

Dinner Is Given for Maude Royden by Church People

Englishwoman Says She Is Indebted to Y. W. C. A. for Her Visit to This Country.

An informal dinner in honor of Maude Royden, English lecturer, who spoke at the Brandeis Friday afternoon under the auspices of the Fine Arts society, and Miss Margaret Bailey Speer, secretary to Miss Royden, was given last night at the Y. W. C. A.

Representatives of churches in the city were present. Among them were Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Wilson, representing the Presbyterian Theological seminary; Mrs. D. E. Jenkins, University of Omaha; Rev. and Mrs. Russell Taylor, Colored Ministerial union; Mrs. Homer Stuntz, Methodist church; Mrs. Frank G. Smith, First Central Congregational church; Mrs. Thomas J. Cassidy, All Saints Episcopal church; Rev. and Mrs. Mahaffey, First United Presbyterian church; Rev. and Mrs. A. A. DeLorme, First Baptist church, and Rev. and Mrs. Ada Anderson, Plymouth Congregational church. Ministers representing other churches were present.

Several Girl Reserve members, resident girls, North Side club members, industrial girls, gymnasium girls and members of the Omaha Young Business Women's club attended the dinner. All Y. W. C. A. clubs and classes were represented.

American and British flags, together with yellow candles and yellow tulpins furnished the decorations.

Young Women's Christian association "Hymns of Lights" were sung at the beginning of the dinner and at the close "Follow Glean" was sung.

Miss Royden alluded to the Y. W. C. A. as her "adopted mother," explaining that she was directly responsible to it for coming to America last spring to attend a Y. W. C. A. convention in New York city.

Miss Royden and Miss Speer left this morning for Cedar Rapids, Ia. They expect to sail for England March 20.

Coroner's Jury Exonerates Labor Leader Who Shot Rival Chicago, Feb. 24.—"Handsome Dan" McCarthy, who shot and killed "Steve" Keilher, a rival labor leader, in a gun battle in a crowded South Side cafe last Sunday night, was exonerated by a coroner's jury Friday, which found that McCarthy had shot in self-defense.

Upon the recommendation of the state's attorney's office, McCarthy was refused his freedom after the jury's verdict and the police said they would book him Saturday on a charge of murder.

"No Profit" Sale Crowd at Hayden's Saturday

When readers of The Omaha Bee saw the Hayden Bros. advertisement of a no-profit sale, they could hardly "keep their shirts on" getting down to buy a new supply of said garments, as shown by the picture above.

Wife May Rifle Pockets of Husband Without Fear of Committing Larceny

Chicago, Feb. 24.—There seems to be no other recourse left to the lowly married man but to line his pockets with fishhooks.

Judge Morgan, in the court of domestic relations, yesterday ruled a wife has a moral and legal right to explore hubby's pockets, appropriating whatever of the content appeals to her and she is not thereby liable to a charge of larceny, petit or grand.

Clinton Hurlburt, head of the Advertising Products company, who has been living apart from his wife, visited her Wednesday night. When he awoke in the morning, he said she had cleaned his pockets of everything, not even leaving him cufflinks.

"You need not defend yourself," said the judge to the wife. "A wife hardly can be convicted of robbing her husband, nor a husband of robbing his wife, since they are partners and one partner is not supposed to rob the other."

Final Survivor of Light Brigade Dying London, Ont., Feb. 24.—Thomas W. Shaw, no claims to be the last survivor of the famous light brigade, tonight was riding for the second time "into the jaws of death."

But the venerable cavalryman—91 years old—had not between his knees the charger which dashed upon the Russian battery at Balaklava in 1854. Under him was a white-sheeted hospital cot from which, the doctors say, he will never rise.

After his charge with the glorious 600, Shaw felt upon his brow the soothing hand of Florence Nightingale—a memory that was his most cherished possession. And, last night, upon his solitary ride into "the valley of death," the soft fingers of the mighty band of daughters Nightingale gave the world were touching his brow but the old soldier did not feel them.

His breath came in agonizing gasps. The end is near.

Dry Law Takes Half of Time of U. S. District Attorney Washington, Feb. 24.—(Special)—The deficiency appropriation hearings show that the United States district attorney for Nebraska has devoted considerable time to enforcing the prohibition law. Fifty per cent of his time has been devoted to this job and 5 per cent of his time is devoted to internal revenue work, 25 per cent postal business, 1 per cent to acts to regulate commerce and 19 per cent to all other business.

Greeks Will Accept Pact If Turks Sign Treaty Athens, Feb. 24.—In a newspaper interview yesterday Colonel Plastiras, leader of the revolutionary movement which brought the present regime to Greece, declared that if the Turks accept the Lausanne treaty Greece will sign the peace pact.

Colonel Plastiras was the chief Greek delegate at the Mudania conference at which the Greece-Turk armistice was signed.

Hotel Suit Against Matters Withdrawn Marguerite La S. Diddock Saturday withdrew her petition filed recently in district court asking a receivership for the Bradford hotel in Omaha.

The petition made T. H. Matters and his daughter, Helen, defendants, alleging that they acquired the hotel through misrepresentation.

Man Who Served Portion of Life Term for Murder Publicly Exonerated

Wilmington, O., Feb. 24.—(AP)—Clarence Leroy McKinney, who only a short time ago left here for the Ohio penitentiary, a murderer, in the eyes of Wilmington citizens, came back Friday and has his innocence publicly proclaimed.

McKinney who served five months of a life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of Policeman Emery McCreight, a crime which Louis Vandervoort of Jamestown has admitted, boarded a train for Cincinnati at 4 this afternoon.

"I have no ill feelings toward anyone here," he told people, who met him.

A $2,000 fine pending against him for alleged violation of liquor laws was dropped, but the court did nothing with a suspended sentence on the same charge.

Man Killed on Train as Victim of a Dream

Drakesborough, Ky., Feb. 24.—Roy Schultz, 32, a miner, was dead today—the victim of a dream. Schultz was sleeping on top of a loaded coal car yesterday when he dreamed he was in the path of an approaching locomotive. He rolled from the top of the car and struck on the bottom of a mine pit 76 feet deep. Injuries caused by the fall resulted in his death in a hospital at Owensboro.

"Do You Own Any Real Estate?"

How many times have you had that question shot at you when you approached some credit manager for extended credit—or your banker, for a loan to cover an unexpected emergency?

Were you prepared to answer "Yes?"

The purchase of real estate is the first step toward financial independence. The worker who owns his home is much less concerned about work becoming slack than the one who doesn't. At the grocery store, at the clothing store, at the department store—everywhere where credit is sought—home owners are given preference.

Make a start—buy a home.

The "City Real Estate" columns of The Sunday Omaha Bee are brim full of splendid home opportunities—cozy, homey places for the man of limited means—beautiful, pretentious ones for the buyer with more exacting tastes. In most cases a substantial initial payment will enable you to move in and begin living under your own roof. The balance may be paid in small monthly installments—just like rent.

The home you want—at a price that you can afford and on terms that will not pinch your pocketbook—is advertised in The Sunday Omaha Bee today.
