisfy the customer" in selling him furniture which is turned out by the masters of the trade. We'll "satisfy the customer" in arranging easy monthly payments so that the payments for his furniture will be a delightful privilege rather than a burdensome task—a privilege as pleasant and agreeable in its unfolding as the selection and purchase of the furniture and in its arrangement in the home; and there is no task more pleasant than the one of finding in our homes the proper setting for good and attractive furniture.

We extend to everyone a cordial invitation to attend our February Furniture and Home Furnishings Sale now going on. In this sale the prices are unusually low, because every resource at our command has been used in planning to that end.
