Nebraska Track Team Cards Two Meets

Lincoln, March 10 .- (Special Telegram.)-Twenty Nebraska athletes will compete with the universities of New Mexico and California in track and field games. Californai challenged the Huskers some time ago and Director of Athletics Fred Dawson announced Saturday night that this offer had been accepted and that a meet had been arranged with New Mexico at Albuquerque en route.

The New Mexico meet will be held March 28 and the California meet April 7. The Huskers entrain March 23 and stop at Kansas City for the Missouri Valley indoor meet March 24. Track Coach Schulte was operated on following the Illinois relays, but it was a minor operation and he is recovering rapidly. He will be in charge of the Nebraska team. The only time California and Nebraska ever met in athletic competition was in the spring of 1920 when the Husker baseball team won a 1 to 0 victory in a baseball game played here. John Pickett was captain of the Nebraska team that year. He pitched the game.

MOORE ANOTHER MASSEY.

EDDIE MOORE, Oklahoma City player, may turn out to be a whizz with the Sioux City club of this circuit.

Not so long ago, Eddie was transferred to the Packers. There's a reason, just like there is in grape nuts. For instance, Moore has worlds of natural baseball ability, but he is so sensitive to criticism that the opposition he has met from the stands and bleachers in Oklahoma City would have injured his playing. Therefore, on a new club in a new town, Moore will probably do bet-
