

Mixed Cattle From Clarkson Sell Well Here

Feeder Near St. Edward Have Stock in Yards—Veteran Cattleman Says Many Made Money.

A load of mixed cattle was brought to the Omaha stockyards by Joseph Kotan of Clarkson which included 10 head of steers that averaged 1,250 pounds and sold for $9.35 a hundred.

In the shipment was one yearling that averaged 940 pounds that sold for the same price. The remainder of the consignment consisted of heifers.

Mr. Kotan said feeding operations around Clarkson were quite extensive and that there were a lot of good cattle to be shipped from that section.

Feeders Make Money. H. A. Merrill, veteran stockman of St. Edward, was a visitor at the Omaha stockyards, bringing in two loads of choice steers that sold for an even $9 a hundred.

The shipment included 46 head of steers, averaging 1,100 pounds and there were also seven yearlings that averaged 813 pounds, all going at the same price.

There still a lot of good cattle to be sent to the Omaha market from my section," said Mr. Merrill, "and cattle certainly ought to have made money for the stockraisers around St. Edward, as we have had a fine winter for feeding, with only one big storm all winter."

Sheep Make Profit. G. F. Lenhart came from Fort Morgan, Colo., with two loads of lambs, for which he received $14.50 a hundred.

Mr. Lenhart said the lambs made a gain of 50 pounds in 90 days and cost him $10.50 a hundred.

Lambs have been going out of Colorado pretty rapidly recently, and I have found lamb feeding this season quite profitable," said Mr. Lenhart. "I look for the movement to continue quite heavily for some time."

Feeding About Over. A load of fine quality Polled Hereford yearling steers and heifers was brought to the Omaha stockyards by John Bartek of Weston. There were 15 head of steers and seven head of heifers in the shipment, and they averaged 920 pounds and sold for $8.25 a hundred.

"Feeding operations in my neighborhood are nearly over," said Mr. Bartek, "most of the cattle already having been marketed. There are no big feeders around there and most of the farmers who had cattle, shipped them in early."

Ready for Spring. J. W. Decker came in from Newman Grove and brought in a load of choice Shorthorn cattle and a load of Poland China hogs.

Princess May Become Queen of Bulgaria

PRINCESS ILEANA. Bucharest, Rumania.—The fair Princess Ileana, youngest daughter of King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Rumania, may be the means of knitting a closer relation between her own country and Bulgaria.

Reports are to the effect that Boris III, Bulgaria's bachelor ruler, is quite fond of the youthful princess and their wedding in a few years would not be a surprise.

King Boris is just under 30. Scientists at the Sorbonne university, Paris, have discovered that alcoholic beverages, if given 50,000 to 100,000 volts of electricity, are placed in the same condition as if they had been stored away from 20 to 50 years.

Doctor Kidnaped in Oklahoma City

Seized at Home by Four Unmasked Men—Beaten and Thrown in Pool.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 7.—Dr. B. Cheston Goldberg, who late last night was abducted by four unmasked men at his home here walked into police headquarters today and told authorities that he regained consciousness while lying in a pool of mud about 13 miles from the city after having been beaten and robbed.

His face was disfigured by a slash from eye to throat. The physician expressed the belief that his captors were seeking narcotics which he carried in his emergency kit.

Dr. Goldberg said he had been bound and gagged just after being seized as he was putting his automobile in the garage for the night. His kidnapers, he said, sped rapidly away in their own machine.

When he regained consciousness early today, he said, he was lying in a mud hole on the road 13 miles in the country. His diamond ring and $80 in cash were gone.

"I don't know what happened," the doctor said. Leaves Estate of $65,000. Columbus, Neb., March 7.—(Special.)—The estate of the late Mrs. Eliza Turner, widow of M. K. Turner, of her daughter, Miss Martha Turner, Journal, is estimated at more than $65,000 in a petition for admission of her will to probate and appointment of prices 320 acres of Platte county land.

that his captors were seeking narcotics which he carried in his emergency kit. "They stripped me of everything I had and beat me on the back," he told police. He was unable to explain what caused the injury on his face.
