

A Queer World

Game Cocks Turn Baltimore Police Station Into Pandemonium in Excitement at Arrest.

"The Law! The Law!" Baltimore, Md., Feb. 26.—Scores of New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia sports were among the several hundred persons who were enthusiastic over a great "cocking main" at "Spot" Mitchell's bungalow on Back river when the police broke in. While most of the men were intent on the pit some were equally interested in a "sweet" game.

As the police entered the lights and Mr. Mitchell's guests went out simultaneously. Some of the latter for the landward windows. Most of these were captured. Others, forming a shouting, straining mass, rushed for the riverward side and made off through trap doors over the ice to the other side of the river.

Eighty-five game cocks turned a police station into a crowing pandemonium yesterday while 31 of the revellers paid fines of $6.45 each.

"Try It On the Pig." Wooster, O., Feb. 26.—"Try it on guinea pigs," is the reply made by Daniel V. Nash, president of the Buckeye Chiropractor association, to a challenge of Dr. C. D. Barrett, health commissioner, who agreed to drink typhoid germs, swab his throat with diphtheria germs, and keep with a smallpox patient if any chiropractor would do the same.

The Way Out of It. Los Angeles, Feb. 26.—Immigration laws were responsible for the expected wedding today on the Dutch motor ship Dinteldyk in Los Angeles harbor of Fraulein Milla General of Treves, Germany, and Demond D. Brodie, overseas veteran, of Long Beach, Cal.

Immigration officials told Brodie they would not permit Fraulein (general) to land on American soil unless she was married to him and therefore became an American citizen, and the Los Angeles county clerk refused to issue him a marriage license unless his prospective wife accompanied him to the license bureau.

Then entered radio. Capt. Har-togh Heys, veteran skipper of the Dinteldyk, on which Fraulein Gen-eral is a passenger and due here to-day, suggested a way out. He said he would perform the necessary marriage ceremony aboard the ves-sel, under the flag of The Nether-lands if Brodie would board the Dinteldyk today, and Brodie said he would.

ADVERTISEMENTS COSTS ONLY 50c BUT MY, HOW POSLAM HEALS!

A hundred dollars couldn't buy the relief that the first touch of Poslam brings to itching, inflamed, eczema-tor-ed skins. Yet a box of skin-healing Poslam costs but 50c.

Poslam is so concentrated and acts so directly that a little goes a long way. But its medication is so gentle that it cannot irritate the most delicate or in-flamed skin. Eczema, rashes, scalp troubles, pimples—they simply cannot resist Poslam, for before the war, 50c during the war, 50c now—at every drug store. For trial sample, send 10c to POSLAM, 243 W. 47th St., New York.

Poslam soot medicated with Poslam, clears and brightens the complexion and prevents return of eruptions.

$50 Offered for Best Sketches of Costume for Movie Actress

Here's Chance for You to Win Cash Prizes and Theater Tickets for "Jazzmania."

Are you chock full of ideas on novel costumes that Mae Murray, film star, could wear? If so, here's an opportunity to tell Miss Murray about your ideas of a costume which she could wear to advantage and which would display her charms in one of her forthcoming features. For the best sketch of such a costume, by special arrangement with the Sun theater here, The Omaha Bee is offering $50 in cash prizes and tickets to her latest picture, "Jazzmania," which is to be shown at the Sun next week.

Conditions of the contest are as follows: All ideas must be mailed to the Mae Murray contest editor of The Omaha Bee.

Designs should be submitted either in pen and ink or colors. Pencil drawings will not be accepted. The sketch must be accompanied by a description of the colors and material used.

Judges of the contest will be Edward Abrams, special representative of Miss Murray and two representatives of Omaha fashion shops. All drawings will become the property of Miss Murray.

Anyone may compete. A display of designs will be made later in a downtown store. First prize will be $25 in gold. Second prize, $15 in gold. Third prize, $10 in gold.

Each accepted drawing will entitle the sender to two tickets to "Jazzmania" next week at the Sun theater.

Fontenelle Says Rum Raid Illegal

Prohibition Agents Had No Right to "Tempt" Bellboys, Petition States.

Hotel Fontenelle, in an answer filed yesterday in district court to the suit brought by the federal prohibition department to close it for one year following a raid made by Robert Samardick, January 31, declares that the United States had no legal right, through its prohibition agents, "by persuasion and the offer of sums of money to tempt hotel employees into violation of the national prohibition act and thereby to bring the hotel into public disrepute." It asks that the suit be dismissed.

The answer alleges that certain prohibition agents registered at the hotel as guests and then "with the intent and purpose of bringing the hotel into disrepute, impounded, solicited and persuaded with offers of large sums of money certain young bellboys, then in the employ of the hotel, to bring intoxicating liquors to the rooms of the so-called guests."

The hotel authorities do not know, the answer says, whether or not these liquors were furnished to the agents, but states that if they were, it was done wholly without the knowledge, consent or approval of the defendants and in violation of the premises signed by the bellboys when they took their positions at the hotel.

No liquor was found by Samardick and his men in the raid on the store rooms, lockers and public rooms of

Health Bureau Head in Omaha

Case of Woman Who Came Here With Smallpox to Be Investigated.

Dr. I. N. Dillon, head of the state health department in conference yesterday morning with Health Commissioner A. S. Pinto, stated that the type of influenza now prevalent is not comparable with the "flu" which raged a few years ago.

The state health chief conferred with Dr. Pinto on the case of a woman who came to Omaha from Hav-lock and is now detained at the local smallpox hospital.

"There is some question as to the responsibility of a physician at Hav-lock in permitting a patient with a contagious disease to leave his town," said Dr. Pinto, who added that an investigation will be made.

Man Accused of Slaying Clubman to Have Hearing

Asheville, N. C., Feb. 26.—Fonz Buchanan, alleged to have been im-plicated in the slaying of "Blaise L. Harsell, New York clubman, writer and naturalist, who was killed while walking through the mountains of western North Carolina, is expected to be given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Craigmiles of Bakersville Monday.

Grady Buchanan, brother of Buch-anan, was also held in jail at Bakers-ville and warrants have been issued for "Big Joe," Buchanan and "Bill" Rainwater, alleged to have been im-plicated in the slaying.

$13,000 Already Pledged in Brownell Hall Drive

More than $13,000 in subscriptions had been tabulated at noon yesterday at the headquarters of the Brownell Hall building fund drive.

Included in the subscriptions was a pledge for $6,000 from Mrs. Byron Reed; G. W. Megeath was on the com-mittee's books for $5,000; Judge W. A. Redick, $1,000; Henry Doory, $500, and Rome Miller, $500.

Rome Miller's subscription was ob-tained by the "special list" committee, consisting of W. A. Fraser, Walter Head and A. L. Reed, which began its work in connection with the drive at 8 yesterday morning.

Meeting of all drive workers was held at 5 yesterday afternoon in the pit at the grain exchange.

Church Is Thronged at Maher Funeral

Scores of Respectable Citizens Attended

A throng gathered in St. John church yesterday morning to attend funeral services for Marty Maher, 22, who met death last week in a battle between S. C. Curtis, railroad watchman, and a gang of alleged box car robbers in the Great Western yards.

Scores of respectable citizens at-tended. Mrs. Anna Maher, the grieving mother; and "Bill," the older brother, were among members of the family who were present.

Thirty motor cars loaded with men and women followed the body to Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

Man Celebrates 93rd Birthday

Peter Andersen Says Busy Life Conducive to Longevity and Happiness.

Peter Andersen, 2921 North Fifty-sixth street, observed his 93rd birthday anniversary yesterday at the home of his daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Walker.

Last night a company of 50 neigh-bors and friends gathered at the festivities last night.

Fifteen years ago, Mr. Andersen came to Omaha from Denmark, where he was engaged in farming. He avers that a busy life is conducive to long-evity and happiness. He is now plan-ning for his next season's garden.

During the closed season he helps around with the house with the chores. He reads without the aid of glasses and takes a lively interest in the affairs of the world.

Last summer he enjoyed a trip to Montana with his daughter. Moderation has been the keynote of his life and he says moderation should be applied even to idleness.

Anthracite Producers Netting $1.60 Ton Profit

Washington, Feb. 26.—Producers of Pennsylvania anthracite are netting an average profit of $1.60 a ton at estimates placed before the federal coal commission by a United Mine Workers' committee and made public today. On annual production of 79,000,000 tons, the anthracite companies are obtaining "an apparent net in-come, at present prices, of $128,500,000," the committee said, adding that it is "to be expected that present peo-ple prices of anthracite will remain fairly constant throughout the year."

Balks at Forming Cabinet

Cairo, Egypt, Feb. 26.—Andry Ra-gen Pasha, former premier, has in-formed the liberal constitutional council that he declines to accept the task of forming a ministry. Among the more important aims Adly had in view if he accepted the proposal to form a new ministry was to free the country from the fetters with which the late ministry had tied it regard-ing the question of the Sudan.

Pastor to Answer How Cain Got Wife

Dr. Frank G. Smith to Discuss Age-Old Dispute From Pulpit.

"Come to church next Sunday evening and I'll explain how Cain got a wife in the land of Nod when Eve was supposed to be the only woman on earth," challenged Rev. Frank G. Smith in the second of a series of six lectures at the First Central Congregational church Sunday evening.

"Who wrote the Bible? How was it done? Is it inspired? What au-thority has it over other books?" was his topic.

In opening Rev. Mr. Smith said he had received a number of let-ters of commendation and a few critical letters on his lecture "Who Made the World?" which he delivered a few weeks ago. The nature of the letters led him to stress his point on the theory of the developmental process and reiterated that it was possible to believe in both the Bible and mod-ern science.

As to who wrote the Bible, Rev. Mr. Smith said it was an accumulation of deologies, moral codes and songs. The most of it was folklore passed down from century to century by word of mouth.

New York, Feb. 25.—The Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, in further pub-licly stating his liberal religious be-liefs, which he characterizes as rep-resenting the "modernist" wing of the church, in his morning sermon yesterday classified the biblical ver-sion of the Garden of Eden as a fable and rangd himself definitely as a sup-porter of the theory of evolution as against the version of the creation of man as given in the Book of Genesis.

Liberal Republican League Begins Fight to Oust Lodge

Boston, Feb. 26.—The Liberal Re-publican league has begun its fight to unseat Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. The first shot was a letter sent to Governor Cox by Chairman Conrad W. Crooker of the league, de-manding the calling of a new election.

Crooker is also counsel for John A. Nichols, unsuccessful candidate for the senatorship. He has little hope that the governor will act on his sug-gestion, but says it is the first step and will be followed by appeals to the state courts, the senate committee on privilege and elections and the su-preme court.

Bad Weather Predictions Delays Endurance Flight

Dayton, O., Feb. 26.—Rain and snow predicted for the next two days will prevent attempts of Lieutenants John A. Macready and Oakley Kelly, McCook field pilots, to better their world's record for sustained flying. It was said last night.

If weather conditions permit, the flight may be attempted later this week. The present record of 35 hours and 16 minutes was made by the two aviators last fall at San Diego, Cal.

Women and Two Guests Robbed of $10,000; Bandits Overlook $5,000 in Gems

Los Angeles, Feb. 26.—Robbers ob-tained jewelry and money aggregat-ing about $5,000 in value, but missed diamonds valued at $10,000, after they had forced their way into the resi-dence of Mrs. L. Baron yesterday, ac-cording to her report to the police.

With Mrs. Baron when the door-bell rang were her guests, Mrs. Howard Smith and her son, Garatt Smith of Cincinnati. When the door was opened, two well-dressed men entered. Each had a pistol in his hand.
