Peru were the class of the circuit, an effort was made to arrange games between the two teams. They were not scheduled to meet. It began with a semi-official challenge published, according to the report, at the request of Coach Speer of Peru. Coach McCandles accepted the challenge and offerd two sets of playing dates and a home-and-home plan. Coach Speer ingisted on a three-game series. As a result a series was never arranged.

There were several good teams in conference besides the league leaders. The entire first division was playing good basket ball before the season closed, and there were some consistant players in the personnel

Tigers Can't Be Stopped, Says Cobb 1896

Augusta, Ga., March 12.-Manager Ty Cobb of the Detroit Tigers expects to win the American league pennant this year regardless of the fact that 1909 the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Browns, who ran "one-two" in 1922, are just as strong as they were last season. Ty declines to express his belief as a prediction, but he honestly feels there is no team in the American league that can stop

It certainly is true that not in a dozen years has a Detroit team started off with the promise of this year's outfit. Cobb can muster two complete baseball clubs; for every regular there is a substitute who can do almost as well as the man for whom he understudies.
