

National Canned Foods Week, March

WHO IS YOUR GROCER?

YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD GROCER owns his store. He takes an interest in the paving of the street on which you and he live. He takes an interest in maintaining his home in OMAHA and thereby adding value to your home. Your neighborhood grocer takes pride in the development of OMAHA schools and churches. He takes pride in OMAHA, for he has helped to build the city in which you live. He is a PIONEER and BUILDER, and not an individual, manager, or corporation, who tries to reap where others have sown.

Brownell Hall Pledges Mount

More Than $80,000 Promised During First Four Days of Drive.

Brownell Hall subscriptions totaled more than $80,000 Thursday, and "not more than half of our prospective subscribers have made their pledges," according to Chairman Barton Millard.

Thursday's records, which do not include the $50,000 which the general Episcopal church has agreed to give, caused the trustees and executive committee to announce to the campaign organization that "the school's new building will be erected."

First reports from the state arrived Thursday. Bishop Shaylor spent the day in Nebraska City, and obtained $1,800 in pledges. This was the bishop's first trip outside for subscriptions. He expects to obtain several thousand dollars from parishes in the diocese outside Omaha.

Ward M. Burgess and Walter W. Head each agreed to double their $1,000 subscriptions if 10 more $1,000 pledges are made.

"We're certain to get those two doubles," Chairman Millard said. Mr. Burgess said he will give $2,000 more if 10 more $2,000 pledges are made. In addition to his personal pledge, Mr. Burgess turned in a $1,000 pledge from the Burgess-Nash company.

In team reports Thursday, Mrs.

Carl Paulson's team had the largest number of subscriptions.

Following are some of the pledges turned in Thursday:

Ward M. Burgess, $1,000; Marion E. Carpenter, $700; Mrs. W. C. Shannon, $500; F. B. Hochstetler, $100; Mrs. Henry Deabrook, $100; Mrs. J. S. 1449; St. Mark church, Seattle, $1,250; J. S. Smith, $250; A. P. Whitmore, $100; Dr. R. E. Johnson, $100; Maynard C. Cole, $100; Dada Lumber Co., $100; Mrs. Herman Gunther, $100; Mrs. E. M. Searle, $100; E. P. Fock, $100; Charles E. Kiser, $500; F. D. Wood and D. H. Bowman, $100; J. A. Munroe, $1,000; Mrs. George Brandeis, $100; J. Subersohn, $100; Victor Josp, $200; Mrs. Charles F. McLaughlin, $500; Mrs. Lee Hoff, $100; Mickel Music House, $200; Arthur Metz, $100; Burgess-Nash Co., $1,000; Dr. Leo A. Dermody, $200; The Brinn Jensen Co., $100; Field Hamilton Smith Paper Co., $100; Cartan & Jeffrey Co., $100; Andrew Murphy & Son, $200; Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway Co., $1,000; W. P. Chiodo, $100; Byron Reed Co., $1,000; W. B. Millard, $500; J. L. Baker, $500; M. A. Disbrow & Co., $100; Heyn Studio, $100; Joe B. Redfield, $100.

Asphalt Repair Plant of City Starts Summer Work

Asphalt repair plant of the department of street cleaning and maintenance set a record yesterday morning when it began its summer's work, starting at Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets and working west.

This is the earliest date the plant ever has begun operation, according to Joe Pfeifer, who is in charge.

VICTOR flour

Cooling the bread in a modern bakery

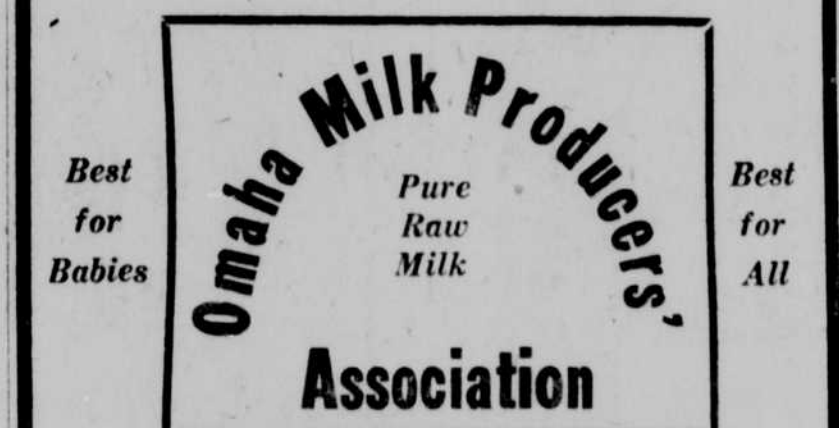

The most exacting bakers demand and use VICTOR flour. VICTOR is rich in high quality gluten—the element that makes a large, round, fluffy loaf—so necessary to good bread, both in the bake shop and in the home. If you still bake your own bread use the flour for which the baker is willing to pay more per sack because it produces bread at a smaller cost per loaf—and better bread, too.

"Not Accidentally Good, But—Made Good Always."

The most modern Baker's Mill in America.
