Lovely Ready to Play in State Series

Creighton university cagesters, who annexed their 12th victory of the sea-Wednesday night by trouncing Nebraska Wesleyan 44 to 15 at Creighton gym, today turned their atteition to South Dakota State, whom they play here Firady and Saturday.

Captain Jimmy Lovely, the stellar result of an injured knee sustained in the first tilt with Marquette last series with Dakota State, but it is of the Wausa-Crofton game will play ries next week at Milwaukee with Marquette university, which handed them their second defeat of the seal ners of these two contests will meet here, after the locals had completely ruary 17. outclassed them in the first game and won, 24 to 9.

Twice Defeated.

Coach Schabinger is confident the Blues can take the measure of the Marquette crew on its own floor with Jimmy Lovely in the lineup, and as Creighton succeeded in taking two games from State on its own floor at bookings two weeks ago, the mentor s reluctant to use the Hilltop captain except in crucial games while his under pies are in bad shape.

Creighton's only defeats to date have been at the hands of Kansas university in the opening contest here and Marquette. The team has defented Haskell Indians twice, Morningside thrice, South Dakota unitwice, Marquette and North Dakota

The Blues clinched their 12th vic- over 25,000. tory Wednesday night by showing a reversal of form in the second half. In the first period they were battled to a standstill, the half ending 17 to 12 in their favor.

Defense Weak.

In the second session, the Hilltoppers presented a rejuvenated team. Their attack had power and their defense ceased to border on the mythi-

Creighton recorded six points, all from the field, before the state intercollegiate conference leaders tallied. Then their scoring came in a sput and for a time they snapped at the Blues' heels, but never headed them.

In the second frame a field goal and a foul throw represented the total of their damage, while Creighton pummelled the hoops for 12 field goals and three free tosses.

The Methodists' defense was pe forated with weak spots, but the Blues did not discover them until in the last lap, when they got through with dribbles and short passes.

Creighton's shooting was erratic proughout, but less wild in the secad heat. The Wesleyans had little success in working the ball through league hurler. He came here in the tell down pitifully.

How to Play Basket Ball.

Original man-to-man defense. This first style of defense has many features of merit, Particularly against teams that have been playing and practicing against some form of the five-man defense. Then, it is bound to worry these players because they are not used to being closely guarded in their own back court. Under such conditions you are able to break up all sorts of set plays which are ordinarily allowed to set under way. In the course of such a game you are bound to intercept many passes, recover many fumbles and force players to make poor passes. All such acts put you in possession of the ball within scoring distance.

To use this style of defense than the poor passes. All such acts put you in possession of the ball within scoring distance.

To use this style of defense than the poor passes. To use this style of defense you must have fast runners and you must condition them so they can keep going at ton-speed for the full 20 minutes of each haif.
