

Harding May Speak in Omaha While on Tour

President to Determine by Reaction of People to Speeches Whether He Will Run Again.

By GEORGE F. AUTHIER
Washington Correspondent The Omaha Bee.

Washington, March 5.—(Special).—President Harding's contemplated trip round the circuit this summer, it became known yesterday, will include delivery of at least 20 set speeches, and appearances in every section of the country. Omaha, it is expected, will be included in the itinerary.

Upon the reaction to the speeches will depend the president's final decision as to whether he will be a candidate to succeed himself. At the present time he is determined to be a candidate for a second term, but it is an open secret with his friends that this decision is subject to revision in the light of results following the "appeal to the country."

The president's itinerary on this journey has not been decided upon and will depend largely on whether he will go to Alaska this summer. This trip, in turn, is dependent upon the condition of Mrs. Harding's health and upon the situation growing out of disturbed conditions in Europe. Whether Alaska is visited or not, the president will endeavor to reach the central points in every part of the country. New England and the south are to be covered in this manner in addition to considerable attention being devoted to the middle and far west.

To Test Sentiment.

President Harding's political advisers acknowledge fortunes of the administration are at a low ebb, and the president is probably equally cognizant of this fact, but it is believed the record of the administration is one that will stand the test of public scrutiny. The president is credited with possessing a fighting eagerness to go before the country and present his case.

According to his friends, the administration is in position to claim it has reduced taxes, balanced the budget, introduced economy in government, has enacted constructive farm legislation, has aided revenue business and has carried out a brilliant and successful foreign policy, despite the criticisms registered against it.

Corey Named on Farm Loan Body

General Attorney for Omaha Federal Land Bank Appointed by Harding.

Merton L. Corey of Omaha, general attorney for the Federal Land Bank of Omaha, Monday was appointed a member of the federal farm loan board, as was Elmer S. Landes of Ohio. President Harding made the appointments.

Mr. Corey is a democrat; Mr. Landes is a republican. It is understood here that one of the bills signed Saturday by President Harding increased the loan board membership from four to six men, thus permitting the new appointments.

Norris Sure His Bill Will Pass New Congress

Washington, March 5.—(Special).—Senator Norris declares the fight to bring about a reform in the constitution, advancing the dates of the inauguration of president and vice president and of the newly-elected congress, has just begun. He is confident failure to pass the resolution proposing the constitutional amendment through the house by no means stops the project.

"I am confident the next congress will adopt the resolution," he said, "because it has been demonstrated that the public believes the proposed reform is a good one."

Representative Philip Campbell of Kansas, chairman of the rules committee, and acting speaker during the closing hours of the session because of the illness of Speaker Gillett, is charged with responsibility for killing the Norris resolution.

Saturday's Snow Totals 1.24 Inches in Omaha

The rain and snow of Saturday in Omaha measured 1.24 inches of water, the weather bureau reported. It did not extend much into the western part of the state. North Platte reported only .61 of an inch and Valentine .69 of an inch.

"The precipitation has undoubtedly been of great value," said Nelson B. Updike.

George Roberts said he has reports from his farmers in the western part of the state saying the wheat there is green in the field.

Shaved Mustache Gets Man Out of Jail Term

St. Louis, March 5.—The closer the shave the easier it is to get out of difficulties—some times.

Ed Bright, who had a mustache when he was arrested on a charge of stealing coal, shaved off the lip adornment to white away the idle moments of jail life. When the case was brought up for trial the patrolman could not identify Bright as the man because of his changed appearance. The case was dismissed.

Bankers Discuss Holdrege Crash

Hold Star Chamber Session in Omaha to Prevent Further Loss to State Fund.

Affairs of the defunct Citizens' State bank of Holdrege drew 15 state bankers to Omaha Sunday for the avowed purpose of preventing further loss to the state guaranty fund through the sale of $14,000 of collateral held by the State Bank of Omaha to secure loans of $68,000 made to the Holdrege bank.

The Omaha State bank has advertised the collateral for sale in one lump to be auctioned at its office at 210 a. m. today. Bankers attending Sunday's meeting protested against this procedure, claiming that the price would be lower than if the various items were offered separately. Further, in the latter case, collateral not needed to produce the $68,000 loaned could be returned to the bank to offset other liabilities.

According to information leaking out at the Sunday meeting, the State Bank of Omaha refused to modify its plan. The other bankers instructed a committee either to go into court to delay the sale or organize a pool to bid in the collateral.

Officials of the State Bank of Omaha maintain that the plan outlined by them is the only legal procedure possible and is also proven the best course by past experience.

Among the guests were Representatives Longworth, Ohio; Clark, New York; Jeffries, Nebraska; Ward, New York; McCormick, Montana; and Donnelly, New York. Others present were Dr. J. S. Gannon, Washington; Edgar C. Snyder, United States marshal, Washington; former Representative Joseph Gaines, West Virginia; Gen. Dick Richardson, Texas; Gen. Neville, hero of Belleau wood; Rear Admiral Moffett, chief of air service, U. S. N.; and Commander O'Leary, U. S. N.
