

Head of Bluffs Savings Bank Dies at His Home

Theodore Laskowski, Native Son, Succumbs—Blood Transfusions Fail to Save Life.

Theodore Laskowski, 63, president of the Council Bluffs Savings bank, died at his home, 227 Ninth avenue, Thursday night after illness of three months with anemia. He rallied three weeks ago and was able to take rides in an automobile. He suffered a relapse and since that time his decline has been rapid.

Two blood transfusions were performed in an effort to save his life. Blood on both occasions was furnished by his niece, Miss Ada Spelman. Mr. Laskowski had been a resident of Council Bluffs all his life. Early in his business career he associated himself with the Council Bluffs Savings bank and worked his way through practically all capacities to head the institution. In addition to his bank duties, he was treasurer of the Iowa School for the Deaf and the Boy Scouts.

He was a member of the Saturday Noon club, Elks, Rotary and Council Bluffs Country club. One sister, Miss Mathilda Laskowski, survives him. He is also survived by three nephews, Edwin, Theodore and Frank Spelman, and five nieces, Mrs. D. W. Thompson, Mrs. A. M. White, Mrs. E. L. Hawkins and Misses Lula and Adah Spelman. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 at the home. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

This Leaves the Arms Free from Hairy Growths

(Toilet Talks)

A simple method for completely removing every trace of hair or fuzz is here given. This is painless and usually a single treatment will banish even stubborn growths. To remove hairs, make a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This method will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be certain you get delatone.

She's a Sensation Wife of Doctor Held in Theft

Mrs. Genevieve Paddelford, Who Says She's Friend of Mrs. Jack Cudahy, in Jail.

(International News Service Special Correspondent.)
Los Angeles, Cal., March 23.—"It is all a mistake. Everything not only can but will be satisfactorily expunged at the proper time."

Such was the reply today by Mrs. Genevieve Paddelford, former wife of Ben Teal, famous theatrical producer, and California social matron, in answer to the charge of grand larceny on which she was arrested late yesterday, as she sat in the "parlor" of the county jail and bared what she called "her side of the story."

Mrs. Paddelford, who jumped into international notice a year ago when she was arrested in Vienna on a similar complaint, is specifically charged with the failure to pay debts amounting to approximately $15,000 which she contracted with Hollywood and Pasadena merchants.

"Work of Husband."

"The entire thing is the work of my husband, Dr. George H. Paddelford, from whom I separated two years ago and who is suing me for divorce now," she charged.

"When I reached Los Angeles from Europe six weeks ago I passed a few days with Mrs. Jack Cudahy and then decided to take a cottage in Pasadena. I had the place furnished completely from a furniture dealer who was a friend of Mrs. Cudahy. Several department stores gladly allowed me a charge account, which I opened in my maiden name, Genevieve McKinney.

Furniture Men Come.

"The news of my divorce broke and first the furniture men became alarmed and removed all the things from the house. I had no alternative, so I left the city for a few days, going to Carmel. There I learned charges had been sworn against me, so I returned. Now I find that all the merchants who had granted me a charge account have joined in the complaint. Everything could have been paid at the end of the time limit I was granted."

Mrs. Paddelford, accustomed to silks and linens, but now attired in the coarse blue denim jail garb, presented a pitiful picture as she told between sobs her story of adversity.

There is a saying that the children of Hawaii "learn to dance before they can creep." This goes for Gracielita, the pretty Spanish dancer, who was born in Hawaii and is now creating a sensation on the stage.

Fight on Sugar Profiteering

Senator Capper Calls for Housewives' Strike to Beat Crafters.

Washington, March 23.—Charges that there is a conspiracy in the sugar trade to raise prices were said at the Department of Justice today to be of sufficient gravity to warrant a preliminary inquiry by the federal government's legal officers. A conference was arranged between Acting Attorney General Seymour and Secretary Hoover with a view of joint action.

Washington, March 23.—"Sugar profiteers can be driven from their dugouts if the housewife will strike," Thus did Senator Capper of Kansas, head of the farm bloc, summarize the situation disclosed by Basil Manly in messages to President Harding calling for an investigation and he continued:

"You recall the meatless, wheatless, flourless days of five years ago. 'But that was war time,' you say. Sure, and this is war time, too. It is war against consciousnessless profiteers who rob the people."

"You say you hate the profiteer. Prove it by bringing him to his knees, begging for mercy. You can do it in a week if all will help. The millions should declare 'not a cent of tribute to corner and gamblers.'

"The people have the power. They don't use it. That makes them lambs to be shorn."

Fractured Skull Caused Man's Death, Autopsy Shows

Joe Thomas, 49, 2520 N street, interior decorator who was found dead in his cell in South Omaha jail Tuesday morning, died as the result of a fractured skull, according to Dr. S. McCleneghan, coroner's physician, who performed an autopsy.
