

Omaha Buffaloes Have One Bad Inning and Lose Odd Game to Dallas, 6 to 3

Konetchy Tries Out His Right Hand Flingers

Texans Wallop Speas Hard in Second Frame—Konetchy Brings Bat Into Play.

ALLAS, Tex., March 22. (Special.)—In a second inning slow-up chucked full of woody baseball of the vernal variety, Omaha dumped the odd game of the series here in the laps of the Dallas Texas leaguers. The final count was 6 to 3 and the Dallas Steers ran in five of their runs in the fatal frame.

Konetchy Starts Things.

Konetchy started the scoring in the second inning with a single, tallying from first on Griffin's long double to right center.

In the Dallas half, Speas walked, Wano, issued a wild pitch, then cut down two batsmen on a strikeout and a fly. Conley's double brought in the tying run. Kitts singled, scoring Conley, and on the throw, slid around a sure tag at second. Massey beat out an infield hit, and Kitts registered on a double steal. Hales' pop getting away from Apperson. Hales dropped Seely's foul. Then when the batter lifted an easy fly to right, O'Connor misjudged the ball. It dropped for three bases, scoring Massey. McDonald's low throw of a grounder let Seely score the last run.

An Error Helps.

In the eighth, Apperson reached second on a single and an error and scored on Hales' hit. In the Dallas half, one run came in when Massey's double followed two walks. In the ninth, two walks and an error filled the bases for Omaha with one out but the one run was scored on an infield out.

Soldier Classified as Army Deserter Who Joins Reds

Orlando, Fla., March 22.—At liberty under bond on promise of the Cincinnati National League club to stand responsible for him, Danny Dever, youthful pitcher, today awaited the next move to unravel the tangle in which he placed himself when he left the army at Fort McDowell, Cal., and came here to join the Reds.

Golfer Should Be Careful to Select Clubs Which Fit

By STANLEY DAVIES, (Golf Instructor Field Club).

Golf players too frequently handicap their progress from the start by purchasing clubs not suited to them.

In selecting a club, take your natural stance and place the club at the address. The entire sole of the club head should rest on the ground, otherwise it does not fit you and will cause you to have an exaggerated flat or upright swing.

The length of the driver suited to most golfers is 42 1/2 inches, brassie 42 inches, spoon 41 inches, cleek 39 inches and 38 inches, mashie iron 37 1/2 inches, mashie niblick 36 1/2 inches and putter 34 inches.

Women's clubs should measure one inch shorter. In taking up the weight of clubs, I am presuming that there are good shafts in the clubs, as weight does not mean anything when the shafts are not seasoned correctly and are too thick and supple.

A driver should weigh 13 1/2 ounces, brassie 13 1/4 ounces and a spoon 14 ounces. All iron clubs ought to weigh around 14 1/2 ounces except the putter. The weight of a putter head should be 9 ounces, shaft 8 1/2 ounces, making a total weight of 15 1/2 ounces.

Women's clubs should be approximately one ounce lighter. The regulars beat the neighbors' children in the first nine-inning game of the trip. Score was 11 to 5. McGraw took advantage of the low wind and sent the boys along for the route.

It was featured by Kelly's home run with two on. Kelly got hold of the ball and looped it over Stengel's head just as Casey was instructing the other two players how to lay for Kelly.

Another buzzing play was a diving catch by Greh of a low liner. Greh slid on his vest buttons for 10 feet and picked the ball off the doormat. This play earned the first applause of the season.

The regulars used Morrison, Cvangros and Johnson in the box. Morrison looked the best of these three.

The younger set employed Warburgh, Lucas and Voigt as their torchbearers. Red Lucas again stood out from the others. There were plenty of plays that would have looked good in August and also much good batting against stiff pitching.

All six pitchers put everything they had on the ball. Bancroft played for a while and then gave way to Rawlings.

O'Connell didn't do much today. The fierce sun spilled a fly ball out of his lap, but did the same thing to Cunningham.

Canton Bowler Takes Lead in A.B.C. Singles

Milwaukee, Wis., March 22.—Changes in the leaders of the singles and doubles events was the feature of today's play in the American Bowling Congress tournament, with the honors going to Canton, O., and Milwaukee, respectively.

K. Schario of Canton took the lead in the singles when he totaled 6995, topping Elmer Lee of Milwaukee, who was leading with 6933. Schario had games of 244, 208, and 243. E. Mueller and S. Summers of Milwaukee rolled into the lead in the doubles when they counted 1,273 pins, Muller coming through with 671 on games of 219, 198 and 200. Summers carried his partner with 656 pins on counts of 203, 266, and 187. In his last game he had three spits, which accounts for his low score. L. Boinin and O. Berkley, of Eau Claire, Wis., totaled 1,250, tying for third place in the doubles.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX. INSTEAD of staking the boys to a day off to make out their income blanks, Manager McGraw cracked the whip in a faster tempo. Maybe it is just as well.

This is a sad holiday all over the works. The poor get a little poorer and the rich grow much richer. Hard work and sore muscles will take your mind off financial entanglements.

Ring Notables to See Bout

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

International News Service Sports Editor. New York, March 22.—If the well laid plans of Mr. T. Rickard do not "game a-gley," the present heavyweight champion, three former incumbents of that eminent position and two prominent contenders for the title will be in or near the ring on the afternoon of May 12, when Jess Willard and Floyd Johnson do battle for sweet charity, $25,000 apiece and the Right to make overt gestures at Jack Dempsey.

The list includes Brother Dempsey himself, champion and illustrious author; Jim Jeffries and Jim Corbett, ex-champions whose names will live as long as fists are flaut; Willard, another former champion, and Johnson and Luis Angel Firpo, contenders of repute.

Dempsey, according to present plans, is to referee the Willard-Johnson bout, with Jeffries and Corbett sitting at the ringside in the role of judges. This same trio will officiate when Firpo and his unknown adversary come together in the same ring on the same afternoon, the only exception being that Jeffries is scheduled to referee this one.

The three champions, past and present, have been invited to officiate by Rickard, according to a semi-official statement, and it is taken for granted that they will accept.
