The STEINWAY

"The Instrument of the Immortals"

Messrs. Steinway & Sons.

Gentlemen: "The supreme qualities of your instruments have been for many years universally recognized. Public and individuals, amateurs and artists, have been looking upon your pianos as a standard of perfection. Whenever perfection is attained, progress is stopped; for there is no room for climbing when the summit has been reached. And yet, in your case, this law of nature seems to have been de-

"Is there anything which could demonstrate more convincingly the wealth of resources of your firm, the astonishing vitality of your house? But there is in it something to rejoice the heart of everyone who is devoted to his profession; young men inherit fame and fortune, general respect and universal recognition most legitimately acquired by the genius, industry and honest, persistent labor of their illustrious forefathers. Instead of simply enjoying life, instead of dwelling passively upon the golden ancestral laurels, they concentrate, in noble, ambitious efforts, all their energy and up they go to a higher plane and, indeed, they reach still higher regions.

"Such a thing can only be accomplished by a sincere love of profession, and it is to this love of profession that I wish to pay my tribute of high esteem and ad-Most faithfully yours,

I. J. PADEREWSKI."

Do not fail to hear the World's Greatest Living Pianist, supported by the World's Greatest Piano, The Steinway. You are cordially invited to visit our Steinway Parlors, where you will find complete line of these world-famed instruments for your inspection. New York prices guaranteed. Moderate monthly payments arranged to suit the convenience of the purchaser, if desired.
