

Supreme Court Reverses Order in Potash Case

$75,000 Judgment Obtained
by Peter Long and Wife
Against Krauses Held
Null and Void.

Lincoln, March 12.—(Special.)—The Nebraska supreme court today declared null and void the $75,000 judgment obtained in the district court of Douglas county by Peter J. Long and his wife, Anna Long, against Herman J. Krause and John H. Krause. The high court affirms a judgment of the district court of Sherman county which found that the judgment had been obtained by fraud and false testimony and enjoined Long and his wife from proceeding to collect it.

The entire transaction grew out of the boom on potash which existed during the war, and record showing that in 1915 the Longs sold to the Krauses their Sheridan county ranch for a consideration of $8,000, receiving a deed for the land, upon which existed a 200-acre potash lake.

Two years later they brought suit in the district court of Douglas county asking damages and alleging that they were unaware at the time of the sale of the potash contents of the lake, while this was known to the defendants. They were given a judgment of $75,000. Two years later the Krauses brought suit in Sheridan county to enjoin enforcement of the judgment, which they alleged had been obtained by conspiracy and fraud.

The district court found that the Longs had not been deceived and enjoined the collection of the judgment. The high court's opinion approving the finding is written by Justice Good.

The court deferred sentence until the full amount of the shortage can be determined.

French Lay Down Law to Germans in Ruhr

Into the streets despite the commanding general's order prohibiting civilians from being out after 7 p. m. A crowd assembled in the town square and soon afterward several hundred Germans, mostly men, attempted to storm a French guard post where seven or eight soldiers were stationed.

Demand Reason.

The Germans demanded the reason for the killing of the two men. The soldiers repeatedly ordered them away, but the crowd refused to heed the warnings, the reports state, becoming more excited, finally attacking the house in which the guard was quartered. On being attacked the soldiers fired, killing five Germans and wounding several.

Additional troops were ordered out and all civilians were ordered to return to their homes but it was long after midnight before order was entirely restored.

One of the two men killed in the earlier shooting had boasted to friends recently, according to French information, that he was preparing to kill a French officer. When the gendarmes heard of this, in view of Saturday's assassinations, they went to this man's house and began searching for him. His wife declared he had not been at home all that day or the night before, but the gendarmes pursued their search and found him hiding in a wardrobe with another man, a neighbor, who also was suspected of being implicated in the shootings.

Gendarmes Open Fire.

The two men were being taken to a guard post when they broke away and ran down the street. The gendarmes opened fire and brought down both men.

Dortmund, where the eighth German was killed during the attack by the crowd on the French troops, is without police protection. The Berlin government, according to the French authorities, has prohibited the municipality from organizing a "blue" police force to replace the expelled security police. As a consequence many of the citizens are arming themselves and patrolling the streets at night to protect their homes and property.

He is alleged to have driven his car ahead of a fire truck on Sixteenth street between Capitol avenue and Davenport. He testified he heard the siren behind him, and was afraid to turn out for fear of being hit by the truck.

Charge of Manslaughter Against Doctor Dropped

Lincoln, March 12.—The indictment against Dr. Alphonse R. Des Jardin of Lincoln, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Mrs. Edna Martin of Waverly, November 20, 1920, was dismissed in district court here this morning upon motion of Deputy County Attorney Max G. Towle, who said his motion was made upon advice of the county attorney.

Dr. Des Jardin was tried on the charge nearly two years ago. The jury could not agree upon a verdict and was discharged. During the session of the grand jury a year ago, Dr. Des Jardin was indicted upon the same charge. Both the original information and the indictment were dismissed.

Tanlac.

"The wonderful benefits I have received from Tanlac are so noticeable that my children tell me: 'Mother, you are looking fine nowadays,'" recently said Mrs. Thomas Denzel of 2714 Woodlawn avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

"As the result of an accident, I was left terribly weak and run down.

My appetite was almost gone and I suffered from indigestion, palpitation, dizziness and headaches until I was almost frantic. I had severe pains across my chest and shoulders and was so nervous I was tossing and turning at night when I could have been sleeping. I don't think I could have stood such pain and misery much longer.

"Well, when I saw how Tanlac was helping me, I kept right on until I had used the full treatment of six bottles and had relief from every trouble. My food tastes just grand now, and I'm eating heartily, sleeping fine and feeling well and happy. Tanlac will always have my deepest gratitude."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.

Front Lace Corsets

The Week Beginning
March 12th to 16th

With us will be Mrs. M. S. Pritchard, honorary principal of the La Camille School of Scientific Corsetting. Mrs. Pritchard will demonstrate why front lace corsets are preferred, why they assist in giving woman an adorable back, support the abdomen and are easily adjusted.

All in plain sight, she will explain the four exclusive features of La Camille—THE VENTILIO BACK, THE VENTILIO FRONT SHIELD, THE LOX-IT CLASP and the BENDILO, a new idea which prevents the top of the corset punching into the body when the wearer is seated.

Mrs. Pritchard is a woman with long experience and charming personality—she knows all about corsets and her advice and fittings are free.
