

The CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY and the Woodmen of the World are among the most important of Omaha Institutions

On every hand is heard the call to SERVICE. Great Institutions need it that their work may not fail. Faltering Nations and Peoples need it that they may bear their burdens. Service is the very reason for the being of the

Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Born in Omaha June 6th, 1890

We have paid in the course of the past nearly THIRTY-THREE YEARS to the Beneficiaries of those who have sought our protection—ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY MILLION DOLLARS. Real service when and where it was needed—Unselfish Service by Men for Men. THE WOODMEN OF THE WORLD IS NOT OPERATED FOR PROFIT. No dividends to stockholders, for there are no stockholders. No melons to cut, for our field of endeavor does not produce them. In our field there is only room for the Staples—Service—Security—Satisfaction. You have heard the call of another great institution—

The CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY

Thousands of the youths of our land have gone forth from her portals to serve Our City, Our State and our Nation.

The Woodmen of the World proposes to help this great institution which has served so unselfishly in the past.
