Wife Claims Her Husband Is Mate of Sister-in-Law

Freemont, Neb., Feb. 5.—(Special)—Charging that her husband, Phillip Wilkins, 36, Chicago & Northwestern yardmaster at Freemont, is in love with her sister-in-law and that they have lived together in Omaha and other places for days at a time, Mrs. Clara Wilkins today filed suit for divorce, asking custody of the two children and alimony. In the meantime, Mrs. Wilkins demands an injunction restraining her husband from coming to the family home.

The sister-in-law named in the petition is Nina Larson, wife of Dewey Larson, brother of Mrs. Wilkins. The wife asserts that her husband began his friendship with Mrs. Larson more than a year ago. She objected to his open display of affection for Mrs. Larson, the petition states, but her persuasions were without result. Wilkins insisted that he loved Mrs. Larson and would never give her up, according to the plaintiff.

Mrs. Wilkins alleges that her husband and Mrs. Larson met in Omaha on January 31, where they resided together at the Norden apartments at Park avenue and Pacific street until February 2.

The Wilkins were married in Freemont in October, 1912. They are well known in this city. Mrs. Wilkins alleges that he earns $325 per month with the railroad, owns a car and has stock in the Kearney hotel, Kearney. She asks sufficient alimony to maintain herself and children, Evelyn, 6, and Louis, 7.

Alien Who Thought Himself Citizen Is Naturalized

Strange is the case of Neils Martinson, 2151 Mason street, who was admitted to American citizenship in naturalization court yesterday.

"I have voted for more than 20 years and have been a member of the school board and a justice of the peace in Michigan, and once was prominent in the race for nomination for governor," he said. "I thought I was a citizen."

"But when I moved to Omaha, my vote was challenged and I had to send for the records of my father's naturalization. I discovered that he was not naturalized until after I was part 21. This made me an alien. That is why I am going through the process at this time."
