

Creighton Drive to Open With Big Parade Monday

600 Workers in $2,000,000 Campaign to Receive Final Instructions at Banquet Monday Night.

With a parade at noon tomorrow and a big banquet of 600 workers in the Fontenelle ball room Monday evening at 6, the Creighton university campaign for $2,000,000 for new buildings and another $1,000,000 for endowment purposes will get under way. No soliciting of subscriptions will be undertaken until after the banquet, at which final instructions will be issued all workers.

Henry Monsky will be toastmaster. At the speakers' table will be President McCormick of Creighton; the Creighton board of regents, consisting of Walter H. Head, Charles T. Kountze, Frank Burkley, Fred Hamilton and W. J. Coad; Ward Burgess, general chairman of the campaign; Mrs. Arthur F. Mullen, general chairman of the women's division; Mrs. L. F. Crofoot, chairman of the Ten Dollar club; John L. Kennedy, treasurer of the campaign; James H. Hanley, chairman of the residential committee; the executive committee, consisting of Mayor James C. Dahlman, J. E. Davidson, Frank Judson, Harry Milliken, A. C. Scott and W. J. Monaghan; T. P. Richmond, chairman of the publicity committee; T. J. Leary, chairman of the Council Bluffs organization, and Emmett Tinley, Council Bluffs.

Parade Monday Noon.
The campaign will open officially at noon Monday with a parade of Creighton students, headed by the Creighton band. The parade will pass through the business streets and will stop in front of the court house while Mayor Dahlman, President McCormick and others make two-minute talks to the students.

The residential campaign will be carried on by 34 committees, representing that number of districts into which the city has been divided. James H. Hanley is general chairman of the residential organization.

The chairman of the different residential districts, each of whom will have a table at Monday's banquet for the individual members of his team, are: Maurice Hinchey, Frank J. McDermott, Rev. Leo Blaschko, Rev. Michael Stagno, Dr. C. J. Wonder, Charles H. Sprague, Rev. George S. Mikulski, L. D. Kavanagh, E. J. Svoboda, Dr. J. H. Thomsen, Rev. J. A. Kraljick, Edward P. McDonald, A. B. Dundis, George H. Merten, Rev. Gabriel Salinas, M. J. Dineen, Senator J. J. Larkin, Rev. Simon Schwarz, Dr. C. F. Patton, Rev. B. Sinne, F. B. Gruesel, Edward F. Leary, David L. Shanahan, N. C. Leary, Dr. David Bell, E. F. Dougherty, J. C. Barrett, Dr. C. J. Nemeec and Dr. W. E. Stoff.

Out-of-Omaha Drive.
The campaign in the business district will be carried on by 400 insurance solicitors under the new system of asking insurance rather than cash. The out-of-Omaha campaign will start Tuesday morning. This phase of the campaign is expected to bring $1,000,000 into Omaha from the outside. Campaign committees have been organized in a dozen or more states and even Hawaii, where three Creighton graduates reside, will be campaigning for Creighton this week.

Each day during the campaign the workers will meet in the Fontenelle ball room to report and to hear reports. The campaign closes on March 15 with a big banquet at the Fontenelle.

Man Hurt in Runaway Suffers Memory Loss

L. M. Mynster, 4332 Vinton street, suffered a temporary loss of memory after he had been thrown from the wagon he was driving in the vicinity of Fortieth and Cass streets yesterday morning.

His team became frightened, and started to run. The wagon hit a bump and Mynster was thrown to the pavement, where he lay unconscious until he was taken to a grocery store at Fortieth and California streets. Revived by a police surgeon, Mynster was unable to remember where he was driving or his own address, according to police.

The runaway team was stopped by pedestrian at Fortieth and Cumington streets. The wagon was not broken, nor were the horses injured.

Tear Bombs Subdue Crazy Former Yank

Cleveland, O., March 3.—Efforts of more than a score of policemen to dislodge John Weitzel, youthful world war veteran, who, laboring under the delusion that "murderers" are after him, barricaded himself in a room last night, were successful early today after every tear bomb in the city had been thrown into the house.

Weitzel, crazed by a flareback of a nervous disorder from shell shock in France, fired at every one who approached the house. His brother, Herbert, was wounded. Two policemen miraculously escaped injury when bullets passed through their clothing.

Teachers' Aid Association Holds Election of Officers

Agnes M. Harrison, former principal at Farnam school, was elected president of the Teachers' Annuity and Aid association at an annual meeting yesterday in city council chamber.

Other officers are Mary Fitch, first vice president; Alice O. Orr, second vice president; Nell Craig, financial secretary; Mary B. Goodman, corresponding secretary; Eva Norton, Martha Homelius, Ruth Pollock, Helen Longsdorf and Cora S. Anderson, directors. The hold-over directors are Alice Chambers, Mary Ellsworth, Edith Isakson and Pearl Donoho.

Omaha Bank Clearings.

Bank clearings started out with their usual gain at the beginning of March, and greatly exceeded those of the corresponding week last year and also the clearings of last week. Clearings for the week were $50,849,182, as compared to $38,270,913 last week, and $41,943,832 for the week ending on this day last year.
