

Narcotics Given School Children, Dineen Charges

Judge Sees Influence of "Foreign Power" in Dope Peddling—Police Make Big Raid.

The finger of a foreign power is visible in a gigantic campaign to make America a nation of drug addicts, charged Municipal Judge Frank Dineen yesterday. He said that dope was being peddled to school children free of charge and that more stress is being laid on prohibition enforcement than is accorded to more alarming conditions.

"Spotter Is Used."

"We have information that dope parties have been in progress for some time past, but so clever are the young addicts that the boy we have had in the school to secure information as to the source has been unable to bring about the revelations we had hoped for."

Big Dope Haul.

Charles York, alleged dope seller, was arrested yesterday afternoon at 714 North Eighteenth street by Detectives Trapp and Munch in what police say is one of the biggest dope hauls ever staged in Omaha.

Triangle Club Hears Talk on State Bankruptcy Law

A married man in Nebraska, if he owns a home, is entitled to various exemptions under the bankruptcy law. Among these exemptions are his bed, a pew in his church and a lot in a cemetery, according to A. E. Royce, who discussed the bankruptcy laws before members of the triangle club at their Tuesday noon meeting in Hotel Fontenelle.

Mother Finds Baby Lost During Flood After Twenty Months' Search

Pueblo, Colo., March 6.—Just before the flood waters, June 3, 1921, struck Pueblo, a Mexican woman asked a neighbor Mexican woman to care for her baby, while she went downtown. The flood prevented the woman from returning home as she expected. Several days later, when she did reach the home of the neighbor, the neighbor had moved.
