

The Misses Matilda and Gratia Houghton, daughter and niece of American Ambassador and Mrs. Alanson B. Houghton, who were recently introduced into diplomatic society in Berlin
International.

The new Bishop of Haiti, Venerable Harry R. Carson, and the dignitaries of the Protestant Episcopal Church who assisted in his consecration at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. Left to right, front row: Rev. Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, Bishop of Missouri; Bishop Carson; Right Rev. William T. Manning, D. D., Bishop of New York. Back row: Right Rev. Edwin Steven Limes, D. D., Bishop of Newark, N. J.; Right Rev. Thomas Frank Gailor, Bishop of Tennessee; Right Rev. Albion Williamson Knight, formerly Bishop of Cuba, in charge of the church in Haiti.
Underwood & Underwood.

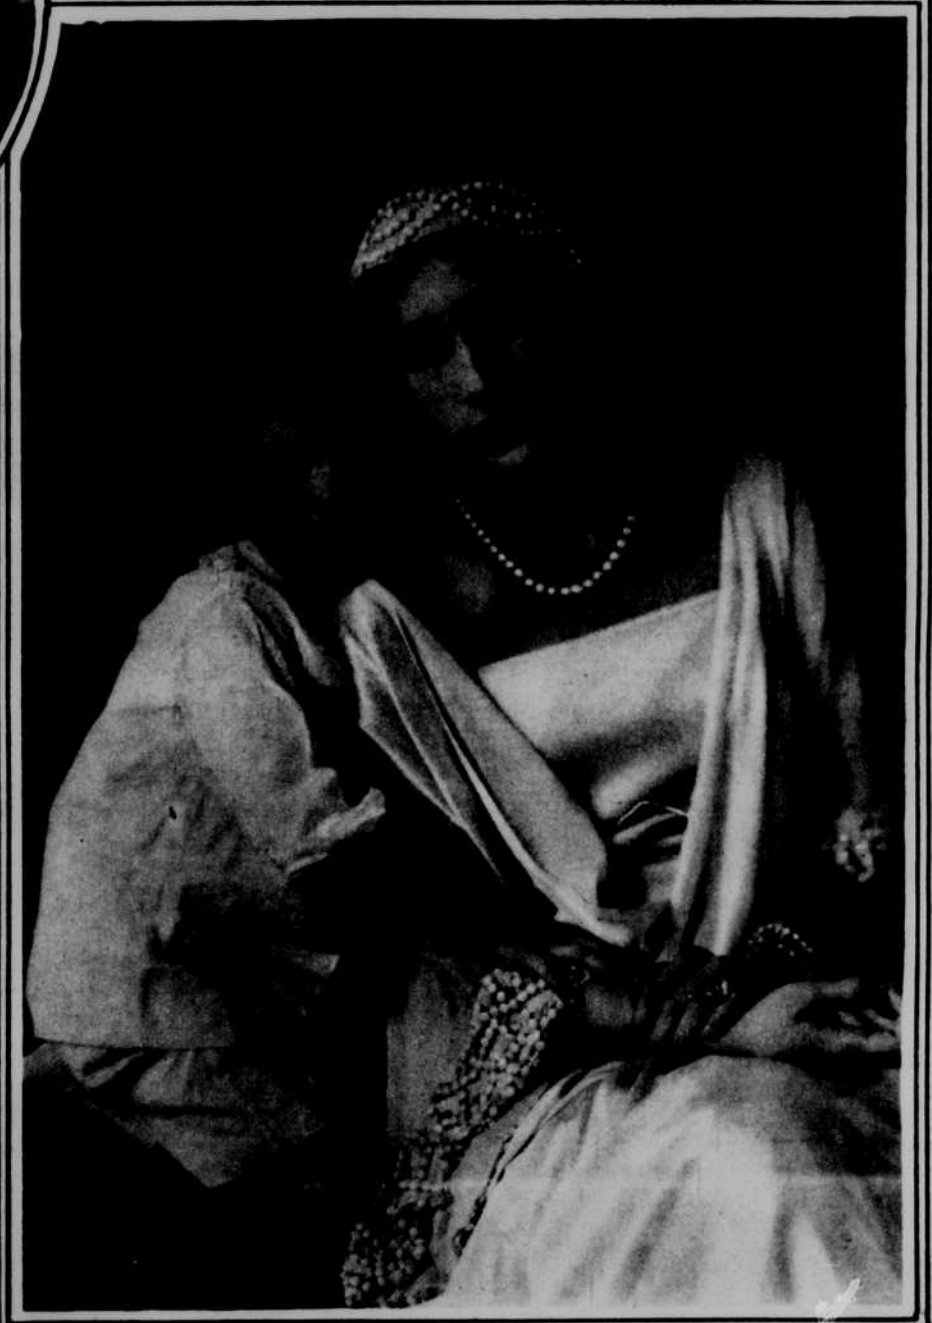

Extremely friendly is this camel in the London Zoo, and he is always grateful for a tidbit from a visitor.
Wide World.

Society girl a skilled horse-woman—Miss Janet F. Mackay of Brooklyn and some of her ribbons and trophies captured in recent shows.
Underwood & Underwood.

Wintering on the Riviera—E. Phillips Oppenheim, famous author, with his wife after a round of golf near their villa at Cagnes.
Wide World.

A portrait study of Mrs. Herbert C. Pell, Jr., and her son, Claiborne Pell. The child is a direct descendant of the first Peter Lorillard.
Campbell Studios.

A well known English actor and his family—a new photo of Sir Gerald du Maurier, with Lady du Maurier and their three daughters.
Photograms.

Defender of Ireland's policy to Valerites—William T. Cosgrave, President of the Irish Free State, at his desk in Dublin.
Pacific and Atlantic.

Commander in Chief of the Irish Free State army and Minister of Defense—Gen. Richard Mulcahy, photographed at his headquarters.
Pacific and Atlantic.

Gov. Alfred E. Smith, a guest at the opening of the new administration building of the Henry Street Settlement, Visiting Nurses' Service, Park avenue and Fortieth street, a memorial to the late Jacob H. Schiff. In the group are, left to right: Mortimer Schiff, Miss Lillian D. Wald, Gov. Smith, Paul D. Cravath, Felix M. Warburg and Miss Anna Goodrich, New York
Underwood & Underwood.