Bonar Law Will Be Met by Demands to Justify Policy-Lloyd George to Lead Strong Attack.

Copyright, 1923.

London, Feb. 11. - When Prime Bonar Law meets parliacategories-the Ruhr policy, including the retention of British troops on the Rhine; the allied debt policy, including the American settlement, and party, which is the largest party in the house after the conservatives, and will be supported on nearly all these Farms points by both wings of the liberal party and by some conservatives

Mr. Lloyd George in particular is expected to make a damaging attack the government with regard to the French invasion of the Ruhr, which s universally disapproved in England. He may support the policy of remaining in Iraq, but he will prove a dangerous critic on the financial policy of settling with America while doing nothing to collect the debts due Great Britain.

This latter item may prove the most dangerous point of attack on the government. British public opinion is now coming round to the belief that Great Britain should collect from its debtors, as well as to Ject from its debtors, as well as to Regitors Property

Universal satisfaction has been expressed over the settlement of the American debt, even if it is felt in some quarters that the terms are hard but the British connect are with the per line each day. 7 days or longer. the people for whom they borrowed money should not pay them in turn.

It is also believed that France is even better able to pay Great Britain than etter able to pay Great Britain than France has no unemployment and the largest, most expensive army in Europe out of the money borrowed lemanded from all quarters, because it is felt that the only reasons for remaining are to secure profits for a up the artificial Arab state, which nust either stand alone or fall. The labor party today issued a manifesto setting out its constructive policy for the new season, which is offered to replace the government policy of inaction. The labor policy falls under six heads as follows:

1. To denounce the Events and the factory of the control of the cont

"Jay Walker" Legally Justified in Decision in Maine Damage Suit Portland, Me., Feb. 11. - The "jay walker" was legally justified in a decision handed down by the Maine supreme court in a suit for damages brought by Marjorie Shaw of Sebago against C. C. Bolton of this ty, as a result of being knocked own, it was alleged, by Bolton's au-

Deasy, who wrote the opinion, did not commend the practice known as 'jay walking." he held that the "look and listen" rule established for railroad crossings does not apply to ordinary street crossings.
