Musterole Works Without the Blister-Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheuma-tism lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia). 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

Aaron Burr came to St. Louis in the spring of 1804 as much in desperation as with definite plans. Matters were going none to well for him. The fame of the Lewis and Clark expediion now had gathered volume. Constitution or no constitution, the pur-chase of Louisiana had been completed, the tranfer had been formal ly made. His resources were dwindling. He needed funds for the many secret agents in his employ-needed yet more funds for the purchase and support of his lands in the south. And the minister of Great Britain had given plain warning that unless the expedition up the Missouri could be stopped, no further aid need be hoped from him. Little by little Burr saw hope slip away from him. True, Capt. ST. LOUIS Your Economical Market

Mr. Merchant— You Pay the Freight

VOUR saving in freight on merchandise bought in St. Louis, over other wholesale markets, gives you a wider margin of profit and enables you to make lower prices to your customers. The freight bills you pay are less from St. Louis than from any other big market because the mileage is less. The above map graphically shows what you save in dollars and cents from St. Louis over other big wholesale centers.

Vast strides in the development of American goods and American craftsmanship have been made in the last few years. Every merchant should go to market this Spring to personally inspect the new kinds of merchandise and prevailing fashions and keep pace with the advancing standards.
