Notice to Prospective Buyers A Meeting Will Be Held at Dowd's Auction House,

> 18th and Webster Streets, Thursday Night at 7:30

For the purpose of explaining the sale of and arranging to send delegates to see the 934 farms owned by the Employers' Indemnity Corporation of Kansas City, an insurance company doing business in over 25 states, who have acquired these farms through foreclosure. An insurance company is not allowed by law to continuously own land as a part of their assets and these farms were turned over to National Townsite Co., 510 and 511 Brown Block, and Dowd Auction Co., 18th and Webster Sts., to sell at one-half their appraised value and on terms of One dollar per acre cash, balance ten cents per acre per month. Payments to be made to Peters Trust Co., Omaha. These farms are all in Washington County, Me., about 45 to 65 miles south and west of St. Louis, in the fruit and dairy district The prices for this land asked at this sale will be from three to six dollars per acre. Be sure and attend this meeting Thursday night, for in our judgment this is one of the greatest apportunities ever offered in land and on terms in reach of all. For further information call Dow! Auction Co. 18th and Webster or phone At. 0966.
