

Superintendents to Discuss Bills Affecting Schools

Meeting of County Educators Opens Today at Lincoln for Three-Day Session.

Lincoln, Feb. 5.—(Special.)—Educational problems, many of them subject of legislative bills at the present time, will be discussed in detail here Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the annual meeting of the county superintendents.

Uniform text books in all Nebraska schools are called for in a bill introduced in the senate by Senator Perry Reed and it will be discussed Wednesday morning by Eva B. Shuman of Jefferson county and Maude Disbrow of Furnas county.

There are others who believe that uniformity of text books is absolutely wrong and that they should be even less uniform than at present because of the diversity of education needed by the town boy with agrarian desires and the city boy with business desires. "Separate Courses for Town and Country Schools" are to be discussed Wednesday morning by Wilfred H. Voss of Dakota county and Anna Donohoe of Holt county.

On Tuesday afternoon the same problem from the high school standpoint will be the subject of a general discussion led by I. N. Clark, rural school inspector.

Tuition Comes Up. Another problem facing the legislature is the question of free high school tuition. This question will be discussed Wednesday afternoon by Bertha E. Foster of Gage county and J. L. Jenkins of Garfield county. The same afternoon John M. Matzen, superintendent of public instruction, will lead a conference discussion on "School Laws."

Program in Full.

Other numbers on the program follow:

Tuesday: 1:30, Conference and school of instruction for new county superintendents; 3:30, annual report, John Speedie, deputy state superintendent.

Wednesday: 9:30, "Immediate Need of a New Course of Study," Emma Schwab of Cedar county, and Charles Speedie of Otoe county; 9:50, "Reducing Number of Daily Recitations," Chas. C. Baile of Nance county, and Emma H. Miller of Cuming county; 10:30, "Vitalizing the Course," Eva B. Shuman of Jefferson county and Maude Disbrow of Furnas county; 12, Luncheon, Chamber of Commerce with speech by Newton W. Gaines, extension specialist, University of Nebraska; 1:30, "Compulsory Attendance," W. C. Bloom of Dawson county; 2:30, "Maud Berry of Lancaster county; 2:50, "The Week Districts," Mrs. Pearle E. Summers, Sheridan county, and Mrs. Blanche Riddle, Garden county; 3:30, "Uniform System of School Accounting," W. E. Sowell of Wayne county; 5:30, "Eighth Grade Examinations," Fannie R. Hay, Douglas county; 8, Illustrated lecture by Douglas county; 8, illustrated lecture by Douglas county; 8, illustrated lecture by Douglas county; 8, illustrated lecture by Douglas county.

Tuesday: 9:30, "The Ideal Institute," Marjorie Parmenter of Pierce county and George D. Eady of Stanton county; 9:50, "A Pre-Opening Day for Beginners," Minnie C. Nolin of Kearney county and Mrs. E. E. Eady of Stanton county; 10:10, "The Circuit Plan for Securing Institute Instruction," Opal Russell of Box Butte county, and J. Vogtland of Colfax county; 10:30, "Voluntary or Compulsory Attendance of All Teachers," Fred S. Larson of Platte county, and Mrs. Marjorie Parmenter of Pierce county; 10:50, "Minimum Qualifications for Rural Teachers," Wm. Richardson of Dixon county and Mrs. Moe S. O'Connor of Cass county; 11:10, "Training Summer Term as a Substitute for High School Teacher Training," Mrs. Barbara A. O'Malley of Greeley county, and Bertha Bishop of Sarp county; "Normal Training as a Fifth Year in the High School," J. E. Marsh of Dodge county and Alpha C. Peterson of Cass county; "A Graded Salary Schedule," Mrs. Ella M. Kern of Hall county and H. E. Barbee of Thayer county.

Bride Has Mate Jailed; Her Love Dream Shattered

Wife of Five Weeks Says Husband, Whose Pardon She Once Secured, Married Her for Spite.

Although she alleges that a whole coterie of "Shebas" have broken up their home, Mrs. Marie McLean, 23-year-old bride of William R. McLean, denies her husband is a "sheik."

Mrs. McLean tearfully phoned police to "come and get him" Sunday after she says he broke faith with her when she gave him 30 days to make good, by stealing an electric pair currier and giving it to a Council Bluffs girl.

Three weeks ago she obtained a pardon for her husband from Mayor Dahlman after he had been sent to jail in connection with a check transaction.

The McLeans have been married five weeks. Contributing to Mrs. McLean's decision to give her husband up to the police and to have done with him was a bundle of letters from another woman which she says she found in his coat pocket.

Letters Last Straw. He admitted, she says, that he did not love her, but married her to spite another girl, and the letters were the last straw.

"I'm wiping the slate clean," she said at police station where she appeared yesterday morning to testify against her husband. "I'm through."

"I didn't tell my father when I was married; but my family has forgiven me and I'm going back."

Mrs. McLean has been working as a supervisor in the telephone exchange.

"It's just a case of a very fine girl marrying the wrong man," was the comment of Chief of Detectives Van Deusen.

"All the girls I have talked to about McLean say he is a wonderful dancer. He admits now he wants to go back to his folks in Montana."

Will Seek Divorce. McLean probably will be charged with petty larceny, Chief of Detectives Van Deusen declared. He will be given a hearing today.

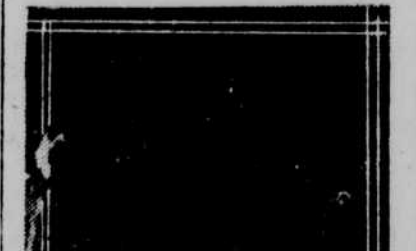

Mrs. McLean said yesterday morning she will sue for divorce, probably naming another woman as co-respondent.

The father of the girl, who is alleged to have written the letters Mrs. McLean found in her husband's pocket, was dumbfounded when they were shown him yesterday morning.

He said McLean used to call at the house, but that he had forbidden his daughter to see him, and she told him she had broken off their relationship.

Fall of Western Civilization Is Seen by Kunz

Theosophical Speaker Bemoans Stifling of Evolution Theories in Public Schools.

"Western civilization is tottering on the brink of disaster. It is high time the churches give real freedom to spiritual thought; churches are over-organized. . . It is a shame the teaching of sciences' greatest discovery, evolution, is stifled in public schools; the Bible does not contradict evolution."

These startling thoughts were advanced by Fritz Kunz, lecturer of the American Theosophical society, in an interview yesterday.

"It may sound absurd to say western civilization is tottering," said Mr. Kunz, "but it is a fact that more and more persons are coming to the conclusion that Christianity is failing."

No More Jazz. "Science shows that there are dead men hanging around in the invisible world; that on death a man continues to live as the same man he was before death, except that he doesn't retain his coarse, earthly body. There will be no jazz, no more movies, no worry over getting the best grade of tobacco or bootleg whiskey or the latest fashion of clothes in the invisible world. Hence, it is up to us to clean up the shop, so to speak; to get a decent set of emotions."

"The difference between eastern and western civilization may be shown in an analogy: When Americans go to church on Easter they wear the finest clothes they can procure; when Buddhist women go to church they all wear plain white clothes. I would advise Americans to dress up if they're going to a fashion show, but not to worry about their clothes when they go to church."

Predicts Grant Will Win. Mr. Kunz predicts that Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, New York minister who "kicked over the traces to fight for freedom of thought," will win out in his fight.

Mr. Kunz, who was invited to debate with William Jennings Bryan the theory of evolution, declared that "much as he regretted it," he would be unable, due to speaking schedules, to debate.

Mr. Kunz, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, makes his home at Addyar, Madras, India, where Dr. Annia Besant, president of the Theosophical society with which he is connected, makes her headquarters. He will speak tonight and tomorrow night at the Paxton hotel convention hall.

For a Long Life, Eat Only When Hungry, Advises Woman, 101

Quincy, Cal., Feb. 5.—Mrs. John Hargrave, who was 101 years old yesterday, believes the secret of longevity is never to eat unless one feels hungry and to live a simple life. In the spring of 1852 she, accompanied by her husband, who has since died, migrated to California from New York.

Events of 90 years ago are not history to Mrs. Hargrave, but merely incidents that happened during her girlhood. Her memory is remarkably accurate. All her life, she said, she has been very active.

Stewart Jury Completed. Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 5.—A jury to try W. E. Stewart, charged with use of the mails to defraud in sale of Texas lands, was completed in federal court here late today.

HE DARKENED HIS GRAY HAIR

Tells How He Did It.

Mr. J. A. McCrea, a well-known resident of California, who was called Daddy and Grandpa on account of his white hair, and who darkened it with a home-made mixture, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

Delicious Cranberry Jelly

You can make 10 tumblers of jelly with 2 1/2 pounds of sugar and 8 pounds of Cranberries!

Try this recipe:

Cook until soft the desired quantity of cranberries with 1 1/2 pints of water for each two quarts of berries. Strain the juice through a jelly bag. Measure the juice and heat it to the boiling point. Add one cup of sugar for every two cups of juice; stir until the sugar is dissolved; boil briskly for five minutes; skim, and pour into glass tumblers, porcelain or crockery molds.

Cranberries are plentiful and low in price.

Feature Transactions of Livestock Exchange

Charles Barber came from Scottsbluff yesterday with 35 head of steers fattened on beet tops, that averaged 808 pounds and sold as feeders for $8.25 a hundred, top price for the day.

According to Barber, the cattle he brought in were bought on the local market last fall when they averaged 710 pounds and cost $7.10 a hundred.

"There are as many cattle on feed in the Scottsbluff country now as last year," said Mr. Barber, "while the number of lambs on feed is larger than a year ago. There is scarcity of beef pulp, but feeders are making up the shortage by feeding corn, so they won't have to ship to market any earlier than last year."

Among those attending the horse sale at the stockyards yesterday, was Joseph Roussele of Seward, who expressed the opinion that there was a prospect of a shortage of good young horses in this country.

"Sooner or later the farmer will have to go back to the use of the horse for farm work," said Mr. Roussele "although they are now using the truck and tractor to a great extent.

"If the money market was not demoralized in Europe there would be a good many horses sent across the ocean. A German buyer wants 5,000 head of horses, but has not the money."

American Executed at Tijuana for Killing Cop

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 5.—Chester Carleton, an American, who shot and killed George Monteverde, member of the Mexican police force at Tijuana, was hanged in the Tijuana jail last night, according to reports reaching the international line.

Residents of Tijuana declared that his body would be burned. It is not known here whether he had a trial.

Carleton, according to witnesses, shot and killed Monteverde at the bridge leading from the race track to the old town of Tijuana and also wounded Torrio Monteverde, brother of George, and two other men.

It was reported that the shooting was due to a dispute over an accident to Carleton's automobile which he is said to have loaned to George Monteverde last Wednesday.

The two crossed the line Wednesday night to "shoot it out," it was said, and were stopped by a deputy sheriff, who took their revolvers from them.

Bomb Hurling at Bulgarian Premier But Injures No One

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 5.—(By A. P.)—A bomb was thrown in the direction of Premier Stamboulski while he was seated in a box at the National theater last night with three of his ministers. No one was injured by the explosion.

The bomb thrower, whose identity said to be known to the authorities, escaped.

THE ENCLOSED DRIVE LIMOUSINE

We believe that in this beautiful and widely sought car the final realization of an all-year-round and all-purpose motor car has been reached.

It is, in every practical sense, a triple-utility car. As illustrated, it is the strictly formal, chauffeur-driven limousine. Yet by merely lowering a full width, disappearing plate glass partition behind the forward seat, it becomes a commodious, companionable, seven-passenger, owner-driven sedan. The transformation is complete in every detail.

Comes summer with the hot sun overhead and the winding stretches of road calling you. Lower the broad windows. Open the ventilators. Never was an open car more airy. Never was touring more comfortable.

This beautiful car and other late Pierce-Arrow models are now on exhibition in our display rooms. We shall be happy to have you inspect and test any one or all of these cars.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasy, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

A Warning—Your Protection

By a sneeze, a cough or a chill, nature warns you of an approaching cold.

This warning is your protection. Respond to it by taking Weeks' Break-up-a-Cold Tablets. They usually knock out a cold overnight.

These tablets are laxative, and contain medicines that, when taken in time, increase your bodily resistance to cold germs.
