"Acting" Mother, 9, Runs Away to Play

Little Girl Grows Tired of Keeping House for Four Brothers and Sisters.

Eva Kennedy, 9, 1203 1-2 South Eleventh street, missing from her home since last Thursday, was found vesterday, in Council Bluffs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Peterson, 2801 Avenue A, with whom she had Wanted to Buy been visiting. The little girl, acting mother to four brothers and sisters. did not want to return home and said she wanted "to stay and play with

Eva, though she is not the eldest of the children, has to be mother to the family. Her father, a cripple, attempts to help her after the mother leaves for her duties at the day nursery, where she is employed as a cook, but the brunt of the housework falls on the shoulders of Eva.

Each day the little girl watches the other children of the neighborhood going out to play from the porch of her home; but her housework will not permit her to join them. For months she has dreamed of the else and join the other children of her age in their games.

Opportunity Comes.

At last an opportunity to be free, Trackage Property at least for a time, presented itself. with the Kennedys often wanted er hese errands and then would pay her. She saved all the money that she earned in this way until at last she had $1.07.

Last Thursday she put on her best dress, took a street car to Council Bluffs and went to the Peterson

"My mother has sent me to play with Gretchen," she told Mrs. Peterupon reaching the "Teacher is sick and there will be no school, so mother said that I could come over here and play."

The Petersons formerly employed Mrs. Kennedy and knew the child well, so they welcomed her. What money remained after Eva had paid her carfare was used by Gretchen and herself to purchase sweets. For three days the child had the "time of her life," eating sweets and playing all

Forgets That Parents Worry .

But Eva had forgotten that her parents might worry about her nonap pearance. She did not stop to think that they would notify the police that she was gone. But that is what they
