Blue Quintet Loses Contest by 23-18 Score

Teamwork and Guarding of Northerners Too Much for Losers-Trautman its star forward and captain, Jimmy Lovely, the Creighton team was unable to show the same brand of team work and passing game that marked the Blue victory over Marquette last

The Flickertails played basket ball and real basket ball from start to finish. The lanky North Dakota hoopsters presented a five-man defense that Creighton found hard to penetrate, while the attack of the northerners puzzled the Blue through-

So evenly matched were both teams that neither quintet held more than a three-point lead until the finish, when the Dakotans threw over an attack of baskets that gave them a five-point victory.

Visitors Score First. The Flickertails scored first, when Busduker, lanky center, scored a field goal from a tipoff. Creighton came back and counted from the free throw line, only to have Burkman sink a long shot, which put North Dakota in the lead, 4 to 1. Another long basket from skirmish by Busduker boosted the visitors' score to six and then Creighton got busy. Trautman, the midget Creighton basketeer, got his basket eye to working and scored two field goals, one from quite a distance. "Ike" Mahoney caged another basket and the score was tied. The midget Trautman scored his second field goal of the first half from a difficult posttion and Burkmen of North Dakota came back with a good free toss, making the count read 9 to 7 for the Blue. A few moments before the half ended Trautman made good on a gift chance and the period ended with Creighton holding onto a 10 to 7 lead.

Game Gets Rough. During the second half the spectarange shots.

On the other hand, the North Dakota quintet showed better teamwork in the final period. The guarding of Machart and the basket shoot-resulted in Burkman scoring his are on opposite sides of the affair. the Palm Beach Golf club. second field goal. This speedy Dakotan repeated from the side and North Dakota took the lead for a few minutes, just long enough for Trautman to get warmed up and shoot a basket. He came back with another field basket a few moments later and Creighton held a 14 to 11 advantage.

lony Francl to Bowl Champ of Chicago Police

ONY FRANCL, champion bowler of the Omaha police department, has challenged the champion bowler of the Chicago police. The match will be bowled some time in April, probably at Chicago.

A tournament will be staged at Chicago to select Francl's opponent. Tony is the undisputed champ pin tumbler of Omaha cops and sleuths, so it won't be necessary to have a tournament here to give the match a championship aspect.

Franci captains the Blue Taxi team. Last Sunday his squad defeated Wahoo Sharks in a return match of a home and home series onn the Omaha alley pathways.
