New York, Feb. 20.—The arrival of Luis Firpo this week will again stir up interest in heavyweight affairs. The South American is coming for a battle with Bill Brennan in Madison Square Garden. Firpo had a contract to box at the Pioneer club hat he did not keep when he was here last. At the time of Firpo's rather hurtled departure William Muldoon of the boxing commission ruled that he would have to box at the Pioneer before appearing elsewhere in this state.

Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, will be deeply interested in Muldoon's decision in the Firpo matter. If Firpo is allowed to ignore a contract, Wilson will want to know why he has been kept under he ban for so long.

Billy Gibson, manager of Benny Leonard, today announced he had received a telegraphic offer from Philadelphia offering the lightweight champion $25,000 to meet Pal Moran, the New Orleans lightweight, in an eight-round, no decision contest this summer in the first open-air show at the Philadelphia baseball park. Gibson said Leonard would continue a thespian for some months.

The Tremaine-Curtin fight is still being argued and is likely to come up before he state boxing commission at tomorrow's meeting. According to some admirers of the Jersey boy. Curtin was accorded only a superficial examination by Dr. William Walker in the ring at the Garden, such as would not justify any positive statement as to whether a foul had been committed. Two physicians, Dr. Thomas M. Brennock and Dr. M. A. Murthy, have prepared affidavits that less than an hour after the bout with Trenaine, upon examination under more favorable conditions, they found evidence that Curtin had been fouled.
